Kennedy Throws His Hat Into Ring

Declares U.S. On Perilous Course

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy charged into the contest today to wrest the Democratic presidential nomination from President Johnson, saying the country is on "a perilous course."

The New York senator's entry into the race at a crowded televised news conference pits him against a fellow Roman Catholic and Vietnam war critic, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota.

Opposes Johnson Policies

Kennedy said his entry against Johnson, the man chosen by his assassinated brother was not in opposition to the individual but to his policies.

But he added the only way to change the "disastrous, divisive" policies of the Johnson administration is to oppose the man himself.

Kennedy said he will enter his name in the June 2 California primary, and also those in Oregon May 28 and Nebraska May 17 because the laws of those states require that his name go on the ballot.

He stated at the same time he intends to "both support and expand his (McCarthy's) valiant campaign." He called for the biggest possible majorities for McCarthy in primaries next month in Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts.

To Strive For Harmony

Kennedy said he made clear to McCarthy that "my candidacy would not be in opposition to his, but in harmony."

"My desire is not to divide the strength of those forces seeking a change, but to increase," the New Yorker senator said.

"Finally, my decision reflects no personal animosity or disrespect toward President Johnson. He served President Kennedy with the upmost loyalty and was extremely kind to me and members of my family in the difficult months which followed the events of November 1963."

"I run because I am convinced that this country is on a perilous course and because I have such strong feelings about what must be done that I am obliged to do all I can," Kennedy said.

Realizes Challenge

"I do not lightly dismiss the dangers and difficulties of challenging an incumbent president," he added in his formal announcement before a national television audience from the old Senate Office Building Caucus Room.

"But these are not ordinary times and this is not an ordinary election," he said. "At stake is not simply the leadership of our party or even our country—it is our right to more leadership on this planet."

The New York senator said, "I have previously communicated this decision to President Johnson" and late last night his brother, Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., went to Wisconsin to "communicate my decision to Senator McCarthy."

Wants To End Bloodshed

Kennedy said he is running to "end the bloodshed" and to close the gaps in America between rich and poor, young and old" He said his aim was to make "America stand for hope."

He went on to say he is running "because it is now unmistakably clear" that what he called disastrous policies can be changed only by changing those who made them.

Where Brother Announced

The scene of Kennedy's news conference was the historic caucus room of the old Senate Office Building where John F. Kennedy announced his candidacy Jan. 2, 1960.

But the setting was drastically different.

The 42-year-old former attorney general begins his quest under enormous handicaps:

—He is seeking to dislodge an incumbent President.

—He is a step behind another Democratic dissident, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., who made an impressive showing in Tuesday's New Hampshire primary and is expected to make a strong showing in Wisconsin April 2.

—His early soundings have indicated strong opposition to his plunge from many Democratic leaders who fear a party cleavage that could hand the presidency to the Republican candidate in November.

Made Decision Thursday

Kennedy made his decision late Thursday.

The decision came after lengthy secret conferences with his intimates—many of whom were in on the John Kennedy strategy sessions in 1960.

Firmly on his side from the beginning was his wife, Ethel.

Two-Day Parley Beginning In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — America's six allies in the London gold pool converged on Washington today for a two-day conference seeking to solve the gravest global money crisis in 40 years.

As the central bankers assembled, a congressional drive developed to force a greater fiscal austerity on this country—and thus to generate, it was hoped, greater confidence in the dollar.

The plan calls for not only the deflationary 10 per cent tax sur charge asked by President Johnson, but a multibillion-dollar slash in Johnson's fiscal 1969 spending budget—a cut imposed on him by act of Congress.

That congressional move reportedly had the approval of Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., the potent chairman of the House Ways and Means committee.

Mills has admitted nothing publicly but is known to have conferred at length with Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., of the House Appropriations Committee. Mahon favors the double-edged plan.

But it remained to be seen whether those moves, buttressing the secret seven-power talks in the mausoleum-like Federal Reserve Board building, would dissuade profit-hungry gold speculators from resuming next week their frantic assault on the dollar in the world's gold markets.

The crisis was generally regarded as the most severe since the stock market collapse of 1929.

Airtight security was assured for the weekend conference of the central bankers of the United States, Britain, Belgium, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands and Switzerland.

The session was to start at a 1 p.m. luncheon. The only communique, a board spokesman said, will be issued at the meeting's close sometime Sunday afternoon.

U.S. officials exuded calm confidence, meanwhile, that the nation's gold reserves will outlast the nerve and the resources of the gold hoarders who, for a frenzied fortnight, have been demanding gold for dollars—and hoping to enrich themselves by breaking down the dollar, keystone currency of the free world.

Congressional leaders echoed official assurances the $35-an-ounce price for gold will be maintained. Chairman John Sparkman, D-Ala., of the Senate Banking Committee predicted "it will be the speculators who suffer the greatest injury."

The senior Republican on the committee, Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah, concurred. "We have more than $11 billion in gold," he said, "and I do not think private speculators can raise enough money to drain that out."

Bennett indicated his belief Congress is ready for stern measures to halt the erosion of the dollar through inflation and to correct the country's balance of payments deficit—the two conditions which, in Europe's view, have undermined confidence in the dollar overseas.

GIs Kill 128 Viet Cong In Central Coast Battle

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. infantrymen, in a hide-and-seek fight through rice paddies and sand dunes along the central coast, killed 128 Viet Cong guerrillas today, the U.S. Command said.

A spokesman said a company of the 11th Light Infantry Brigade, sweeping into an area that had been bombarded minutes earlier, tangled with guerrillas this morning.

A second company was dropped by helicopters two miles to the north an hour later and heavy fighting broke out as the guerrillas tried to escape the tightening vise.

Infantrymen Supported

Helicopter gunships and artillery supported the advancing U.S. infantrymen in the running battle six miles northeast of Quang Ngai City and 330 miles northeast of Saigon.

American casualties were not given since the forces were still in contact, a U.S. spokesman said.

In the Vietnam war's biggest operation, centered around Saigon, the total of slain enemy soldiers gradually increased to 394 with 83 suspects detained in the first six days. The U.S. Command said 27 Americans have been killed and 213 wounded. Vietnamese army headquarters said casualties among the government troops were light.

The latest clash was fought by soldiers of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division who killed nine guerrillas and captured three suspects Friday near Thu Duc, nine miles northeast of Saigon. American losses were 2 killed and 10 wounded.

Kill 81 Enemy Soldiers

Earlier Friday, a combined American-South Vietnamese force killed 81 enemy soldiers in the biggest battle so far in Operation Quyet Thang—Resolve to Win.

Chief Asks Residents To Call

Firemen Check On Arson Following 2 More Blazes

Arson is suspected in two fires at vacant homes here Friday, Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne said today.

And it is believed eight other vacant buildings which have been hit by fire in the past three weeks also have been set, he added.

Burned yesterday were dwellings at 1010 Waterloo St. and 914 St. Clair Ave.

Van Dyne said in recent weeks firemen have found matches at the scene of some of the blazes.

He said he talked with 25 residents of St. Clair Ave. last night in an effort to determine who started the latest fire, but failed to come up with clues.

He issued an appeal today for residents to call him, either at home or at the fire station, with any pertinent information relative to any of the fires. He stressed that all calls and information will be kept confidential.

The chief pointed out that when he talked with neighbors in other areas about past fires he received little cooperation since many feared reprisals if they talked.

Van Dyne said he does not believe the Diamond fire March 3 was the work of those suspected of arson.

The Waterloo St. fire broke out in two different places about 11:41 a. m., firemen said.

Flames flared both in leaves

Brown Quits British Post In Wake Of Gold Crisis

LONDON (AP) — A political whirlwind churned in London today after the world gold crisis brought on the resignation of volatile George Brown as foreign secretary and the appointment of mild-mannered Michael Stewart.

It was believed unlikely that British foreign policy will change much under Stewart but the impact at home was sharp with opposition cries for the resignation of Prime Minister Harold Wilson.

Brown and Stewart both defended the Labor government's support of U.S. policy in Vietnam, and both pushed Britain's application to join the European Common Market.

In his resignation letter to Wilson Friday, Brown said he had been troubled for some time by "the way this government is run and the manner in which we reach our decisions." The last straw for the 53-year-old minister, however, was not being consulted by Wilson in the decision to close the London gold market Friday at Washington's suggestion.

Why Wilson could not contact Brown was a mystery.

'Foolish,' Claims Gosney

Area Democrats Ponder Effects Of Kennedy's Bid

Announcement by Sen. Robert Kennedy that he will seek the Democrat nomination for president brought sharply mixed reaction from Democrats of the District.

There was some reported strong favoritism for Kennedy in Hancock County, where the senator spoke in 1960 in behalf of his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy, at Weirton when JFK was campaigning in West Virginia.

But on this side of the Ohio River, Democrat spokesmen were critical of the seanator's move into the campaign.

Don R. Gosney, county Democrat chairman, termed the bid "foolish," adding, "He couldn't shine his brother's shoes."

GOSNEY, a candidate for delegate to the party's national convention, is supporting Sen. Stephen Young as a favorite son, but strongly backing President Lyndon Johnson for renomination. He said of Kennedy, "If he were a party man, he should have waited until 1972—he just can't win."

"When President Kennedy suffered the setback at the Bay of Pigs, the rest of his party didn't jump on him. But Sen. Kennedy is using Vietnam as an issue against the President," Gosney declared.

"Shocked," was the reaction from Maurice Rapport, veteran city Democrat leader and a candidate for delegate to the convention. Rapport said he thought Kennedy would support the President up to the last second.

RAPPORT STATED he believes Kennedy's attempt will hurt the party. "And I regret this. I have respect for the senator, but I think he has made a mistake, and it will hurt him in the future."

Although some Hancock Democrats thought Kennedy was a "Johnny-come-lately" in view of Sen. Eugene McCarthy's success in the New Hampshire primary, others favored his efforts.

Walter Nogay of Weirton, chairman of the county's Democrat executive committee, said he had not fully analyzed the move.

But he said he thought it would probably be good for the party and the country to have more than "one candidate." "There are too many issues, and the people should be offered a choice," Nogay declared.

Asked about the appeal of the Kennedy name in Hancock, Nogay said the senator "has a different glamor" than the President.

The Beaver County Democrat Committee usually supports the State Policy Committee, which has endorsed Johnson and Humphrey for the primaries. However, Beaver County Democrat chairman Eli Corak of Midland feels this may not apply this year.

He said Kennedy's announcement in no way surprised him.

Deaths and Funerals

Leward R. Potts

Services for Leward Robert Potts Jr., 49, of 222 E. 2nd St., an employe of the Smith and Phillips Co., will be held Monday at 10:30 a. m. at the Martin Funeral Home. The Rev. E. C. Traylor of the First Church of Christ (Disciples) will officiate.

Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Mr. Potts was found dead in the company's warehouse on Green Ln. this morning by Harry Cunningham, another employe. He apparently took his life with a 32-caliber pistol found beside his body. Coroner Dr. Roy Costello ruled the death a suicide.

A World War II veteran, Mr. Potts was born in East Liverpool Jan. 13, 1919, a son of Mrs. Lucille Warrick Potts, who lives in East Liverpool, and the late Leward R. Potts. He resided here his lifetime.

He was a refinisher of furniture for the company for 20 years and last worked Friday. He was a member of VFW Post.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his widow, Mrs. Hazel Blazer Potts, at home, and two brothers, Bernard W. Potts of New Kensington, Pa., and Frank L. Potts of East Liverpool.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday afternoon and night.

Harold Kirk

Services and burial for Harold H. Kirk, 79, of Fargo, N.D., a former resident of Salineville, were held at Fargo with burial in Sunset Memorial Gardens there.

Mr. Kirk died March 5 at the Dakota Hospital at Fargo after an illness of four months.

He was born Oct. 30, 1888, in Salineville, a son of the late Harry H. Kirk and Nora D. Kirk. He was graduated from Salineville High School and Ohio Wesleyan University. He served as principal of the high school at Larimore, N. D., and as superintendent of schools at Cavalier, Casselton and Jamestown, N. D., and Faribault, Minn.

He was superintendent of city schools at Fargo for 19 years until his retirement in 1954. He was a member of Gethsemane Cathedral, Kiwanis Club and the York and Scottish Rites. He was a 33rd degree Mason and was past master of Shiloh Lodge and past grand patron of Eastern Star of North Dakota.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Mary Crosser Kirk, at home; two daughters, Mrs. George (Ruth) Evans of San Antonio, Tex., and Mrs. Walter (Lois) Cress of Billings, Mont.; a sister Miss Lydia Kirk of Salineville, and four grandchildren.

Carl Peters

EAST PALESTINE — Carl E. Peters, 59, of 215 W. Clark St., a former employe at the Royal China Co., died today at 5 a. m. at home after a long illness.

A native of New Springfield, Mr. Peters was born Oct. 27, 1908, a son of the late Allen Peters and Laura Lipe Peters. Before working at Royal China, he was a selector in the decorating shop of the former W. S. George Pottery Co. He last worked in September, when he retired because of his health.

Man Charged In Entering Candy Store

A city man is being held in jail here under $5,000 bond on charges filed after he was caught inside a Dresden Ave. confectionery early this morning by police who went to investigate a call.

Dean Newlen, 29, of 916 Fairview St. was charged with burglary in the night season (breaking and entering) after Lt. Paul A. Burson Jr., located him in the rear of the Hales Confectionery at 781 Dresden Ave., about 12:19 a. m. today.

Burson, who went inside to investigate noises heard by a passerby, found Newlen, pinned him to the floor and handcuffed him as other officers arrived on the scene.

Burson was at the scene when Patrolman W. F. Copestick and Dwight Garvey were dispatched. When they arrived, Burson had already found the man. The two then searched the building, but located no one else inside.

Police reported the suspect apparently broke a door window 25½ by 27 inches on the south side of the building, but could not gain entrance. Then he went to the rear of the building and removed a storm window, broke a 27½ by 30 inch window and reached through to unlock it. He entered through a store room, then broke another door window about 23 by 27 inches and entered the store.

He removed a large amount of change from the cash register and drawer beneath it, police said.

After he was captured, Newlen complained of chest pains and was taken to City Hospital by Lynn Ambulance where he was examined and released.

The store is owned by George W. Hales of 836 McKinnon Ave.

on a downstairs floor and in an upstairs closet.

Asst. Fire Chief Frank Butler said six men with two pumpers and the squad truck responded to the call and were on the scene 42 minutes.

Butler said the owner of the dwelling is unknown.

The St. Clair blaze erupted about 4:52 p. m., with flames breaking out in the first - floor ceiling and extending to the floor and wall on the second floor when firemen arrived.

The two - story frame dwelling is owned by Merle Peaslee of 10522 Langton Ave., Garfield Heights, Cleveland. Two pumpers from the Northside and Central stations responded. Firemen were on the scene 32 minutes.

A minute before the St. Clair Ave. alarm, firemen were called to what was described as a burning car at John and Florence Sts.

Two firemen arrived with the Central squad truck, but found no auto.

New Record Set By Timet On Job Safety

Special ceremonies were held at the Titanium Metals, Inc., a plant at Toronto Friday marking a new safety record set by employes and management.

On March 5 the Timet Plant surpassed the 5 million man hour mark without a lost time accident, John N. Day, plant manager, reported.

The National Safety Council has confirmed this record set by the 1,200 employes for two years, places the plant as the world leader in the 149-member, non - ferrous metals and products division.

The next best time recorded in the division is 4 million manhours.

Day said the record "belongs to the employes," explaining the workers' awareness of safety and alertness led to the effective operation of the safety program.

Frank Rogers, president of Local 5644, said the record is the result of management's safety program and the strong involvement of the rank and file.

Day toured the plant yesterday, commending all departments, and at 10 a.m. the safety sign was changed to note the record.

2 County Spots Hit By Burglars

LISBON — Burglars hit a Route 39 service station and a contractor's storage trailer Thursday night in Columbiana County.

Casey Ramsier, superintendent for the Beaver Excavation Co. working on the Route 30 improvement west of Lisbon, reported the following items taken from the trailer:

Set of electric leads for welders, gauges, hose, torches, box of welding rods, case of automatic transmission fluid, five - gallon can of anti - freeze and a five - inch spud bar.

Sheriff's Deputy Richard Koffel said entry was made by knocking a padlock off a double door of the van - type trailer which was parked along the road.

Deputy Herman (Cy) Wellman said someone broke a window in a door to enter Wilbur Hays' service station near Southern Local High School. The intruder got an undetermined amount of change from the cash register and about 50 cartons of cigarettes.

Early Travel Protection...
Left Something To Be Desired

The word umbrella comes from a latin word meaning little shadow. The first umbrellas appeared in ancient Egypt and Assyria, held by slaves as sunshades above the heads of their masters. Today, just as the early motorists did, people in all parts of the world use umbrellas as protection against the rain. But unlike his early predecessors, today's motorist enjoys much more and varied protection under a much bigger umbrella, AAA membership. More than 10 million motorists are guaranteed such benefits as Emergency Road Service, personal accident insurance, travel aids and planning service, and bail and arrest-bond protection. What's more, it costs only pennies. Why not get under the AAA umbrella . . . call us today.

Deaths and Funerals

Leward R. Potts

Services for Leward Robert Potts Jr., 49, of 222 E. 2nd St., an employe of the Smith and Phillips Co., will be held Monday at 10:30 a. m. at the Martin Funeral Home. The Rev. E. C. Traylor of the First Church of Christ (Disciples) will officiate.

Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Mr. Potts was found dead in the company's warehouse on Green Ln. this morning by Harry Cunningham, another employe. He apparently took his life with a 32-caliber pistol found beside his body. Coroner Dr. Roy Costello ruled the death a suicide.

A World War II veteran, Mr. Potts was born in East Liverpool Jan. 13, 1919, a son of Mrs. Lucille Warrick Potts, who lives in East Liverpool, and the late Leward R. Potts. He resided here his lifetime.

He was a refinisher of furniture for the company for 20 years and last worked Friday. He was a member of VFW Post.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his widow, Mrs. Hazel Blazer Potts, at home, and two brothers, Bernard W. Potts of New Kensington, Pa., and Frank L. Potts of East Liverpool.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday afternoon and night.

Harold Kirk

Services and burial for Harold H. Kirk, 79, of Fargo, N.D., a former resident of Salineville, were held at Fargo with burial in Sunset Memorial Gardens there.

Mr. Kirk died March 5 at the Dakota Hospital at Fargo after an illness of four months.

He was born Oct. 30, 1888, in Salineville, a son of the late Harry H. Kirk and Nora D. Kirk. He was graduated from Salineville High School and Ohio Wesleyan University. He served as principal of the high school at Larimore, N. D., and as superintendent of schools at Cavalier, Casselton and Jamestown, N. D., and Faribault, Minn.

He was superintendent of city schools at Fargo for 19 years until his retirement in 1954. He was a member of Gethsemane Cathedral, Kiwanis Club and the York and Scottish Rites. He was a 33rd degree Mason and was past master of Shiloh Lodge and past grand patron of Eastern Star of North Dakota.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Mary Crosser Kirk, at home; two daughters, Mrs. George (Ruth) Evans of San Antonio, Tex., and Mrs. Walter (Lois) Cress of Billings, Mont.; a sister Miss Lydia Kirk of Salineville, and four grandchildren.

Bills Are Paid

HAMMONDSVILLE — Saline Township trustees paid bills totaling $3,500 during a meeting this week at the township hall. Wesley Glenn presided.

The rocket gun developed during World War II was given the name of bazooka by American soldiers who thought it looked like the musical instrument known by that name.

New Record Set By Timet On Job Safety

Special ceremonies were held at the Titanium Metals, Inc., a plant at Toronto Friday marking a new safety record set by employes and management.

On March 5 the Timet Plant surpassed the 5 million man hour mark without a lost time accident, John N. Day, plant manager, reported.

The National Safety Council has confirmed this record set by the 1,200 employes for two years, places the plant as the world leader in the 149-member, non - ferrous metals and products division.

The next best time recorded in the division is 4 million manhours.

Day said the record "belongs to the employes," explaining the workers' awareness of safety and alertness led to the effective operation of the safety program.

Frank Rogers, president of Local 5644, said the record is the result of management's safety program and the strong involvement of the rank and file.

Day toured the plant yesterday, commending all departments, and at 10 a.m. the safety sign was changed to note the record.

2 County Spots Hit By Burglars

LISBON — Burglars hit a Route 39 service station and a contractor's storage trailer Thursday night in Columbiana County.

Casey Ramsier, superintendent for the Beaver Excavation Co. working on the Route 30 improvement west of Lisbon, reported the following items taken from the trailer:

Set of electric leads for welders, gauges, hose, torches, box of welding rods, case of automatic transmission fluid, five - gallon can of anti - freeze and a five - inch spud bar.

Sheriff's Deputy Richard Koffel said entry was made by knocking a padlock off a double door of the van - type trailer which was parked along the road.

Deputy Herman (Cy) Wellman said someone broke a window in a door to enter Wilbur Hays' service station near Southern Local High School. The intruder got an undetermined amount of change from the cash register and about 50 cartons of cigarettes.

Bank Honors Employ For Record At Work

The Potters Bank & Trust Co. Friday afternoon honored Lester B. Jones of St. Clair Ave. Ext. for establishing a 20-year record without missing one day's work.

Jones, assistant cashier, is a graduate of the Ohio School of Banking and the Graduate School of Banking in Wisconsin. He and his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Jones, have a son and daughter. He began work at the bank March 15, 1948.

Early Travel Protection...
Left Something To Be Desired
The word umbrella comes from a latin word meaning little shadow. The first umbrellas appeared in ancient Egypt and Assyria, held by slaves as sunshades above the heads of their masters. Today, just as the early motorists did, people in all parts of the world use umbrellas as protection against the rain. But unlike his early predecessors, today's motorist enjoys much more and varied protection under a much bigger umbrella, AAA membership. More than 10 million motorists are guaranteed such benefits as Emergency Road Service, personal accident insurance, travel aids and planning service, and bail and arrest-bond protection. What's more, it costs only pennies. Why not get under the AAA umbrella . . . call us today.

City Has Many 'Rights,' Kaiser Tells Lions Club

A trucking center and a residential area for employes of nearby industries.

That's the appraisal of W. E. (Pete) Kaiser in a look at East Liverpool's future.

The local real estate man presented his thoughts when he addressed the Lions Club Friday noon at the Travelers Hotel on "What's Right With East Liverpool."

—:—

KAISER said he based his assumption about the trucking center on the fact that Route 11 will connect the Ohio River to the Great Lakes and shipping will find it easier to truck materials from Ashtabula to the Midwest than to transport them overland from New York.

He pointed out there is no more room within the corporate limits for large industry, but "the city is a nice place in which to live." Therefore, he assumed, with industry expanding in West Virginia, where there is "plenty of room," people employed in those industries will want to live here.

The highway is partially to blame for the lack of industry in the city, he declared. The route divides the city in such a manner that it would be difficult to build on either side of the road, he said.

Based on the theory, Kaiser said residents should push for a new bridge to help make the city as attractive as possible as a residential area.

AMONG other "rights," Kaiser mentioned the new airport which will be built shortly and expressed thanks to Mike Turk for donating the land.

He lauded City Hospital for its "personal touch" and said he knows of people from Florida and Baltimore who came to the hospital so they would be "a person, not a number."

Kaiser also commended those who are "becoming more civic-minded and making efforts to improve their communities."

He summed up with the statement: "There is more right with East Liverpool than wrong. It's a nice place in which to live."

During the business meeting, Charles Haugh, president, read a letter from the Newell Lions inviting local members to a dinner - dance March 23 in honor of Albert Logston, West Virginia district governor.

Fred Yonz, minstrel show chairman, announced there will be a rehearsal Monday evening and said a dress rehearsal March 28 at Westgate School will conclude the practice. He said greater participation by members' wives would be appreciated.

Fred Kane, vice president, reported 65 members and guests attended the charter night banquet at the Inn Town Motel Feb. 24.

Dr. M. D. Alpern informed members that he and Drs. John Fraser, Fraser Jackson, Allen O'Brien and Janus Lauva will appear in the minstrel show with a surprise act. The group is known as "The Gall Tones."

Thieves Ransack Dr. Rugh's Home

Thieves ransacked the home of Dr. J. Keith Rugh of 1112 Ohio Ave. between noon Thursday and 2 p. m. Friday, police report.

Missing are two .25-caliber automatic weapons and a .22-caliber pistol, officers said.

Entrance was made through the cellar, with a door smashed leading into the first - floor hallway.

A brick was thrown through a window of a Locust St. home this morning.

Mrs. Shirley Douglas of 1012 Locust said the brick knocked over a lamp, landed only 18 inches from where her sick son lay on a couch.

The incident was reported at 7:30.

Clinton Whiteleather of 455 Deer Lane, Rochester, Pa., said a television set was taken from his car parked on E. 5th St. between 5:45 and 6:15 p.m. Friday.

The antenna of a two - door hardtop was broken between 7 and 11 p. m. Thursday while the auto was parked in Dixonville.

Kenneth Browning of Dodge St. reported the vandalism about 4:25 p.m. yesterday.

Tenacchio Quits Post As Hancock Deputy

NEW CUMBERLAND — Hancock County Sheriff Joe Rodak has announced the resignation of one of his deputies, Dominic Tenacchio, effective March 31.

Tenacchio, a resident of 435 Helen St., became a deputy when Rodak took office in January 1965.

Tenacchio said he is returning to Weirton Steel. He had obtained a leave of absence from the plant when he became a deputy.

Plans Pushed For Building Hit By Blaze

Preliminary arrangements for the razing of two floors of the Isaly Dairy Store building, hit by fire two weeks ago, will be prepared soon according to plans made at a meeting Friday of firemen, city officials, and owners.

Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne said he met with Atty. George Aronson, Architect Robert Beatty, Harold Bricker, owner of the Isaly store, Sanford Weiner, owner of the Outdoor Army Store, and Chester Henry, deputy state fire marshall, Friday afternoon.

VanDyne said the men agreed that Beatty should draw up plans for the demolition of the top floors of the building. They will be submitted to VanDyne, and work will begin.

No decision has been made on the safety of the Arrow Pants Shop building which is next to the former Siff Shoe Store Building where the Diamond fire originated.

VanDyne said one wall and the top of the building were damaged, but to what extent, it is not known.

Frank Diamond, owner of a men's shop next to the Arrow Shop, said he is preparing to open his store again next Thursday. It received smoke and some water damage.

Toronto Youth Cited In Wellsville Mishap

A Toronto youth was cited for "failure to have his vehicle under control" after it struck another at Wellsville Friday at 11 p.m.

Police said considerable damage resulted to both autos when the 1965 sedan operated by William E. Potts, 17, struck a 1961 sedan owned by Aileen Milligan of 521 Broadway, which was parked in front of her home.

The Flemings, who speak Dutch, and the Walloons, who speak French, rarely have been on good speaking terms for the 1,400 years they have shared Belgian.

2 Are Fined For Club Raid

Jean Gillis, an employe of the Half Moon Club, and Robert Fryer, licensee, arrested in February raids on Hancock County establishments were fined Friday by Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

The woman drew a fine of $100 and costs for the possession of gaming devices, while Fryer was fined $25 and costs for the sale of beer after hours. Fryer also signed a waiver for the destruction of a blackjack table.

Fines Assessed In Traffic Cases

LISBON — Three drivers pleaded guilty to unsafe vehicle charges Thursday in Columbiana County Southwest Court and were fined $25 and costs each.

They were Russell G. Sinsley and Carl Kearns Jr., both of Salem RD 3, and Warren H. Garwood of Lisbon. Garwood was fined an additional $10 for failure to obey a traffic signal.

Judge J. L. MacDonald imposed fines of $15 on seven drivers cited for speeding. They were Robert Kessel and Charles W. Homan, both of Lisbon; Harvey S. Tullis and Elizabeth Short, both of Lisbon RD 2, Gail J. Smith, Hanoverton RD 1; Teddy J. Murphy, Kensington, and Carl M. Adkins, Mogadore.

Harry Maylone, East Liverpool RD 3, also charged with speeding, was fined $10, and Thomas H. Ryan of 803 Fair St., Salem, was fined $10 for driving left of center.

Appearance bonds were forfeited by Floyd A. Gilmore, Lisbon RD 2, no taillight, $15, and failure to produce an operator's license, $25, and Ronald L. Ostreem, Atlanta, Ga., unsafe vehicle.

Dinner Meeting Held At Grange

LISBON — Young married couples and board members of the Columbiana County Farm Bureau Federation held a dinner meeting Friday night at Mt. Nebo Grange Hall. Women of the grange served 60.

Tom Rudebock of Leetonia RD 1 was master of ceremonies. Mrs. Herbert Frischkorn of Wellsville RD 1 gave the invocation.

Board members introduced the guests, who told about their family and farming operation.

Glenn Pirtle of Grafton, northeast district supervisor for the state federation, described how the federation operates and how the cooperative and insurance company were organized. He was introduced by Dawson Irey of Lisbon RD 4, county farm bureau president.

Gene Courtney of Beloit RD, Landmark manager, and G. V. Weinstock of Lisbon, district sales manager for Nationwide, were introduced.

The group discussed farmers' problems. Bargaining and the Ohio Agricultural Marketing Association were explained. Rudebock was the caller for square dancing afterward.

City Has Many 'Rights,' Kaiser Tells Lions Club

A trucking center and a residential area for employes of nearby industries.

That's the appraisal of W. E. (Pete) Kaiser in a look at East Liverpool's future.

The local real estate man presented his thoughts when he addressed the Lions Club Friday noon at the Travelers Hotel on "What's Right With East Liverpool."

KAISER said he based his assumption about the trucking center on the fact that Route 11 will connect the Ohio River to the Great Lakes and shipping will find it easier to truck materials from Ashtabula to the Midwest than to transport them overland from New York.

He pointed out there is no more room within the corporate limits for large industry, but "the city is a nice place in which to live." Therefore, he assumed, with industry expanding in West Virginia, where there is "plenty of room," people employed in those industries will want to live here.

The highway is partially to blame for the lack of industry in the city, he declared. The route divides the city in such a manner that it would be difficult to build on either side of the road, he said.

Based on the theory, Kaiser said residents should push for a new bridge to help make the city as attractive as possible as a residential area.

AMONG other "rights," Kaiser mentioned the new airport which will be built shortly and expressed thanks to Mike Turk for donating the land.

He lauded City Hospital for its "personal touch" and said he knows of people from Florida and Baltimore who came to the hospital so they would be "a person, not a number."

Kaiser also commended those who are "becoming more civic-minded and making efforts to improve their communities."

He summed up with the statement: "There is more right with East Liverpool than wrong. It's a nice place in which to live."

During the business meeting, Charles Haugh, president, read a letter from the Newell Lions inviting local members to a dinner - dance March 23 in honor of Albert Logston, West Virginia district governor.

Fred Yonz, minstrel show chairman, announced there will be a rehearsal Monday evening and said a dress rehearsal March 28 at Westgate School will conclude the practice. He said greater participation by members' wives would be appreciated.

Fred Kane, vice president, reported 65 members and guests attended the charter night banquet at the Inn Town Motel Feb. 24.

Dr. M. D. Alpern informed members that he and Drs. John Fraser, Fraser Jackson, Allen O'Brien and Janus Lauva will appear in the minstrel show with a surprise act. The group is known as "The Gall Tones."

Thieves Ransack Dr. Rugh's Home

Thieves ransacked the home of Dr. J. Keith Rugh of 1112 Ohio Ave. between noon Thursday and 2 p. m. Friday, police report.

Missing are two .25-caliber automatic weapons and a .22-caliber pistol, officers said.

Entrance was made through the cellar, with a door smashed leading into the first - floor hallway.

A brick was thrown through a window of a Locust St. home this morning.

Mrs. Shirley Douglas of 1012 Locust said the brick knocked over a lamp, landed only 18 inches from where her sick son lay on a couch.

The incident was reported at 7:30.

Clinton Whiteleather of 455 Deer Lane, Rochester, Pa., said a television set was taken from his car parked on E. 5th St. between 5:45 and 6:15 p.m. Friday.

The antenna of a two - door hardtop was broken between 7 and 11 p. m. Thursday while the auto was parked in Dixonville.

Kenneth Browning of Dodge St. reported the vandalism about 4:25 p.m. yesterday.

Plans Pushed For Building Hit By Blaze

Preliminary arrangements for the razing of two floors of the Isaly Dairy Store building, hit by fire two weeks ago, will be prepared soon according to plans made at a meeting Friday of firemen, city officials, and owners.

Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne said he met with Atty. George Aronson, Architect Robert Beatty, Harold Bricker, owner of the Isaly store, Sanford Weiner, owner of the Outdoor Army Store, and Chester Henry, deputy state fire marshall, Friday afternoon.

VanDyne said the men agreed that Beatty should draw up plans for the demolition of the top floors of the building. They will be submitted to VanDyne, and work will begin.

No decision has been made on the safety of the Arrow Pants Shop building which is next to the former Siff Shoe Store Building where the Diamond fire originated.

VanDyne said one wall and the top of the building were damaged, but to what extent, it is not known.

Frank Diamond, owner of a men's shop next to the Arrow Shop, said he is preparing to open his store again next Thursday. It received smoke and some water damage.

Toronto Youth Cited In Wellsville Mishap

A Toronto youth was cited for "failure to have his vehicle under control" after it struck another at Wellsville Friday at 11 p.m.

Police said considerable damage resulted to both autos when the 1965 sedan operated by William E. Potts, 17, struck a 1961 sedan owned by Aileen Milligan of 521 Broadway, which was parked in front of her home.

Proposition On Pueblo

The State Department still is trying to make up its mind about the genuineness of the letter reportedly signed by members of the USS Pueblo.

North Korea claims the letter, which admits the spy ship was in North Korea's territorial water and asks a public apology from the United States, was signed by members of the Pueblo crew.

A State Department spokesman said "Final determination or conclusion has not been reached with receipt to authenticity" concerning the signatures.

The United States has avowed the ship was in international waters when seized Jan. 23.

North Korea, likewise, has stuck by its original statement that the Pueblo violated its territorial waters.

The credibility gap in the United States has made many American reluctant to promote a get-tough policy. They remember the U2 story and other incidents too well to leap without a good, long look.

In view of the present stalemate, we would like to see the State Department propose to North Korea that a representative of a third government be permitted to interview the Americans.

The intermediary could determine if the crewmen were being coerced, if the ship wandered off course, or if the United States or North Korea is lying.

Should North Korea refuse to pick a third-party representative from a list of three submitted by the United States, the world would know who has something to hide. In event of a North Korean refusal, alternatives could be considered.

Our proposition, of course, is based on the assumption the State Department has nothing to hide.

Style Toppers

A sure sign of spring is fashion shows. Crisp suits, bright dresses, jaunty hats all tell us the bud of spring is about to pop.

Though we do not profess to know anything about or understand ladies fashions, we can appreciate the value of style shows.

The delightful burst of color is a welcome change from a winter that has gone on too long.

Whether the styles are hip-hugging, knee-showing, loose-fitting, long-waisted, or eye-popping, they offer something for everyone.

One thing we like about spring attire is the lift it gives the wearer. You show us a woman who has a new spring fashion — anything from a hat to a whole outfit — and we will show you a buoyant female with a new lease on life.

A woman doesn't complete her spring ensemble until she puts on her smile — and that's the topper in our book.

Hail To Hinckley Ridge

Even Leap Year can't throw off the buzzards of Hinckley Ridge. They still return to their summer home in the small Ohio community on March 15. They desert their southern winter retreat for their Ohio home as regularly as clockwork.

This was not called to the attention of the world until 1957, when naturalist Walter Nawalane reported he had evidence the buzzards had returned on the same day for nearly three decades.

At first, Hinckley Ridge resident resented the intrusion of the curious into their placid community. The idea of being identified with buzzards and invaded by thousands of visitors was not appealing.

About 9,000 curious visitors were on hand March 15, 1957, to greet the buzzards when they arrived on schedule.

Hinckley citizens, after the flush of instant fame began to fade, saw the possibility of turning the affair into a annual benefit.

The first Sunday after March 15 was set aside as "Buzzard Sunday." Pancakes, sausage and hot coffee are served all day. The occasion has been transformed into a festival.

Thousands now turn up in Hinckley on Buzzard Sunday and make the day a family outing. It is their way of shaking off winter.

The hike through a wooded area of the Cleveland Metropolitan Park System to the buzzards' roost on Whipps Ledge in the northeastern corner of Medina County is a prelude to spring.

The buzzards and Hinckley Ridge have been the butt of many jokes and snickering remarks in the last 11 years. This is unfair.

Swallows of Capistrano the buzzards are not, but their service in the scheme of nature and their graceful flight on a six-foot wingspan are redeeming virtues.

Hinckley Ridge is to be commended for making the most of a natural resource.

Erin Go Bragh

The Irish of the Tri-State District may not be as demonstrative as those in Pittsburgh and New York where St. Patrick's Day parades are staged and the Shamrock is 'watered' in celebrations of long and loud duration.

But, faith and begorra, the local people of the auld sod will be wearin' green and thinking of the Isle and all it has given the world come Sunday—the Saint's own day.

So here's to the Murphys, the Murrays, the Mullens, the Duffys, O'Haras, O'Hanlons, O'Briens and St. Pat himself. Erin Go Bragh.

Ohio's Junkyard Fence

The Ohio Supreme Court will rule on the constitutionality of Ohio's junkyard fence law.

The question is whether this law, which went into effect Jan. 1, 1964, is of unchallenged legality. Only lawyers and judges, in their sometimes devious reasoning, can rule on that.

But if the law were to be appraised on a straight-line basis of what it has contributed to public welfare, all of us could chip in for a dime's worth.

The idea was to screen from public view junkyards and auto graveyards, because they were so unsightly they offended esthetics.

Now that most of these blots on the landscape have been fenced off as legally prescribed, we have something just as ugly to look at — the fences. Because it was required that they be at least six feet high and of "nontransparent" material, Ohioans now are faced with miles of "nontransparent" barriers at least six feet high — and that's all they are.

They are mostly unpainted. Many are scabrous and jerry-built.

If the junkyard is on a hillside, the whole idea of fencing them in is a mockery because what lies behind the fence is in plain sight anyway. And where the interior ugliness is not in plain view, the fence itself is in plainer view than what it conceals, because the fence is built flush with the property line, where a fence belongs.

The fight to conceal ugliness is never-ending and rarely won. Ohio's junkyard fence law is a prime example of a good intention that fell short of the mark.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

The old sayings about safety measures being taken only after an accident has occurred or locking the barn door after the horse has been stolen seem to be more true today than ever before.

I admire the road men for being cautious about the bridge between Chester and our suburb across the river; they should be! A welded bridge on a suspension cable is enough to give any self-respecting engineer nightmares.

The bridge can't fall into the river, that would practically be impossible, but it can and will break, and an accident can and probably will happen some cold day when a truck swerves a little on the bridge. The bridge is not constructed properly, and the writer has personally spotted several dead beams on the bridge.

There is another worry to be added to the already burdensome duty of safeguarding the motorist while at the same time maintaining the flow of traffic between the industries in Chester and our outlying areas. The large beams welded over the approach to the said bridge on either end being placed at seven feet, prevents a wrecker or ambulance from going on the bridge in the event of a traffic accident or a gaping hole in the floor of the bridge. It is rather certain that some parent or husband will take a very dim view of those beams when his child or wife is pinned in a flaming wreck in the center of the bridge, and the standers-by won't get involved enough to help, while the beams keep wrecker and ambulance service away.

Revenge from an irate parent or buddy is one thing, but one's conscience is also to be considered when the people responsible for such a bar know full well that the death trap they have created may cost several lives.

The bars to prevent trucks from crossing the bridge are a good idea, but should be constructed with a knock out bolt or lift off slot so they could be dropped to the ground and dragged aside in case of an emergency.

When one writes a letter to the editor such as this one, the common reply from some readers is "Put your money where your mouth is." The writer is ready to do just that and will personally change the bars into a proper barrier at no cost to anyone else if given permission to do so.

This would be easier than to be continually explaining to my students and answering their questions when they keep asking what stupid idiot put up such a solid barrier for a truck driver to get killed on, or to keep help from arriving in time, in the event of an emergency either on or under the bridge.

Panic over the Silver Bridge tragedy should not stampede us into creating a Damocles Sword in our own community.

Odd Facts

The Phoenicians were one of the great peoples of the ancient world—great sailors, navigators and traders. They became famous in history for two achievements. They were among the first to send our explorers and colonies throughout the Mediterranean Sea area, and even beyond the Strait of Gibraltar. And they left their alphabet to the Western World.

The Ten Commandments, as handed down to the people of Israel by Moses in about 1200 B.C., in one form or another, can be found in law everywhere during all ages of history since that time.

The highest and lowest dwelling creatures in the world may be, respectively, the crows that have been seen on Mt. Everest, more than five miles above sea level, and the fish that have been found three miles deep in the Pacific Ocean.

VICTOR RIESEL

Reverse Civil Disobedience

Victor Riesel

NEW YORK — At issue is: Who can shut down what with non-violent resistance?

For the moment this issue is all wrapped up in a lovely 35-foot two-masted fiberglass ketch which has been lying on Pier 36 over at the East River.

Last Thusday, the graceful two-master was hauled to the dock for loading aboard the Atlantic Clipper, bound for the Virgin Islands. Then the eternally embattled dockwallopers, members of the Longshoremen's Association, ILA, Local 856, saw the consignee's name— pediatrician Dr. Benjamin Spock, war resister, enemy of the draft, counselor of card burners. The pier workers refused to load her.

They recalled that Dr. Spock had been in the midst of a multi-opinion, anti-Vietnam War demonstration here during which some marchers, as they rounded the Battery point, carried the Viet Cong flag.

It was an early wintry morning last December. Longshoremen, one of whom had lost a son in a bloodstained Vietnamese rice paddy, hurdled the police lines' "wooden horses," and the famed, heavily televised assault began as the men tried to tear down the Viet Cong flag. There was considerable beating and punching. Dr. Spock was not touched though many around him were bloodied until the police broke it up.

Now, three months later, the dockhands recalled the incident, and remindful of the nationwide liberal attacks upon them for tearing into the marchers, peacefully "withheld their labor."

FOR THE MOMENT it appears that Dr. Spock, who was unavailable for comment, will have to vacation until April 1 without the craft.

"We'll do it every time," said Johnny Bowers, laconic ILA executive vice prssident. "We remember the Battery Park incident which occurred right outside our office. We just won't handle anything shipped by that crowd.

"Nor will we touch anything of assistance to the Viet Cong or the North Vietnamese.

"We've picketed the French Line and the Cunard line because France and Britain were trading with Hanoi. This could spread all over. If there had not been a Viet Cong flag in that December march, it would have been a peaceful demonstration as far as we're concerned. We wouldn't have broken in. They're entitled to it, I suppose. But so are we. We don't have to handle their stuff."

This then is the issue: Boycotts and civil disobedience and no -violent resistance can cut many ways. The ILA can cripple shipments going inland as well as overseas. They are far more than stubborn men—they are powerful men sitting at the inner mechanism of this massive society.

It was Teddy Gleason, ILA president, who, crazy like a pack of foxes, seemingly irresponsibly started a boycott of copper imports and then called it off and on with well-premediated indecision. But it was little "Teddy" who forced the strike from the obit pages into the White House Executive offices by deciding who would or would not get scarce copper.

It is the ILA which now permits the shipment of American wheat to Eastern Europe as long as 50 per cent of it goes in American freighters, though the Communist purchasers must pay far more for this transportation then they would if it were shipped in foreign flag craft.

THERE WERE HORRENDOUS outcries from the White House and the Cabinet back in 1965 when "Teddy" and his colleagues said—if U.S. ships don't carry half, we won't load the grain. And they didn't. Even Walter Reuther protested bitterly that the boycott hampered President Johnson's direction of foreign policy.

There are many who say this is far too much power for any union to wield. But it does. It could, for example, paralyze shipments of vast tonnage of vital foods and other material to Eastern Europe.

"With respect to other Eastern European nations," Gleason said recently, "many of the same considerations, which provoked the ILA boycott of Soviet general cargoes—VR, apply, but by no means all. Some of these countries have a history of democratic governments. Their attachment to communism is relatively resent, largely involuntary and often quite shaky.

"They possess neither the inclination nor the power to wage aggressive worldwide struggles against the U.S. or other democratic nations. The hope of weaning them from Soviet control, while perhaps overestimated by some, cannot be ignored.

For these reasons, the ILA has not adopted a general policy against working all cargoes from or to Soviet bloc countries. We have been responsible to special appeals from our government, particularly when the cargoes are not adaptable to hostile use."

There it is plainly said. The ILA could slash all commerce with the Soviets and the Eastern bloc. It could paralyze ports all the way down from Canada and around to the Gulf. It could cut off transshipments from Puerto Rico. It could slash imports repackaged and transshipped from Western European ports.

Should the signal be given, the ILA's 116,000 deck workers could remake American foreign policy, just as it changed the course of the copper strike.

And the AFL-CIO union could cost the Soviets and those of the Eastern European bloc, who are supplying North Vietnam, hundreds of millions of dollars—not to mention depriving them of vital foods.

That's sheer power. The case of the ketch-less Dr. Spock is far more than a display of temperament. Bowers and Gleason tell me it is a warning.

Civil disobedience cuts two ways. And whether or not one is philosophically uneasy in the face of such power—nonetheless it is there.

Vote Misgivings

Misleading inferences are being drawn about the vote in New Hampshire because most people are unfamiliar with the way "write-in" votes should be compared with the votes for a name printed on the ballot.

President Johnson polled approximately 26,000 votes when his name wasn't on the ballot, while Sen. Eugene McCarthy got around 23,000 votes after an active campaign, with his name on the ballot.

People just don't know how to handle a "write-in" when they get into the voting booth.

In 1964, on election day, more than 184,000 votes in New Hampshire for Mr. Johnson. Why didn't 135,000 of these go to the polls this time?

Leaders of the Democratic party in the state didn't put on a vigorous campaign for Mr. Johnson because of a belief that McCarthy wasn't a serious contender.

IT MAY BE assumed President Johnson still commands a majority in the Democratic party in New Hampshire and would have polled more votes if it hadn't been necessary for those favoring him to do a "write-in."

Nor is it accurate to say — as the Soviet Union is joyously proclaiming — that the vote for Sen. McCarthy showed the American people are against the Vietnam War.

Former Vice President Nixon on the Republican side got more than 84,000 votes and certainly he is not in favor of a "pull-out" from Vietnam. Incidentally, Mr. Nixon polled less than the 104,000 votes which Barry Goldwater received in New Hamphsire in 1964.

The vote for Mr. Nixon was not surprising because there was no organized opposition against him among Republicans. Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, whose name had to be written in on the ballot, obtained more than 11,000 votes.

Gov. Romney's withdrawal and Gov. Rockefeller's unwillingness to place his name on the ballot eliminated any contest on the Republican side. The fact more Republicans went to the polls than Democrats is usual in New Hampshire primaries.

With a president's name not on the ballot, many voters take it for granted no harm is done by staying away from the polls altogether. Leading Democrats did not regard the McCarthy drive as really endangering the president's chances of renomination.

It is surprising to read the comments by members of Congress seeking to interpret the New Hampshire primary results as a warning to President Johnson that the American people are questioning his conduct of the war.

There has been much criticism from both "hawks" and "doves" — those who think the war should be fought more vigorously, and those who advocate a "pull-out."

Mr. Nixon's position is more on the side of those who believe the war should be prosecuted effectively than it is in line with what "doves" in Congress have been saying.

SOME MEMBERS of Congress have interpreted the vote for McCarthy as "anti-Johnson." This is a logical inference, but the real question is how many of those who voted for McCarthy in the Democratic primary would prefer Nixon to President Johnson in November.

Based on past experience with rump movements, it may well be that by the time the convention is held the amount of opposition to the President's renomination will be irrelevant unless Sen. Robert Kennedy of New York throws his hat into the ring.

The New Hampshire primary does not prove that Democratic voters are opposed to renomination of President Johnson.

Nor does it establish that selection of Nixon as the Republican nominee would assure a victory for him.

Much will depend on exactly how the Republican candidate defines his position in connection with the Vietnam War. President Johnson also can be expected to make clear before election day what he believes can and should be done to bring about peace in Vietnam.

Proposition On Pueblo

The State Department still is trying to make up its mind about the genuineness of the letter reportedly signed by members of the USS Pueblo.

North Korea claims the letter, which admits the spy ship was in North Korea's territorial water and asks a public apology from the United States, was signed by members of the Pueblo crew.

A State Department spokesman said "Final determination or conclusion has not been reached with receipt to authenticity" concerning the signatures.

The United States has avowed the ship was in International waters when seized Jan. 23.

North Korea, likewise, has stuck by its original statement that the Pueblo violated its territorial waters.

The credibility gap in the United States has made many American reluctant to promote a get-tough policy. They remember the U2 story and other incidents too well to leap without a good, long look.

In view of the present stalemate, we would like to see the State Department propose to North Korea that a representative of a third government be permitted to interview the Americans.

The intermediary could determine if the crewmen were being coerced, if the ship wandered off course, or if the United States or North Korea is lying.

Should North Korea refuse to pick a third-party representative from a list of three submitted by the United States, the world would know who has something to hide. In event of a North Korean refusal, alternatives could be considered.

Our proposition, of course, is based on the assumption the State Department has nothing to hide.

Style Toppers

A sure sign of spring is fashion shows. Crisp suits, bright dresses, jaunty hats all tell us the bud of spring is about to pop.

Though we do not profess to know anything about or understand ladies fashions, we can appreciate the value of style shows.

The delightful burst of color is a welcome change from a winter that has gone on too long.

Whether the styles are hip-hugging, knee-showing, loose-fitting, long-waisted, or eye-popping, they offer something for everyone.

One thing we like about spring attire is the lift it gives the wearer. You show us a woman who has a new spring fashion — anything from a hat to a whole outfit — and we will show you a buoyant female with a new lease on life.

A woman doesn't complete her spring ensemble until she puts on her smile — and that's the topper in our book.

Hail To Hinckley Ridge

Even Leap Year can't throw off the buzzards of Hinckley Ridge. They still return to their summer home in the small Ohio community on March 15. They desert their southern winter retreat for their Ohio home as regularly as clockwork.

This was not called to the attention of the world until 1957, when naturalist Walter Nawalane reported he had evidence the buzzards had returned on the same day for nearly three decades.

At first, Hinckley Ridge resident resented the intrusion of the curious into their placid community. The idea of being identified with buzzards and invaded by thousands of visitors was not appealing.

About 9,000 curious visitors were on hand March 15, 1957, to greet the buzzards when they arrived on schedule.

Hinckley citizens, after the flush of instant fame began to fade, saw the possibility of turning the affair into a annual benefit.

The first Sunday after March 15 was set aside as "Buzzard Sunday." Pancakes, sausage and hot coffee are served all day. The occasion has been transformed into a festival.

Thousands now turn up in Hinckley on Buzzard Sunday and make the day a family outing. It is their way of shaking off winter.

The hike through a wooded area of the Cleveland Metropolitan Park System to the buzzards' roost on Whipps Ledge in the northeastern corner of Medina County is a prelude to spring.

The buzzards and Hinckley Ridge have been the butt of many jokes and snickering remarks in the last 11 years. This is unfair.

Swallows of Capistrano the buzzards are not, but their service in the scheme of nature and their graceful flight on a six-foot wingspan are redeeming virtues.

Hinckley Ridge is to be commended for making the most of a natural resource.

Erin Go Bragh

The Irish of the Tri-State District may not be as demonstrative as those in Pittsburgh and New York where St. Patrick's Day parades are staged and the Shamrock is 'watered' in celebrations of long and loud duration.

But, faith and begorra, the local people of the auld sod will be wearin' green and thinking of the Isle and all it has given the world come Sunday—the Saint's own day.

So here's to the Murphys, the Murrays, the Mullens, the Duffys, O'Haras, O'Hanlons, O'Briens and St. Pat himself. Erin Go Bragh.

Ohio's Junkyard Fence

The Ohio Supreme Court will rule on the constitutionality of Ohio's junkyard fence law.

The question is whether this law, which went into effect Jan. 1, 1964, is of unchallenged legality. Only lawyers and judges, in their sometimes devious reasoning, can rule on that.

But if the law were to be appraised on a straight-line basis of what it has contributed to public welfare, all of us could chip in for a dime's worth.

The idea was to screen from public view junkyards and auto graveyards, because they were so unsightly they offended esthetics.

Now that most of these blots on the landscape have been fenced off as legally prescribed, we have something just as ugly to look at — the fences. Because it was required that they be at least six feet high and of "nontransparent" material, Ohioans now are faced with miles of "nontransparent" barriers at least six feet high — and that's all they are.

They are mostly unpainted. Many are scabrous and jerry-built.

If the junkyard is on a hillside, the whole idea of fencing them in is a mockery because what lies behind the fence is in plain sight anyway. And where the interior ugliness is not in plain view, the fence itself is in plainer view than what it conceals, because the fence is built flush with the property line, where a fence belongs.

The fight to conceal ugliness is never-ending and rarely won. Ohio's junkyard fence law is a prime example of a good intention that fell short of the mark.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

The old sayings about safety measures being taken only after an accident has occurred or locking the barn door after the horse has been stolen seem to be more true today than ever before.

I admire the road men for being cautious about the bridge between Chester and our suburb across the river; they should be! A welded bridge on a suspension cable is enough to give any self - respecting engineer nightmares.

The bridge can't fall into the river, that would practically be impossible, but it can and will break, and an accident can and probably will happen some cold day when a truck swerves a little on the bridge. The bridge is not constructed properly, and the writer has personally spotted several dead beams on the bridge.

There is another worry to be added to the already burdensome duty of safeguarding the motorist while at the same time maintaining the flow of traffic between the industries in Chester and our outlying areas. The large beams welded over the approach to the said bridge on either end being placed at seven feet, prevents a wrecker or ambulance from going on the bridge in the event of a traffic accident or a gaping hole in the floor of the bridge. It is rather certain that some parent or husband will take a very dim view of those beams when his child or wife is pinned in a flaming wreck in the center of the bridge, and the standers-by won't get involved enough to help, while the beams keep wrecker and ambulance service away.

Revenge from an irate parent or buddy is one thing, but one's conscience is also to be considered when the people responsible for such a bar know full well that the death trap they have created may cost several lives.

The bars to prevent trucks from crossing the bridge are a good idea, but should be constructed with a knock out bolt or lift off slot so they could be dropped to the ground and dragged aside in case of an emergency.

When one writes a letter to the editor such as this one, the common reply from some readers is "Put your money where your mouth is." The writer is ready to do just that and will personally change the bars into a proper barrier at no cost to anyone else if given permission to do so.

This would be easier than to be continually explaining to my students and answering their questions when they keep asking what stupid idiot put up such a solid barrier for a truck driver to get killed on, or to keep help from arriving in time, in the event of an emergency either on or under the bridge.

Panic over the Silver Bridge tragedy should not stampede us into creating a Damocles Sword in our own community.

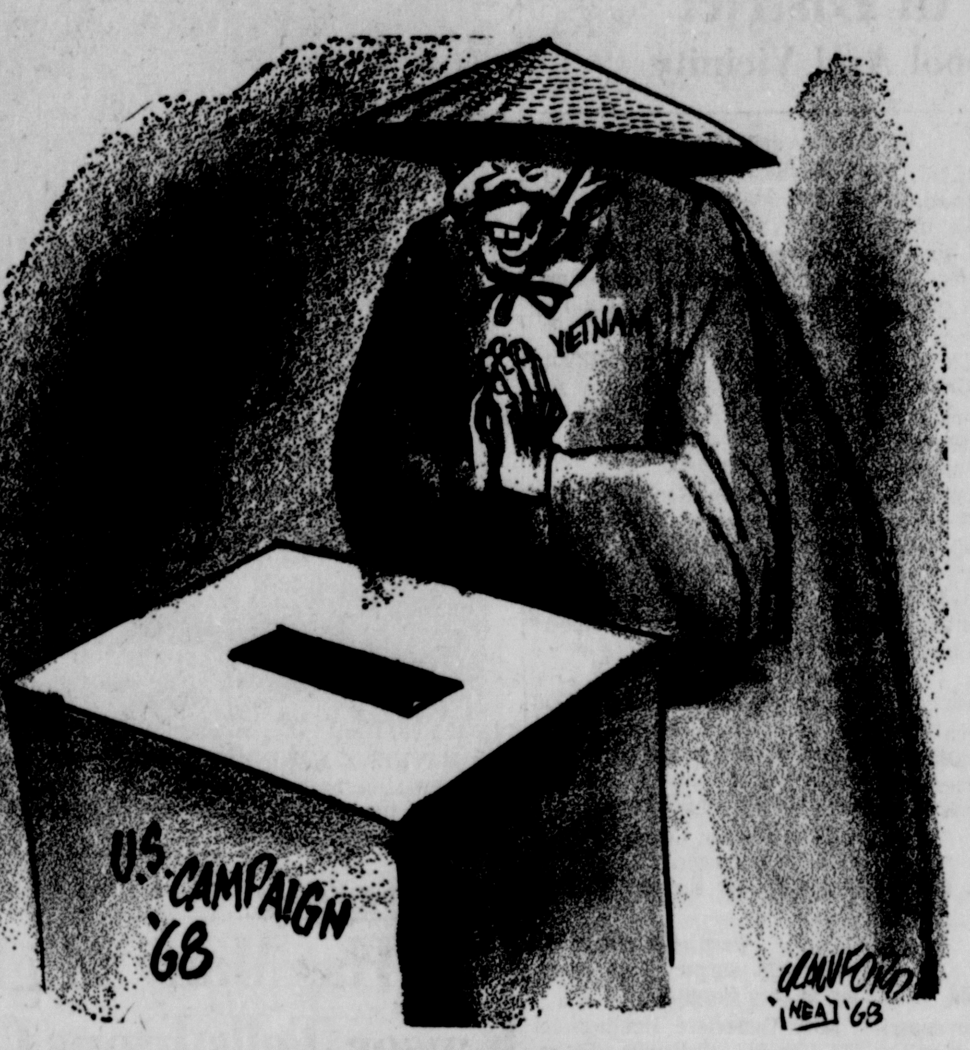
Odd Facts

The Phoenicians were one of the great peoples of the ancient world—great sailors, navigators and traders. They became famous in history for two achievements. They were among the first to send our explorers and colonies throughout the Mediterranean Sea area, and even beyond the Strait of Gibraltar. And they left their alphabet to the Western World.

The Ten Commandments, as handed down to the people of Israel by Moses in about 1200 B.C., in one form or another, can be found in law everywhere during all ages of history since that time.

The highest and lowest dwelling creatures in the world may be, respectively, the crows that have been seen on Mt. Everest, more than five miles above sea level, and the fish that have been found three miles deep in the Pacific Ocean.

First In Line



VICTOR RIESEL

Reverse Civil Disobedience

NEW YORK — At issue is: Who can shut down what with non-violent resistance?

For the moment this issue is all wrapped up in a lovely 35-foot two-masted fiberglass ketch which has been lying on Pier 36 over at the East River.

Victor Riesel

Last Thusday, the graceful two-master was hauled to the dock for loading aboard the Atlantic Clipper, bound for the Virgin Islands. Then the eternally embattled dockwallopers, members of the Longshoremen's Association, ILA, Local 856, saw the consignee's name— pediatrician Dr. Benjamin Spock, war resister, enemy of the draft, counselor of card burners. The pier workers refused to load her.

They recalled that Dr. Spock had been in the midst of a multi-opinion, anti-Vietnam War demonstration here during which some marchers, as they rounded the Battery point, carried the Viet Cong flag.

It was an early wintry morning last December. Longshoremen, one of whom had lost a son in a bloodstained Vietnamese rice paddy, hurdled the police lines' "wooden horses," and the famed, heavily televised assault began as the men tried to tear down the Viet Cong flag. There was considerable beating and punching. Dr. Spock was not touched though many around him were bloodied until the police broke it up.

Now, three months later, the dockhands recalled the incident, and remindful of the nationwide liberal attacks upon them for tearing into the marchers, peacefully "withheld their labor."

FOR THE MOMENT it appears that Dr. Spock, who was unavailable for comment, will have to vacation until April 1 without the craft.

"We'll do it every time," said Johnny Bowers, laconic ILA executive vice prssident. "We remember the Battery Park incident which occurred right outside our office. We just won't handle anything shipped by that crowd.

"Nor will we touch anything of assistance to the Viet Cong or the North Vietnamese.

"We've picketed the French Line and the Cunard line because France and Britain were trading with Hanoi. This could spread all over. If there had not been a Viet Cong flag in that December march, it would have been a peaceful demonstration as far as we're concerned. We wouldn't have broken in. They're entitled to it, I suppose. But so are we. We don't have to handle their stuff."

This then is the issue: Boycotts and civil disobedience and no -violent resistance can cut many ways. The ILA can cripple shipments going inland as well as overseas. They are far more than stubborn men—they are powerful men sitting at the inner mechanism of this massive society.

It was Teddy Gleason, ILA president, who, crazy like a pack of foxes, seemingly irresponsibly started a boycott of copper imports and then called it off and on with well-premediated indecision. But it was little "Teddy" who forced the strike from the obit pages into the White House Executive offices by deciding who would or would not get scarce copper.

It is the ILA which now permits the shipment of American wheat to Eastern Europe as long as 50 per cent of it goes in American freighters, though the Communist purchasers must pay far more for this transportation then they would if it were shipped in foreign flag craft.

THERE WERE HORRENDOUS outcries from the White House and the Cabinet back in 1965 when "Teddy" and his colleagues said—if U.S. ships don't carry half, we won't load the grain. And they didn't. Even Walter Reuther protested bitterly that the boycott hampered President Johnson's direction of foreign policy.

There are many who say this is far too much power for any union to wield. But it does. It could, for example, paralyze shipments of vast tonnage of vital foods and other material to Eastern Europe.

"With respect to other Eastern European nations," Gleason said recently, "many of the same considerations, which provoked the ILA boycott of Soviet general cargoes—VR, apply, but by no means all. Some of these countries have a history of democratic governments. Their attachment to communism is relatively resent, largely involuntary and often quite shaky.

"They possess neither the inclination nor the power to wage aggressive worldwide struggles against the U.S. or other democratic nations. The hope of weaning them from Soviet control, while perhaps overestimated by some, cannot be ignored.

For these reasons, the ILA has not adopted a general policy against working all cargoes from or to Soviet bloc countries. We have been responsible to special appeals from our government, particularly when the cargoes are not adaptable to hostile use."

There it is plainly said. The ILA could slash all commerce with the Soviets and the Eastern bloc. It could paralyze ports all the way down from Canada and around to the Gulf. It could cut off transshipments from Puerto Rico. It could slash imports repackaged and transshipped from Western European ports.

Should the signal be given, the ILA's 116,000 deck workers could remake American foreign policy, just as it changed the course of the copper strike.

And the AFL-CIO union could cost the Soviets and those of the Eastern European bloc, who are supplying North Vietnam, hundreds of millions of dollars—not to mention depriving them of vital foods.

That's sheer power. The case of the ketch-less Dr. Spock is far more than a display of temperament. Bowers and Gleason tell me it is a warning.

Civil disobedience cuts two ways. And whether or not one is philosophically uneasy in the face of such power—nonetheless it is there.

Vote Misgivings

Misleading inferences are being drawn about the vote in New Hampshire because most people are unfamiliar with the way "write-in" votes should be compared with the votes for a name printed on the ballot.

President Johnson polled approximately 26,000 votes when his name wasn't on the ballot, while Sen. Eugene McCarthy got around 23,000 votes after an active campaign, with his name on the ballot.

People just don't know how to handle a "write-in" when they get into the voting booth.

In 1964, on election day, more than 184,000 votes in New Hampshire for Mr. Johnson. Why didn't 135,000 of these go to the polls this time?

Leaders of the Democratic party in the state didn't put on a vigorous campaign for Mr. Johnson because of a belief that McCarthy wasn't a serious contender.

IT MAY BE assumed President Johnson still commands a majority in the Democratic party in New Hampshire and would have polled more votes if it hadn't been necessary for those favoring him to do a "write-in."

Nor is it accurate to say — as the Soviet Union is joyously proclaiming — that the vote for Sen. McCarthy showed the American people are against the Vietnam War.

Former Vice President Nixon on the Republican side got more than 84,000 votes and certainly he is not in favor of a "pull-out" from Vietnam. Incidentally, Mr. Nixon polled less than the 104,000 votes which Barry Goldwater received in New Hamphsire in 1964.

The vote for Mr. Nixon was not surprising because there was no organized opposition against him among Republicans. Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, whose name had to be written in on the ballot, obtained more than 11,000 votes.

Gov. Romney's withdrawal and Gov. Rockefeller's unwillingness to place his name on the ballot eliminated any contest on the Republican side. The fact more Republicans went to the polls than Democrats is usual in New Hampshire primaries.

With a president's name not on the ballot, many voters take it for granted no harm is done by staying away from the polls altogether. Leading Democrats did not regard the McCarthy drive as really endangering the president's chances of renomination.

It is surprising to read the comments by members of Congress seeking to interpret the New Hampshire primary results as a warning to President Johnson that the American people are questioning his conduct of the war.

There has been much criticism from both "hawks" and "doves" — those who think the war should be fought more vigorously, and those who advocate a "pull-out."

Mr. Nixon's position is more on the side of those who believe the war should be prosecuted effectively than it is in line with what "doves" in Congress have been saying.

SOME MEMBERS of Congress have interpreted the vote for McCarthy as "anti-Johnson." This is a logical inference, but the real question is how many of those who voted for McCarthy in the Democratic primary would prefer Nixon to President Johnson in November.

Based on past experience with rump movements, it may well be that by the time the convention is held the amount of opposition to the President's renomination will be irrelevant unless Sen. Robert Kennedy of New York throws his hat into the ring.

The New Hampshire primary does not prove that Democratic voters are opposed to renomination of President Johnson.

Nor does it establish that selection of Nixon as the Republican nominee would assure a victory for him.

Much will depend on exactly how the Republican candidate defines his position in connection with the Vietnam War. President Johnson also can be expected to make clear before election day what he believes can and should be done to bring about peace in Vietnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Hall of 1021 Hazel St. announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Nancy Ellen Hall, to Daniel Anthony Corsello, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Corsello of 3044 Meadow Rd.

Miss Hall, a 1967 graduate of East Liverpool High School, is in laboratory technician training at City Hospital.

Her fiance was graduated from the high school in 1965 and is a junior at Kent State University, where he is a business administration major.

No wedding date has been set.

Darlene Irvine Marries In Salineville Ceremony

[redacted]

MRS. THOMAS EDDINGER
Residing In Boardman.

Miss Darlene Irvine, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Irvine of Salineville, became the bride of Thomas Eddinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eddinger of Youngstown, last Saturday at 7 p.m. in the Calvary United Presbyterian Church of Salineville.

The Rev. James McCollam and the Rev. Donald Ralston officiated for the double - ring ceremony before an altar background of flowers, palms and candelabra. Lighted tapers and satin bows marked the family pews. Miss Marianne Tolson was organist and Miss Mary Ann Doyle soloist.

THE BRIDE was given in marriage by her uncle, Norman Irvine. She was attired in a full-length gown of Alencon lace and peau de soie. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and long, pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt formed a chapel train.

Her shoulder - length veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown adorned with pearls and crystals. She carried an arrangement of pink carnations and white roses tied with satin streamers. The traditions were observed.

Mrs. Linda Cope was matron of honor and Miss Paulette Kerr, Mrs. Betty Davies, Mrs. Virginia Johnson and Miss Kathy Gephart bridesmaids. Their full-length gowns were designed with white lace bodices and mint green skirts. Their matching headpieces were Dior bows and illusion veils. They carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations tied with green satin streamers.

Susan Wyand, flower girl, was attired in a costume identical to those of the attendants. She carried a basket of pink and white carnations. Ricky Wert was ringbearer.

Dave Carney served as best man. Ushers were Bud Thorne, William Forbes, Richard Maple and Richard Wyand.

The mother of the bride chose an aqua coat and dress ensemble with bone color accessories and the bridegroom's mother a melon-color dress and coat ensemble with white accessories. Corsages of white carnations and red rosebuds complemented their attire.

—:—

A RECEPTION for 175 followed in the social rooms, where Miss Pat Brown presided at the guest register. The buffet table was covered with a green cloth overlaid with white maline. The centerpiece was a four-tier cake, placed on swan separators and topped with a miniature bridal couple.

Aides were Mrs. Mae Campbell, Mrs. Virginia Heyamer, Mrs. Kaye Wyand, Mrs. Myrna Maple, Mrs. Martha Forbes, Mrs. Helen May Kidder and Mrs. Beulah Goddard.

For her honeymoon trip to Atwood Lake Lodge, the bride was attired in a gray and white coat and dress ensemble with black patent accessories and pink carnation corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Aultman Hospital School of Nursing at Canton. Her husband completed two years service in the Army and is employed with a vault company in Youngstown.

The newlyweds will reside in Boardman.

A MOMENT OF MEDITATION

Respect For Parents

In our last two articles we have been talking with you about the home. This subject is of great importance because the well being of our great nation depends to a large extent on the condition of our homelife. It is clear that in some cases there has been a serious breakdown in the family relationship. This is seen in the fact that our nation leads the world in divorce rates. One of every four marriages in our country will end in divorce. This is sad. In last week's article we discussed the fact that each home will become stronger if we teach and practice a deep respect for God in the home.

In today's article we would like to note the fact that our homes would be stronger if we would give greater emphasis to parental respect. It was God's design that each home instill in children a deep respect for parents. If there is a failing in this teaching, it is later evident that the same children who disrespect their parents will show a lack of respect for teachers, law enforcement officers and even for God.

Notice carefully these words of the Apostle Paul in Eph. 6:1-4. "Children obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honor thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath; but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." Children who obey their parents have been taught to obey. Parental respect does not just happen. It is taught. Sometimes in teaching children to respect their parents it is necessary to administer the "rod of correction". I realize that it sounds old fashioned to talk about whipping a disobedient child. However, it is still our belief that God knew what he was talking about when he told us to use the "rod". Prov. 23:13.

Do your children respect you as parents? Do they openly disobey you? Have they been used to using such disrespectful terms as "old Man" and "old Woman" If a child is not taught proper respect in the home, we need not be surprised when this same child in later life shows a rebellious attitude toward those around him.

If you are concerned about making your home stronger, we wish to extend to you an invitation to attend the services of the Church of Christ. Attend as a family and learn from God's word. Study the Bible and apply its precepts to your life. God has all of the answers we need. Why not begin with the services tomorrow morning?

Mrs. Pat Nuzzo

Lenten banks which were distributed to members of the Ohio View Lutheran Church congregation by Robert Cowan, Sunday School superintendent, are to be returned Palm Sunday.

Funds collected will be used to assist the Thiel College Passavant Center.

Cindy Safford and Jane Albacker will staff the nursery Sunday during the 11 a. m. services. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fiediga are serving on the visitation committee.

The Adult Interest Class will meet Wednesday from 7 to 8 p.m., with the pastor, the Rev. Oscar Arnal, leading the topic, "Ecumenical Power On A Local Level."

Rev. Arnal announced that Fr. A. E. Williams, pastor of the St. Christine Catholic Church in Industry, will be guest speaker when the group meets March 27.

The Rev. Francis Melonowski, teacher of theology at Duquesne University, was guest speaker when the class met this week. Rev. Arnal reviewed the history of the YMCA and World Council of Churches.

The senior high Luther Leaguers presented the program, "Unitarianism," at the meeting of the junior group.

Plans were completed for the skating party to be held in Hookstown March 23. The group will serve from the church at 7 p. m.

Refreshments were served by Kathy Duck, Peggy and Debbie Tomlinson and Jane Albacker.

The league will meet Sunday at 6:30 p.m., with the topics "Inspirational Painting" to be presented by Darcy Preston for seniors and "Hippies" by Holly Duplaga for juniors. Wayne Robbins will be in charge of refreshments.

Lutheran Christian Women will meet Tuesday at 8:15 p. m.

Richard is a freshman at Thiel College, Greenville.

Highlandtown Group To Conduct Egg Hunt

HIGHLANDTOWN — Plans were discussed for an Easter egg hunt April 19 when the Highlandtown Women's Corps met in the fire hall.

The hunt for children to the area will be divided into three age groups, 1 to 5, 6 to 9 and 10 to 12.

Members are to donate two dozen colored eggs for the contest and donations of eggs are being asked from others in the community. The donations are to be brought to the fire hall by 1 p. m. April 13. The hunt will begin at 2.

Games were played and a coverdish lunch was served at the close of the meeting.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Kathy and Kevin celebrate St. Patrick's Day . . . Kathy wears her green plaid dress, and Kevin his sweater with the emerald stripe. The hats are those we brought home from last night's party!

They don't really know what the day is all about. But they heard Dan singing in the shower, "the wearin' o' the green," and saw the color of the tie he placed on the door knob.

They don't miss a thing! That old saying that actions speak louder than words is certainly true around our children. They are regular little copycats.

That's why Dan and I make it a habit to go to church every Sunday with them. We want God and His Church to be a real part of their lives, not just something they have heard about.

Give your children a chance to know God. Go to church and take them with you.

Industry Area News

Mrs. Pat Nuzzo

Lenten banks which were distributed to members of the Ohio View Lutheran Church congregation by Robert Cowan, Sunday School superintendent, are to be returned Palm Sunday.

Funds collected will be used to assist the Thiel College Passavant Center.

Cindy Safford and Jane Albacker will staff the nursery Sunday during the 11 a. m. services. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fiediga are serving on the visitation committee.

The Adult Interest Class will meet Wednesday from 7 to 8 p.m., with the pastor, the Rev. Oscar Arnal, leading the topic, "Ecumenical Power On A Local Level."

Rev. Arnal announced that Fr. A. E. Williams, pastor of the St. Christine Catholic Church in Industry, will be guest speaker when the group meets March 27.

The Rev. Francis Melonowski, teacher of theology at Duquesne University, was guest speaker when the class met this week. Rev. Arnal reviewed the history of the YMCA and World Council of Churches.

The senior high Luther Leaguers presented the program, "Unitarianism," at the meeting of the junior group.

Plans were completed for the skating party to be held in Hookstown March 23. The group will serve from the church at 7 p. m.

Refreshments were served by Kathy Duck, Peggy and Debbie Tomlinson and Jane Albacker.

The league will meet Sunday at 6:30 p.m., with the topics "Inspirational Painting" to be presented by Darcy Preston for seniors and "Hippies" by Holly Duplaga for juniors. Wayne Robbins will be in charge of refreshments.

Lutheran Christian Women will meet Tuesday at 8:15 p. m.

Highlandtown Group To Conduct Egg Hunt

HIGHLANDTOWN — Plans were discussed for an Easter egg hunt April 19 when the Highlandtown Women's Corps met in the fire hall.

The hunt for children to the area will be divided into three age groups, 1 to 5, 6 to 9 and 10 to 12.

Members are to donate two dozen colored eggs for the contest and donations of eggs are being asked from others in the community. The donations are to be brought to the fire hall by 1 p. m. April 13. The hunt will begin at 2.

Games were played and a coverdish lunch was served at the close of the meeting.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Kathy and Kevin celebrate St. Patrick's Day . . . Kathy wears her green plaid dress, and Kevin his sweater with the emerald stripe. The hats are those we brought home from last night's party!

They don't really know what the day is all about. But they heard Dan singing in the shower, "the wearin' o' the green," and saw the color of the tie he placed on the door knob.

They don't miss a thing! That old saying that actions speak louder than words is certainly true around our children. They are regular little copycats.

That's why Dan and I make it a habit to go to church every Sunday with them. We want God and His Church to be a real part of their lives, not just something they have heard about.

Give your children a chance to know God. Go to church and take them with you.

Headstone Hobbyist

By CLARA HALL

"Deep in the horrors of a lonely tomb,
Lies Jerusha Jones in solemn gloom.
Keep her fair form in death's relentlss arms,
Whose living face once glowed with opening charms."

Wouldn't Jerusha want to turn over in her resting place if she would suspect some 143 years later people would be rubbing off the lettering from her headstone and adding insult to injury by enjoying it?

Mrs. George McCullough of Forsyth Pl. took up this hobby while vacationing with her daughter, Jane, a professor of institutional management at the University of Massachusetts at Amhurst.

During their travels they were planning to go from Martha's Vineyard to Woods Hole but missed the ferryboat. They knew they would have to spend another day at the place so began taking in the sights.

While driving past an old cemetery, they noticed people involved in some activity, and it immediately rang a bell — they felt sure they were in the process of grave stone rubbing, sometimes referred to as "primitive art."

MARY HAD READ about this many times, but had no idea of how it was done. They approached the hobbyists, introduced themselves and expressed their curiosity.

The group was delighted to share interests, and in no time at all, taped paper to the stone and supplied crayons.

Mary and Jane found themselves on their knees, making their first rubbing and amazed to find how simple the process was.

After returning to Amherst, Mary and Jane went to an art store, loaded themselves with all the paraphernalia needed, and began haunting all the old cemeteries in the area.

Mrs. McCullough said rice paper must be cut to the size needed and taped smoothly and securely to the stone. Then one rubs over the paper with whatever crayon is best suited. If the imprint turns out well, it is sprayed with a fixative.

Mrs. McCullough found the only difficult part of the hobby is to find the right stones. The condition of the markers varies a great deal, for wind, snow, sleet and flood have deteriorated the lettering of most. The type of stone and the care of the plot are major factors effecting the condition.

In visiting the cemeteries, Mrs. McCullough noted some of the stones have kept beautiful for 300 years. The oldest stone was dated 1688 and at that time — and for the next 100 years — stones were of slate with the carving incised. This type withstood the elements with little damage. They are usually dark grey, about three feet high and two to three inches thick, and rounded at the top. The carvings on these are completely legible.

IN THE EARLY 1800's, red sandstone was substituted for slate, and carvings done in contrast. Most of these are completely worn down, and it is impossible to get a satisfactory rubbing. Next in order of use were granite and marble.

The death's head with wings on either side, indicating death and resurrection, were incised on the earliest slate stones. In the next era, the late 1700's, she and Jane found that angel faces were being used instead of the skull and some of them were most amusing.

One marker had one wing turned up one side and the other wing down on the other side, and of course it isn't known whether this was intentional or held some significance. In the early 1800's, the urn and weeping willow were popular decorations, of the Federal Period when elegance came into being.

Some of the old slate stones are covered with lichen. This has to be cleaned off with a wooden block before a rubbing can be made. When a thrifty New Englander is faced with this chore, she collects the lichen in a sack and takes it home and boils it, making herself some excellent dye for raw wool or for wool pieces used in braided rugs

The size and the type of rubbings vary, depending on the interest of the hobbyist. The carved figures at the top of the stone intrigue many; others interested in genealogy make rubbings of names and dates.

Because of the inclement weather when Mrs. McCullough first took up the rubbing, the ground was soggy and the stones were very wet, giving the twosome a challenge in the pursuit. Flooding of the Connecticut River over the years caused many of the markers to sink so that the bottom lines of the epitaphs were embedded in the earth.

The two women were amazed to learn people are being paid to do this type of thing. They met a young couple working on a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation securing rubbings in the New England area. This is a project designed to preserve the American heritage and to establish records that will eventually be lost. Many of the rubbings made by this young couple are on display at Williamsburg.

MRS. McCULLOUGH became completely fascinated by the unusual given names appearing on the headstones. Among them were Mehetable, Azubah, Lorinda, Ishmael, Aldon, Naodiah, Lovina, Ormelia, Manerva, Hadassah, Thankful, Cadence, Clethorus, Piety, Asarelah, Hepsibah, Uriah — and a real topper, "Submit."

The epitaphs stirred such interest Mrs. McCullough said, that she and Jane felt like they were prying into private lives of the bygone days. Acute morbidity seemed to be epidemic in this period, and it is odd because these people were industrious, they were builders and hustlers, and believed in the after-life. Yet, concerning death they were gloomy, sighing, sermonizing and vindicative. Death to them had no beauty.

The quote from Bryant's "Thanotopsis", "So live that when thy summons comes to join that innumerable caravan, sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust, he wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams" meant nothing to the old New Englander who had no anticipation of pleasant dreams according to the grave stone inscriptions.

Because the present day attitude toward death, partially created by the impersonal atmosphere of the modern funeral home, Mary believes people have developed a perverted sense of values that make some of these old epitaphs seem so incredible that they appear amusing.

Sentiments such as this appeared on many stones:

"Remember man that passeth by
As thou art now—so once was I,
And as I am so thou must be Prepare thyself to follow me."

Mrs. Mary McCullough of Forsythe Pl. rubs an impression of a Long's Run Cemetery gravestone inscription on rice paper to add to a collection of epitaphs.

On one of these markers, someone has tucked a neatly lettered card with this comment:

"To follow thee is not my intent
Unless I know which way thou went."

AFTER MANY readings, Mrs. McCullough noted women were referred to as a "relict."

At first she thought this meant widow, but after delving through a dictionary she found that relict is synonomous with relinquisher, so when a stone read "Mary-relict of John" it probably meant that she has given him up and apparently this has left him free to marry again because in many instances there is a stone for a second or even a third wife.

Although the stones were identical in design, those for the wives were considerable smaller.

She noticed there were few epitaphs for women of middle age — the dead were either quite young or quite old, from which she assumed that if a woman weathered the child bearing years, she had a good chance to live to an advanced age.

A pathetic note frequently observed was two or three children's names on one stone, whose deaths had occurred within days of each other. A particular epitaph read:

"They tasted of life's bitter cup
Refused to drink the potion up
Then turned their little heads aside
Disgusted with the taste and died."

The incising of many inscriptions were probably done by local artisans, who just decided to carve without a pattern to follow. Often when they reached the edge of the stone, the space would be so short that they would carve the last few letters and sometimes a whole word above in very small letters. Names were broken when they ran out of space — Whitmore was divided "Whit-more" on one stone and yet this way "Whitm-ore" on another stone.

One of the most interesting rubbings of Mrs. McCullough came from an old stone in the Knight Cemetery at Pelham, Mass., telling a sad story how a man was done in by his wife. The inscription reads:

Warren Gibbs — Died Of Arsenic Poison March 23 1860

"Think my friends when this you see
How my wife hath dealt by me
She, in some oysters did prepare
Some poison for my lot and share.
Then of the same I did partake
And nature yielded to its fate.
Before she my wife became Mary Pellon was her name."
Erected by his brother, William Gibbs.

Mary and Jane talked to a very old native who had wandered over to watch them, questioning how it came to be erected when Mary Pellon certainly would have a libel case against her brother-in-law. He said there were several versions. One that she did go to court to have the stone removed, and another, that she married the brother a few years later.

This particular stone was stolen so often, mainly by students from Amherst College who were being hazed for fraternities, that when it was recovered the last time, the village fathers set it in concrete.

In Riverside Cemetery in Sunderland, they found this one dated 1808:

"All you advanced in years
Tho healthy and robust
You're tottering round the grave
And soon must turn to dust."

This one dated 1814 was also found at Sunderland:

"The aged and the young must die
And turn to dust as well as I
In time prepare your God to meet
And worship at his mercy seat."

In Pelham they located one versed in two parts, first to the children and the second, to the husband.

Hepsibah Purdy 1853
"Farewell, farewell my children dear
I am not dead but sleeping here
Prepare for death, for die you must
And with your mother sleep in dust."

"Think partner of my youthful breast
In this cold grave my body rests
My spirit rests with God on high
And you can meet me bye and bye."

Very often women's virtues were praised on the stone, sometimes referring to her as a good neighbor, but the following one really goes all out:

"In memory of Madam Sarah Porter, relict of the Hon. Eleazer Porter Esq., who was a pattern of every Christian, social and domestic virtue in the practice of which she has been equaled by few and exceeeded by none."

Sarah Dickinson, an ancestor of the poet, Emily Dickinson, who lived and died in Amherst, was accorded this admirable bit of sentiment:

"Sarah died in 1799 aged 82 years.
Meek and affectionate in early pious life
And free from envy and opposed to strife,
Esteemed for virtue, free from vulgur pride
She lived beloved, and lamented, died."

IN THE OLD Hadley Cemetery there are no inscriptions left, for the stones face the West and with the sandy soil, the wind has actually sand-blasted the markers. Unlike many of the old, well kept plots, this one is completely run over with asparagus plants, which are cut and sold in the spring.

After Mrs. McCullough's return home she began to scour the local tri-state area but so far has found nothing earlier than 1823 and this was in Evans City, Pa., but the name was gone.

At St. John's United Evangelical Church of Zelionople, she found the plots well kept, but all the epitaphs were in German.

Mary is looking for the break in the weather and once more plans to set upon the trails of our American ancestors.

Sad and dour as many of the inscriptions are, she reports occasionally one is rewarded by something that lifts the spirits, and that seems to be just what Prudence Jones did when she made a brisk and cheerful departure from this life recorded this way:

"In seventeen hundred and ninety two
The heavens opened and Prue went through"

A delicately inscribed urn and weeping willow was used on many markers in the early 19th Century, such as on an 1848 stone Mrs. McCullough copied.

A skull with wings — symbolizing death and resurrection — is displayed by Mrs. McCullough among mounted gravestone rubbings she has obtained.

You And The Law

Like most trouble, legal trouble is easier and cheaper to prevent than to cure.

Unfortunately, most wage-earning, home - buying (or apartment renting), installment - paying families don't see much need for having a family lawyer. They may have a family doctor they can call to cure physical ills, but neglect to have someone who knows their legal health.

It is difficult to tell a big risk from a small one. However, there are some signposts which provide warnings that you may be headed for a legal problem someday.

YOU SHOULD check with your family attorney in these instances:

1.—When your status changes. When you come of age, get married, have children, buy a house, are involved in a divorce or there is a death in the family. You may need to revise your will, change insurance, or refigure your taxes.

2.—You buy or sell major items, such as a car, appliances or a house. Look for flaws in the papers before you go into debt, pay any money or sign any paper involving large expenditures of money or long term obligations. An attorney can determine exactly what you're letting yourself in for.

3.—You enter into other contracts. Promises, spoken or written, can bind you if they call for a consideration (something of value in return).

4.—Someone threatens your rights. The law exists to defend your rights, but in some instances you must take action yourself to keep them working for you.

IT'S BEST if you can bring your family attorney a contract before it is signed, or a tax return before it is due. If there are errors or matters which might be to your distinct disadvantage, the attorney can find them before you commit yourself to any purchase or statement.

In some instances, time is very important. You may have only a set number of days in which to perform a certain action. Don't delay here. Tomorrow may be one day too late for an attorney to do anything for you.

Be certain to tell your lawyer all the facts. He can't help you if you hold back vital information, good or bad. He is sworn to keep what you tell him confidential.

NOW IS THE TIME TO START planning for that camping trip this summer. There are hundreds of little details to be taken care of and it is virtually impossible to let everything go until the last minute.

This is the time to send for brochures, pamphlets and maps on different locations being considered. The equipment should be checked and the necessary repairs made. Needed items should be purchased.

Many persons wait until a week of two before vacation and then there is a frantic rush to obtain information on where to go.

There is a wealth of information on possible camping and vacationing sites. Magazines are loaded with addresses from promotion agencies offering information.

The Army Corps of Engineers even offers a brochure covering recreation facilities at projects throughout the country.

SUCCESSFUL SEASON. Ohio's beaver trapping season this year was the most successful to date. This was the eighth year for the program.

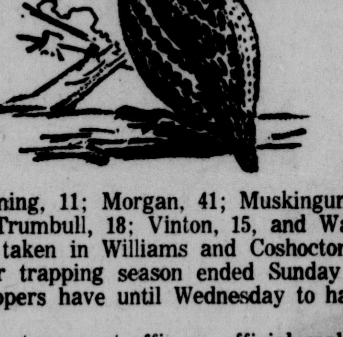
Trapping was open in 20 counties and 511 flattails were taken. This was an increase of 106 over last year.

Ashtabula County, with 141 beaver taken, lead all the others. The previous county high was 123, set in 1965 by Ashtabula.

A 70-pound beaver was trapped in Morgan County. This was the largest reported since Ohio opened the season.

The breakdown of the other counties is as follows:

Athens, 9; Carroll, 35; Columbiana, 61; Gallia, 18; Geauga, 21; Guernsey, 16; Harrison, 45; Jackson, 20; Jefferson, 36; Mahoning, 11; Morgan, 41; Muskingum, 1; Noble, 10; Stark, 6; Trumbull, 18; Vinton, 15, and Washington, 7.



None was taken in Williams and Coshocton Counties.

The beaver trapping season ended Sunday in Pennsylvania and trappers have until Wednesday to have the pelts sealed.

Game protectors must affix an official seal to the pelts before a trapper can sell or dispose of the hides.

The total has not tallied, but it appears this year's harvest probably will not be as great as the 2,903 taken in 1967.

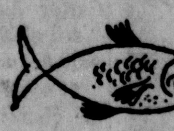
THE GKL WILDLIFE Association will hold a canoe race the latter part of April, according to Andy Hammack of Mingo Junction. The race will be in Indian Creek and will run approximately 15 miles from point West of Route 22 to the Ohio River.

Shorter races also will be featured. The club will rent camping areas at $1 per night. Additional information can be obtained by writing Andy at his home address at 136 Sycamore St., Mingo Junction, 43938.

OFFICIAL SHOOT. The Brooke County Sportsmen's Club at Wellsburg, W.Va., will hold a registered trap shoot March 24 at 1 p. m.

Amateur Trapshooting Association rules will govern the shoot and the scores will be included in the official records.

THE FISHING SEASON for warm water game species in Pennsylvania closed Thursday. Bass, pickerel, walleye, muskellunge and northern pike are on the list of protected fish.



Bass season opens June 15, but the others become legal game again May 4.

COHO SALMON STOCKING. The first stocking of the famous Cohoes in Ohio took place last week when more than 25,000 fingerlings from four to six inches were released in a holding pond near Kirtland.

The yearlings, brought from Michigan in a special truck, will be released later in Chagrin River to swim downstream into Lake Erie, according to the Department of Natural Resources.

Clayton Lakes, fish management supervisor for the state, was in charge. He and his assistants clipped the fins of all 25,000 in a special manner to identify the fish as ones stocked by Ohio. Pennsylvania also will stock Cohoes.

The salmon should be released in about six weeks. They should reach Lake Erie within 24 hours.

After spending the summer in the lake, feeding on smelt, alewives and other rough fish, a few of the males should return to the river in September and swim upstream to their spawning ground. Then they will return to Lake Erie to join the others for the winter.

During the second summer in the lake — 1969 — the Cohoes should reach weights of up to 15 pounds and the first big run should take place.

As the fish head for the Chagrin River, fishing should be fabulous. A similar program was beyond all expectations in Lake Michigan.

MEANWHILE at the Kincaid Hatchery in Pike County 100,000 coho salmon two inches in length, hatched from eggs obtained from Michigan, and 70,000 from Oregon eggs, about an inch and a half in length, are doing a good job of feeding and growing for their first Ohio stocking as fingerlings in the spring of 1969. A good portion of the 170,000 total is expected to survive.

"Plans now are being completed for special cold-water hatcheries, probably at Seneca Springs, or at Miller Blue Hole near Castalia, where water from deep underground will be aerated to provide needed life-giving oxygen for coho salmon, and will be able to give our program a tremendous boost with more than a million eggs from Michigan this fall," says Dan Armbruster, chief of the Division of Wildlife.

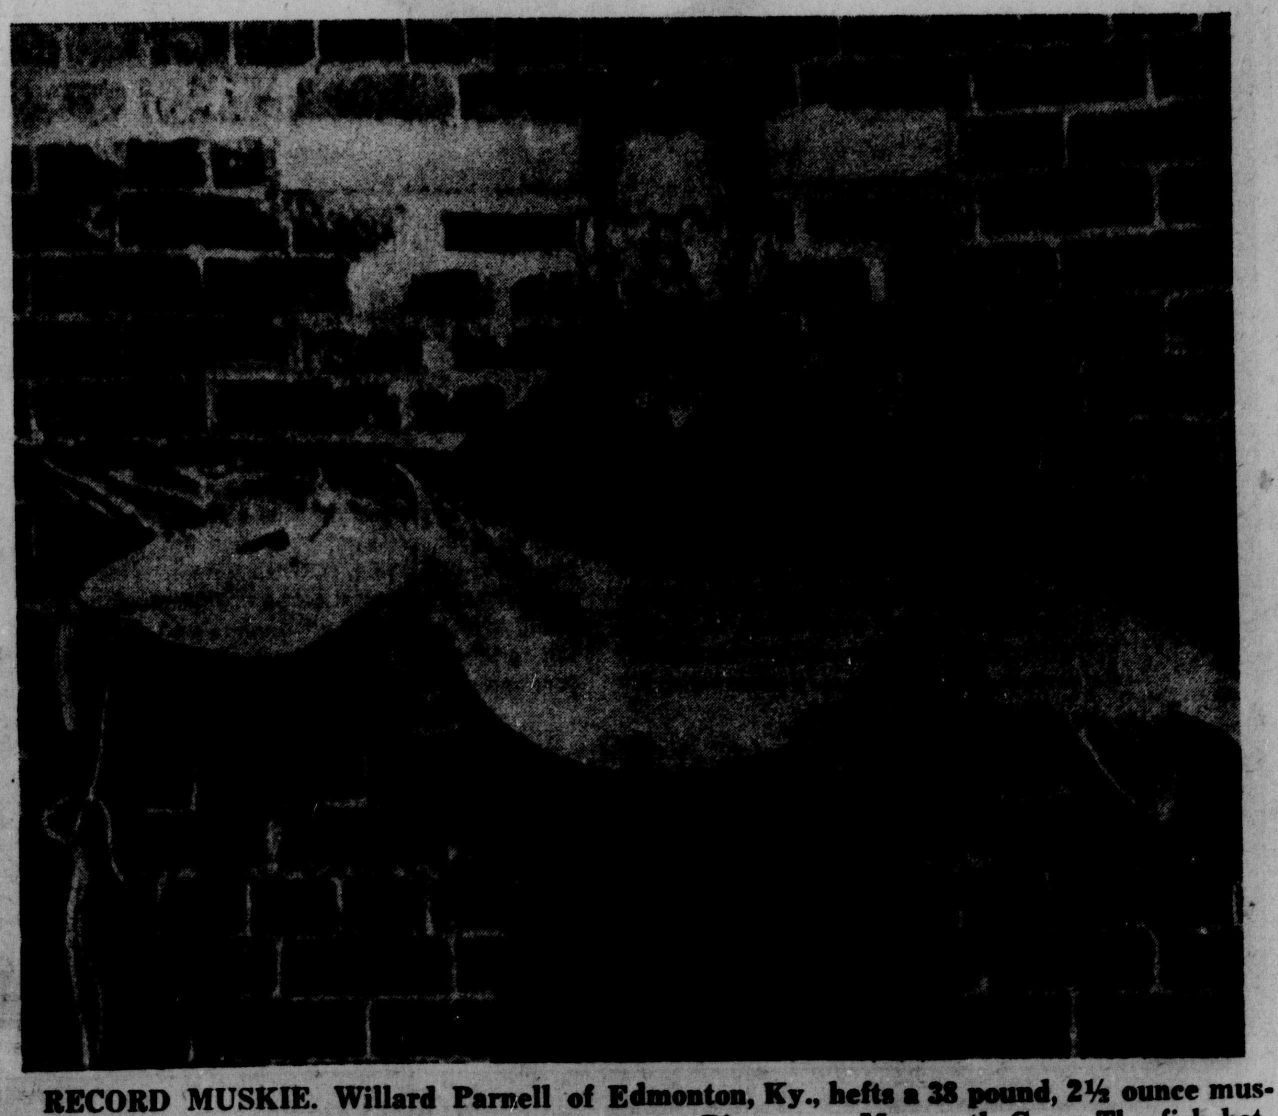
"This water from underground, flowing from natural springs, is ideal for rearing coho," Armbruster adds. "The temperature remains quite uniform at about 48 degrees in the winter and 58 in the summer. When another 10 degrees are added through aeration, we will have a perfect set-up."

Aeration can be accomplished by bubbling air from hoses up through the water, or by tumbling the water over natural falls or special weirs.

NOMINATIONS SOUGHT. Ralph Drake, Columbiana County game protector, is seeking nominations for the Division of Wildlife conservation award in the county.

Each year someone who has made an outstanding contribution to wildlife or land conservation is cited.

Anyone wanting to nominate a farmer or landowner should contact Ralph at home in Lisbon. His phone is 424-3378.



RECORD MUSKIE. Willard Parnell of Edmonton, Ky., hefts a 38 pound, 2½ ounce muskellunge he caught while bait casting in the Green River near Mammoth Cave. The fish betters the old muskie record in Kentucky by more than two pounds. (UPI Telephoto)

MY WIND SHOULD BE A LOT BETTER...
I'M CONCENTRATIN' MORE ON CURVES...
WE WERE A COLD TEAM IN THE SERIES..
I'M GLAD TO GET AWAY FROM THE BANQUET CIRCUIT!
PLAY ME OR TRADE ME!!

EVERY YEAR ABOUT this time, sleek, suntanned sportswriters file reams of copy from the resort cities of the South and Southwest, explaining in clinical detail all the little aches and pains that beset the highly-paid practitioners of the art of baseball as they go through the motions of whipping themselves into shape for another season.

If Joe McJerk, the rookie outfielder of the Newark Nobodies, so much as catches his toe in descending from a stool in a dimly-lit barroom, it turns up in print as a serious injury to the Achilles tendon, and serves as the peg on which to hang thousands of words of speculation about the possible effect on McJerk, his heirs and assigns, the Nobodies and all the other teams in both leagues.

And when Paul J. Retarded, the Arkansas pitching ace on the Cedar Rapids Seals, declines to sign his contract in front of 50 news cameramen because of a mammoth seizure of congenital illiteracy, the news is trumpeted from one end of the nation to the other as another Gettysburg, a catastrophe, a calamity, a veritable Armageddon.

Thirty minutes later, after the batboy affixes Retarded's name to the paper in the privacy of the lockerroom, the act is hailed as a victory for Retarded, a financial concession by the Seals and, withal, the triumph of knighthood over the forces of repression and evil.

THE ANEMIC dwellers in the northern climes, fighting the last round with chilblains and pneumonia symptoms, read the training camp stories year after year with wild gleams of anticipation in their eyes, blithely ignoring the fact that they read the same thing last year and the year before and the year before, clear back to the dawn of the sport.

Only the names are changed in the strings of cliches to protect the sportswriters' jobs.

But while the baseball professionals are going through the annual weeks of expense-account living to generate news stories that will whet the fans' appetites for another season, tens of millions of us who have worked full-time the preceding 12 months are going through the painful process of throwing off winter's lethargy to prepare for another 12 months of uninterrupted toil.

Imagine what a story could be written by a veteran baseball writer assigned to size up your office force or mine and file a comprehensive story on the propects of the company keeping afloat through another year:

"WITH THE HARDLY SOLVENT Processing Co. in spring training — This highly-rated firm, producer of the world's only one-man ping pong tables, is whipping its force into shape for a new season despite a host of minor injuries and bickering between the owners and the manager.

"Alonzo Z. Garfinkle, ace office boy and holder of the world's record for swiping postage stamps, is showing truly remarkable early form in pitching outlawed spitballs and his grace in catching flies never was better. He will be a big asset to the firm if he maintains his blazing early pace.

"Lothario L. Bottomly, the company's top sales represetative in the east, was spiked by Miss Queenie B. Blackroots, the home office lovely, in what must have been a miscue by Miss Blackroots' heel as Mr. Bottomly issued an intentional pass. He will miss the first spring road trip.

But the incident only served to bear out stories that Miss Blackroots has perfected the big move that she has made famous in the home office and all the branches.

"Hubert Bottleneck, who covers the night spots more religiously than a Salvation Army band, was injured seriously as he attempted a hook slide into the water fountain in the supply room, seeking to beat out a fellow employe headed for the well-known relief of ice water.

"MISS ANGIE Underwood, the only switch-hitter in the typists' pool, wrenched her back severely in falling backward to escape a bean ball hurled by the office manager. Her pace has been slowed, but her perfect carriage is unchanged.

"Willie Column, chief auditor and veteran accountant, scalded his index finger severely while attempting to stretch his afternoon tea break to a two-bagger. When he failed to report back from the dispensary on time, management called a balk.

"Abner P. Acrimonious, veteran manager and veritable fount of wisdom on all the lore of solvent processing, was thrown out by his wife while attempting to steal home at 2 a. m.

"But she whipped him into shape quickly. Donning a facemask and shinguards, Acrimonious declared he is ready for the home opener. The injury-ridden staff wound up the day's practice by skillfully fielding insulting memos from the home office and firing them into the wastebaskets."

The Younger Set

Good ol' March — so typical with its stormy temperament — managed to slow down activities by dumpping a mass of snow in our spring-oriented valley this week, leaving area high school students "hanging loose."

IT WON'T LET YOU FORGET — Wellsville High journalists are putting the final touches on the yearbook. Certainly hope you "Tigers" have ordered this year's; it looks like a good one! Things you've forgotten — or wish you could — will be published in this indelible memory file. . . . FAIR "PLAY" — Many Wellsville students are preparing projects for the annual science fair. The exhibition may include electronic equipment, displays, charts and other products of the minds of those imaginative few! The best ones will get awards and continue in the competition, and EVERYBODY'S project will be graded; Talk about motivation. . . . TIPS FROM THE PROS — The Wellsville basketball team will attend a professional basketball league game Monday at Steubenville between the Pittsburgh Pipers and the Amigos from Anaheim, Calif.

FORE! — Five, Six? No, that's not right. Well, anyway, the East Liverpool High girl's gym — after hours —is where the action is these days. David Thorne is instructing boys golf teams on the fine points of golfing. (Might say they're minding their "tees" and Q's. . . .) Since the weather is not cooperating with the practice sessions, Thorne has been putting down sections of carpeting for putting . . . or whatever. It's gonna' look like a patchwork quilt if the weather doesn't break soon! . . . THIS "KNOCK KNOCK" IS NO JOKE — Pretty soon it's gonna' be safe to "be seated" in the Study Hall, thanks to Clifford Lynch, principal, who is responsible for getting the rows of seats setting steady again! Students have become so nonchalant about falling backwards into a "leaning-sit" position that their studying is never hampered. Instead of the same ol' drag of gazing toward the front of the room, they look at the ceiling. Ah, but changes are being made, and soon the chairs will keep all fours on the floors, right? Right! Just ask Kathy Rutter how great that'll be. . . . CRITICAL ANALYSIS — Nike Club members and some Juniors — future members — attended a fascinating discussion on handwriting analysis. Contrary to some thinking, it's not black magic that tells the personality story, just the different slants, whorls, curlicues and stuff. Some of the girls used analysis on one another's script. The results may not have been perfect, but now the girls understand the meaning behind the phrase, "Get it in writing." . . . HELLO MISS COLUMBIANA COUNTY! — The greetings are from Patty Wyche, our East Liverpool High correspondent, who was fortunate enough to sit across from Miss Polly Lease at a Youth In Government Day banquet Tuesday night in Westgate School cafeteria! Patty said Polly and her director are going to read this column, though they don't usually get The Review. What a neat way to get new subscribers!

THE "IN" GROUP WILL ATTEND — Everybody who's anybody will attend the dance tonight sponsored by South Side High's Student Council. Rumor has it that "The Chapparrells" will bring the sound. Tonight's fling is a sure-fire way to learn the latest dances and get in some practice for the junior-senior prom. . . . SQUARE DANCING IS PRETTY ROUGH — At least Sandy Doak and Carla Faulk aren't too wild about any square dancing in the near future. Both girls, in a attempt during Phys. Ed. class to "swing their partners," practically ruined themselves when their fingers became entwined! Those right and left "grands" are tricky! Carla came out of it with a cut finger (on Sandy's ring) and Sandy . . .? Well, her finger began to swell until the ring hadda' come off! . . . SAY "FORMAGGIO!" — Which, literally translated, means "cheese!" and that's what the seniors around here were saying when their senior photos were taken. If you look closely at the showcase with the water scene of geese, you'll see one of the birds is Janet Rogers'. Tom Torrence was depressed when he couldn't win a trophy, apparently, cause a really good shot of his is gazing at everybody from the trophy case! No doubt you remember the childhood rhyme that concluded "The clock struck one . . ." Well THAT ONE was Greg Trimble, who at last look was still hanging on the clock in a desperate effort to turn back the hands!

STORMY WEATHER — At Lincoln High at Midland the weather seems to affect students, Melvin Laing, English instructor, has commented. On rainy days, students are hesitant to answer; on spring days they seem to be in a daze. Are you a "spring fever believer," sir? . . . THANX TO REY — Jeannie Borato indicated she had Rey Peduzzi, driver training instructor, to thank when she passed her test Wednesday morning. Must be fate — the good humored State Policeman who tested her driving skill was also named Ray. . . . PROMS ARE GREAT! — The decorating committee for the prom is determined to make this one better and bigger than ever. It's not kicking about losing all that class time either . . . That's real dedication!

DO-RE-MI — The chorus at Western Beaver High has begun pratice sessions for the spring concert . . . DON'T KNOW WHEN TO QUIT — The gymnastists who performed in the public show Friday in the gym did a darn good job, didn't they? Everyone could see their hearts were in that performance!

7 Churches Will Join In Series Of Services

Seven area United Presbyterian churches will join in sponsoring Lenten services on Sunday night at 7:30, beginning tomorrow. The theme is "The Lenten Message Through Arts."

The churches are Emmanuel, Calcutta, Longs Run, Trinity, Glenmoor, Second and Grace.

On Sunday, Dr. Russell Hutchison, professor of Bible and Religion at Muskingum College, will speak at the Emmanuel Church.

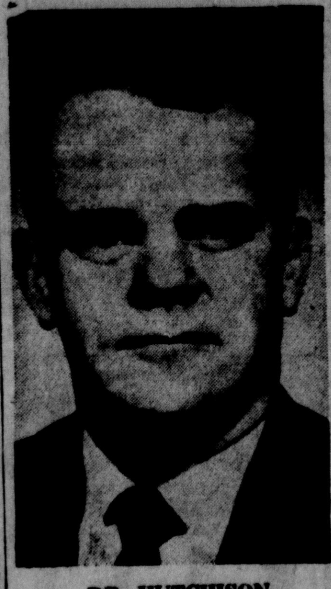
On March 24, Holy Communion service will be held at the Calcutta church.

On March 31, a drama, "Christ in the Concrete City," will be held at the Longs Run church. The cast will consist of youth from the sponsoring churches. The Rev. John Dryer of Wellsville will be the director.

On April 7, an Easter concert will be presented by the East Liverpool Messiah Choir under the direction of Tom Schneidmiller at the Trinity church.

An offering will be received at each program. After expenses for the programs have been paid, the balance will be sent to the "One Great Hour of Sharing" program.

Dr. Hutchison, a native of Pittsburgh, has been the head of the department of Bible, religion and philosophy at Muskingum College since 1956. He has served pastorates in Gary, Ind., San Diego, Calif., Huntsville, Ohio, Tarkio, Mo., and Wilkinsburg, Pa.



DR. HUTCHISON
Will Speak Sunday.

During World War II, he was a Navy chaplain. He received his master's degree from Louisville Presbyterian Seminary in 1953 and his Ph.D. from the University of Pittsburgh.

He was a delegate from the United Presbyterian General Assembly to the North American Section of the World Alliance of Churches. In 1962, he served as a seminar leader for the United Presbyterian churchwide ministry study.

Twins Will Take Part In Services At Boyce

A program will be presented by the Brooks twins during the four regular services at the Boyce Methodist Church Sunday.

A fellowship hour will be held in the Auditorium at 5 p. m.

The twins are Mrs. Bruce (Doris) Zimmerman of Jewett, Ohio, and Mrs. Monette (Dorothy) Moore, a missionary, along with her husband. They are twin daughters of the Rev. and Mrs. Earl C. Brooks, who served the local church from 1929-35.

The Moores are on furlough from Dakar, Africa, where they supervise an orphanage under the joint sponsorship of the United World Mission and the Hope United Methodist Church in Akron. There are currently 39 children in the Home of Hope at Dakar. Two of the children from the orphanage are with the Moores and also will be at the Boyce church Sunday. The public is invited.

The Rev. Paul George is pastor.

2 Candidates Initiated At Eastern Star Meeting

Two candidates were initiated during the meeting of Crystal Chapter 18, Order of Eastern Star, Wednesday night at the Masonic Temple. There were 103 present.

Richard Kidder, marshal, presented Bibles to the initiates.

Mrs. Jackie Mitcheson, worthy matron, and Frank Mitcheson, worthy patron, presided.

Decorations in the East featured the star emblem highlighted with flowers at the points and a white Bible before a white satin background. A praying hands plaque and a styrofoam Bible with the inscription "Words of the Bible" decorated the West, where a blue silk background was featured.

Mrs. Pat Connor, conductress, presented Mrs. Elizabeth Wallace, deputy grand matron of District 13; Mrs. Arlene Blackburn, grand representative to South Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Yarian, worthy patron and matron of East Palestine Chapter 381, and Chester Hopton, worthy patron of Canton Delta 539. Also introduced were 12 past matrons and four past patrons of the local chapter.

Guests from Chester, Midland, Negley and Canton were registered by Mrs. Dolores Hopper.

Inspection dates for District 13 chapters announced were Sebring, April 2; Canal Fulton, April 6, and Leetonia, April 15. Crescent Chapter 49 of Chester is having a dinner and visitation April 1.

An invitation was read to the 65th wedding anniversary reception for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Logan to be held April 6 from 2 until 6 p. m. at the First Methodist Church.

Kidder draped the charter for the late Mrs. Dorothy Wakefield and Mrs. Hilda Hall.

The visitation report was presented by Mrs. Olive McDowell.

The sunshine fund, designated for cancer, was collected by Miss Wanda Wilson and Mrs. Millie Hopper, pages.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Blackburn, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Sneddon, Mrs. Gladys Keys, Mrs. Jennie Mackall and Miss Selma Ladzinske. Shamrocks and St. Patrick's Day appointments were used.

The next session will be April 10 at 8 p. m.

Group Cancels April 14 Events

It was voted to cancel the coffee break and egg hunt which has been scheduled April 14 when the Penova Citizens Bend Radio Club met Wednesday night in the clubhouse on Route 45, near Wellsville.

Plans were completed for the St. Patrick's "break" Sunday, beginning at 2 p.m. at the clubhouse. Mrs. Clifford Potts will be in charge of the activities and Mrs. Edna Kerns the turkey.

It was reminded that those wearing green will be admitted at half price for the event, which is open to the public. The meeting in the evening also will be open to the public. Games will be played and trophies and prizes awarded.

Club patches with a green background and lettering of white for Ohio, blue for Pennsylvania, yellow for West Virginia and red for East Liverpool were distributed.

Car, Truck Hit; Area Man Hurt

An area man was injured when his pickup truck went left of center and collided with a car on the Y. and O. Rd. about 1:35 a. m. today, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reports.

Gene R. Karcher, 23, of LaCroft was treated at City Hospital for contusions of the nose after his 1968 truck went left of center on County Rd. 424, a tenth of a mile west of Route 267, and collided with a 1954 sedan operated by Jack W. Smith, 19, of 311 Campground Rd., Wellsville, officers said.

Karcher was cited for driving left of center, the patrol reported.

Irish Selections Feature Meeting

Irish selections, in keeping with St. Patrick's Day, were sung by Louis Provost when the East Liverpool Senior Citizens met Thursday afternoon at the parish hall of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Anna Osborn, also sang Irish numbers, with Mrs. Nell Pelley at the piano.

Fred Laufenberger presented the quotation of the day, "Just To Be Tender." Mrs. Edith Nichols gave humorous readings.

Recognized were Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Plant and Mr. and Mrs. William Plantz, who recently observed their 50th wedding anniversary, and Lloyd Shaw on the occasion of his 75th birthday. Mrs. Alice Capewell received the corsage. About 123 attended.

To Aid Crippled Children, Adults

Hancock County Society Spurs Easter Seal Drive

SCOTT ALAN McCLAIN is just one of the many crippled children and adults who will benefit from the annual Easter Seal campaign now under way in Hancock County.

Scott Alan McClain, a first-grader at Weirton Heights School, is just one of many boys and girls who receive a helping hand from the Hancock County Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

But during the present campaign — March 1-April 14—Scott Alan is somebody special because he is the official 1968 Easter Seal Child for the county.

IT'S DIFFICULT for Scott Alan to do all the things that appeal to most 7-year-olds, such as playing with other kids, hitting a baseball and helping take care of his 3-month-old baby brother.

These things aren't easy for Scott, because he was born with anthrogry posis and club feet, congenita multiplex (birth defect), clutched thumbs and dislocated hips.

The youth must swing along on heavy leg braces because of his condition and has had 12 operations in his seven years. He wore a cast up to his waist until 18 months old.

Scott now wears braces purchased by the Hancock County Easter Seal Society, which is funded solely through contributions made during the annual Easter Seal campaign.

The Easter Seal Child is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William McClain of Weirton Rt. 1. His parents said, "We think it's important to treat Scott Alan as if his handicap didn't even exist. That way he feels more important and is encouraged to work harder to overcome the problem."

—:—

SCOTT ALAN and his family attend the Baptist Evangelical Church, and Scott says he wants to be a Baptist minister when he grows up.

Contributions received during the current campaign will help provide continued services for children such as Scott Alan. The Hancock Society hopes to expand its program to care for more crippled children and adults during 1968.

Those interested in donating to the drive, which will be climaxed Easter Sunday, April 14, may write Box 98, Cove Station, Weirton, 26062.

Mrs. David Hair is society president and Mrs. James Lynch is Easter Seal chairman.

Last Test Due In Council On Gas Rate Hike

An ordinance allowing a rate increase for the Ohio Valley Gas Co. as part of a new four-year agreement faces its third and final hurdle before City Council Monday night.

The legislation was given first reading Feb. 19 and moved through second reading March 4. If it receives at least four affirmative votes on third reading, it will become law April 18.

A 4-3 vote against suspension of the rules prevented immediate enactment at the first March meeting. Councilmen Donal I. Burcham, Frank P. Duffy, James Lowe and Edward Massey voted against suspension of rules. "Yes" votes were cast by Councilmen Floyd Murray, Robert W. Sample and John Wilson.

The rate measure was presented in February as a replacement for another ordinance enacted late in December by the 1966-67 Council and repealed at the first meeting of the present Council.

In presenting the new legislation, Solicitor J. Michael Kapp said it would save East Liverpool's 6,000 gas consumers a total of $25,260 over the four years. The increases average out to 11.88 per cent over the four years, compared to an average of 12.33 per cent in the rescinded legislation, he said.

Heart Attack Fatal

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — George Meyer, 76, a founder of Esquire magazine, died Thursday of a heart attack. Meyer was vice president of a dress shop which has stores in Beverly Hills, Seal Beach and Santa Ana, Calif.

First state agricultural experiment station was set up at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., in 1875.

Henry H. Timken Jr., 61, Canton Industrialist, Dies

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — The body of Henry H. Timken Jr., board chairman of the Timken Roller Bearing Co., will be returned here today. The 61-year-old industrialist died of a heart attack in Washington, D.C. Friday night.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Timken was in Washington attending a business conference when he was stricken. He died at a hospital.

The son of a German immigrant, Timken was born in Canton May 27, 1906, and named a director of the family-owned firm in 1930 after graduation from Harvard.

He later became general assistant to the Timken Roller Bearing Steel and Tube Co., assistant to the president in 1933 and a vice president of the Timken Roller Bearing Co. in 1934.

In 1943, he was named executive vice president of the firm and had served as chairman of the board since 1959.

Timken's brother, W.R. Timken, 58, is president of the company and announced last year he would retire sometime this year, to be replaced by Herbert Markley.

The firm was started in Canton in 1901 by Henry H. Timken, who died in 1910.

Since then, the company has expanded until it now has 14 plants in 7 countries, including 7 plants in the United States, with headquarters in Canton.

Timken was chairman of the Akron-Canton Airport Board of Trustees and was instrumental in developing the airport. He was named Canton's No. 1 citizen in 1965 and received the city's award of merit the same year for outstanding service to the community.

Last year, net income for the worldwide Timken operations was $35,522,024, or $3.30 per share, on sales of $355,056,300.

Timken is survived by his widow, Louise. The couple has no children.

County OK's Lighting For Intersections

LISBON — Columbiana County Commissioners contracted with the Ohio Edison Co. Thursday to illuminate 15 intersections and junctions of county and township roads in the northern part of the county.

Cost of the 16 22,500-lumen lights — one junction will have two — will be $107.80 a month—$6.80 for 15 lights and $5.80 for the other.

The lights will burn from one half hour after sunset until one-half hour before sunrise, or approximately 4,000 hours annually.

Light locations designated by County Engineer John Ursu are:

East Rochester - New Alexander Rd. (County Rd. 402) and Chambersburg Rd. (C. R. 403).

Homeworth - North Georgetown Rd. (C. R. 400 and C. R. 403).

C. R. 400 and Westville Rd. (C. R. 404).

C. R. 400 and Valley - Damascus Rd. (C. R. 405).

Depot Rd. ((C. R. 410) at Snyder Rd., Pidgeon Rd. (two lights), Grange Rd., Winona Rd., Teagarden Rd. and Guilford Lake Rd.

Hanoverton-Gavers Rd. (C. R. 407) and Lindesmith Rd. (C. R. 407-A).

Columbiana-Elkton Rd. (C. R. 420) and Middleton Rd.

New Waterford - Unity Rd. (C. R. 421) and Mailton Rd. (C. R. 432).

Rogers - Clarkson Rd. (C. R. 428) and Carmel - Achor Rd. (C. R. 429).

Clarkson Rd. (C. R. 428) and Clarkson - Pancake Rd.

Car, Truck Hit; Area Man Hurt

An area man was injured when his pickup truck went left of center and collided with a car on the Y. and O. Rd. about 1:35 a. m. today, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reports.

Gene R. Karcher, 23, of LaCroft was treated at City Hospital for contusions of the nose after his 1968 truck went left of center on County Rd. 424, a tenth of a mile west of Route 267, and collided with a 1954 sedan operated by Jack W. Smith, 19, of 311 Campground Rd., Wellsville, officers said.

Karcher was cited for driving left of center, the patrol reported.

Irish Selections Feature Meeting

Irish selections, in keeping with St. Patrick's Day, were sung by Louis Provost when the East Liverpool Senior Citizens met Thursday afternoon at the parish hall of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Anna Osborn, also sang Irish numbers, with Mrs. Nell Pelley at the piano.

Fred Laufenberger presented the quotation of the day, "Just To Be Tender." Mrs. Edith Nichols gave humorous readings.

Recognized were Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Plant and Mr. and Mrs. William Plantz, who recently observed their 50th wedding anniversary, and Lloyd Shaw on the occasion of his 75th birthday. Mrs. Alice Capewell received the corsage. About 123 attended.

To Aid Crippled Children, Adults

EASTER SEALS
WIN THE WAR FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

SCOTT ALAN McCLAIN is just one of the many crippled children and adults who will benefit from the annual Easter Seal campaign now under way in Hancock County.

Scott Alan McClain, a first-grader at Weirton Heights School, is just one of many boys and girls who receive a helping hand from the Hancock County Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

But during the present campaign — March 1-April 14—Scott Alan is somebody special because he is the official 1968 Easter Seal Child for the county.

IT'S DIFFICULT for Scott Alan to do all the things that appeal to most 7-year-olds, such as playing with other kids, hitting a baseball and helping take care of his 3-month-old baby brother.

These things aren't easy for Scott, because he was born with anthrogry posis and club feet, congenita multiplex (birth defect), clutched thumbs and dislocated hips.

The youth must swing along on heavy leg braces because of his condition and has had 12 operations in his seven years. He wore a cast up to his waist until 18 months old.

Scott now wears braces purchased by the Hancock County Easter Seal Society, which is funded solely through contributions made during the annual Easter Seal campaign.

The Easter Seal Child is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William McClain of Weirton Rt. 1. His parents said, "We think it's important to treat Scott Alan as if his handicap didn't even exist. That way he feels more important and is encouraged to work harder to overcome the problem."

—:—

SCOTT ALAN and his family attend the Baptist Evangelical Church, and Scott says he wants to be a Baptist minister when he grows up.

Contributions received during the current campaign will help provide continued services for children such as Scott Alan. The Hancock Society hopes to expand its program to care for more crippled children and adults during 1968.

Those interested in donating to the drive, which will be climaxed Easter Sunday, April 14, may write Box 98, Cove Station, Weirton, 26062.

Mrs. David Hair is society president and Mrs. James Lynch is Easter Seal chairman.

Houston Rolls But TCU, Santa Clara Produce Upsets

* * * * * * * * * * * *

Ohio State Wins, Faces Kentucky

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

A couple of upstarts, Texas Christian and Santa Clara, startled college basketball circles Friday night.

The Horned Frogs of TCU upset Kansas State 77-72 and the Broncos bowled over the New Mexico Lobos, 86-73 in second-round play in the NCAA tournament.

Their surprising triumphs overshadowed Houston's 91-75 rout of Louisville, UCLA's 58-49 conquest of New Mexico State and North Carolina's 91-72 defeat of previously unbeaten St. Bonaventure.

Davidson edged Columbia 61-59 in overtime, Ohio State beat East Tennessee 79-72 and Kentucky routed Marquette 107-89 as the NCAA field was cut to eight survivors.

The results set up these pairings for tonight's quarter-finals at four regional sites:

At Raleigh, N.C.—Davidson, 24-4, vs. North Carolina, 26-3.

At Lexington, Ky.—Ohio State, 19-7, vs. Kentucky, 22-4.

At Wichita, Kan.—Houston, 30-0, vs. Texas Christian, 15-10.

At Albuquerque, N.M.—UCLA, 26-1, vs. Santa Clara, 22-8.

In other tourney play Friday, Kansas downed Temple 82-76 and Villanova whacked Wyoming 77-66 in first-round games of the National Invitation Tournament in New York.

Kentucky Wesleyan defeated Indiana State 63-52 in the championship final of the NCAA College Division tourney at Evansville, Ind. Central State of Ohio whipped Westminster, Pa. 72-51 and Fairmont, W. Va., edged Oshkosh, Wis. State 76-74 in the semifinals of the NAIA at Kansas City.

"We'll need five Lew Alcindors to beat Houston," said Johnny Swaim, Texas Christian coach, after TCU's upset over Kansas State. The Horned Frogs wiped out a 13-point deficit and went ahead for good on Mickey McCarty's layup with 90 seconds left.

Swaim referred to UCLA's towering 7-foot-1 Alcindor who paced the Bruins over New Mexico State with 28 points. He obviously was thinking of a way to stop Elvin Hayes, the Big E of Houston's unbeaten and top-ranked Cougars.

The 6-9 Hayes, voted Player of The Year in The Associated Press poll, turned in one of his greatest games as the Cougars thumped Louisville for their 31st in a row, 30-0 this season.

Hayes pumped in 35 points and had the better of his duel with fellow All-American Westley Unseld of Louisville. The Big E got his points on 16 field goals and three fouls. Unseld finished with 23 points. Hayes grabbed 24 rebounds to Unseld's 22.

A fantastic 25-3 spurt in the first half that turned a 12-8 deficit into a 33-15 Houston advantage put an end to Louisville's 12-game winning streak. Don Chaney's many steals "tore us apart," as Louisville coach John Dromo put it.

Santa Clara, with a more respectable record than TCU but unranked nationally like the Horned Frogs, opened a 20-point lead over New Mexico. The Lobos, though playing on their home court, never caught up. Bud Ogden, with 22 points, led Santa Clara, which hit on 11 of its first 14 shots.

Larry Miller's 27 points paced North Carolina over St. Bonaventure. The Bonnies had won 25 in a row, 23 this season. Davidson beat Columbia on Wayne Huckel's two foul shots that put the Wildcats ahead for good with two minutes left in overtime.

Columbia had a chance to win in the last two seconds of regulation time with the score tied 55-55, but Bruce Metz missed a free throw.

Dan Issel's 36 points sparked Kentucky over Marquette. Steve Howell got 22 and led Ohio State over East Tennessee.

East, Newark Get Top Billing In Regionals

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The long and rugged tournament trail leading to the state high school basketball championships has become a crowded footpath, as 16 teams vie tonight for eight coveted spots in the finals.

Regional finals are on tap at eight locations, with Class AA favorite Columbus East 21-0 getting top billing, pitted against Newark, 22-1 at the Fairgrounds Coliseum here.

In Friday night's Class A regional semifinals, undefeated Western of Pike County (25-0) got a scare from West Muskingum (18-4) before the Indians went on the warpath late in the game to clinch an 81-76 victory at Athens.

Western, down 18-17 at the end of the first period, moved out to a 41-33 lead at halftime and hung on after intermission for the triumph.

Western's Wray Jordon paced all scorers with 24 points.

The Indians will meet Portsmouth Clay (24-2), another Friday night winner at Athens, for the regional title tonight.

Clay's Panthers shot a nifty 59 per cent from the field as they forged past Granville 82-71. Paul Kaut paved the way with 22 points.

In other AA competition, Toledo Central (23-1) rolled past Lorain Admiral King 58-49 and meets Lima Senior (20-3) at Bowling Green tonight.

Ted Murnen scored half of his 22 points in the third quarter in leading Central to victory. Lima moved into the finals with an 89-76 triumph over Cleveland John Adams.

Adams, despite a 28-point output from Doug Rian, watched Lima scramble to a 43-30 halftime advantage. Paul Howard got 25 points for Lima.

Hamilton Garfield (21-3) will meet Cincinnati Elder (23-1) tonight to decide the Class AA Cincinnati regional.

Elder held Dayton Roth to only four points in the final period Friday night to score a 68-63 comeback victory in the semifinals.

Garfield had an easier time of it, jumping out to a 23-8 lead at the end of the first period with Northwestern never coming closer than 10 points. Willie Townsend of Garfield led all shooters with 26 points, as his team won 78-65.

The other regional AA final finds Euclid (21-2) facing Canton McKinley (19-5) at Kent.

In AA play, Mansfield St. Peter (23-3) meets Kalida (17-6) at Kent, the only afternoon game on tap; Garaway (20-3) meets Springfield Local (22-2) at Canton and Cincinnati Lincoln (13-10) battles rugged Dixie (22-2) at Troy.

Same Teams Met Last Year

Charleston Favored Over Beckley For 'AAA' Crown

By ED RICE

CHARLESTON (AP) — Fans at tonight's Beckley-Charleston state high school championship basketball game might get the feeling they've been there before.

Both teams met for the title at Morgantown in last year's tournament.

Beckley's Flying Eagles came out on top in that one, upsetting the Mountain Lions 75-69. And, this year as last, the Eagles are considered underdogs.

The Beckley-Charleston Triple—A clash will cap today's playoff action. Ceredo - Kenova was scheduled to play unbeaten Charles Town in the Double-A finals at 1 p.m. and Barrackville will face Marlinton for the Class-A championship at 3 p.m.

Wayne Duncan, coach of Martinsburg which lost 70-87 to the Flying Eagles in the semifinals Friday night, flatly predicts the Mountain Lions will redeem themselves and avenge last year's disappointment.

After watching Charleston rout Wheeling and Becklye whip his team, Duncan concluded, "Chareston has too much of everything for them. Beckley's got a good team. They beat us. But Charleston will take 'em."

Larry Harris led the Mountain Lions against Wheeling. The 6-foot-5 center matched teammate Curtis Price's game-high 28 points and snared 33 rebounds. Harris' rebound total broke the tournament record of 28 set by Price in the semi-finals against Wellsburg last year.

D. J. Jebbia experienced early difficulties but found the range to top Wheeling with 26 points.

Beckley hot shot Steve Lickliter pumped in the highest point total in the tournament so far in the Eagles' victory over Martinsburg. Lickliter got going in the third quarter after scoring only eight the first half and finished with 35. His third period output was 15.

With team captain John Wooton and center Henry Dickerson controlling the boards, the Flying Eagles demolished Martinsburg in the second half. "We just ran out of steam and they beat us," observed coach Duncan. "We're used to a smaller gym," he added.

Gary Stillwell pumped in 23 points for Martinsburg.

Smooth - playing Marlinton trounced Fort Ashby 86-52 and balanced Barrackville zapped Harts 78-59 to set the stage for the Single-A championship game this afternoon.

Jo Jo Borden's quick-release jumper resulted in 25 points for Barrackville. Ron Martin popped for 18.

Harts' hustling Jerry Thompson led his team with 19 points.

Marlinton's raw - boned five displayed agility, strength and stamina in disposing of Fort Ashby. Ivan Withers tallied 26 points to pace the Copperheads, while the other four starters hit in double figures also.

Ralph Weaver came on in a substitute role to lead Fort Ashby with 12 points.

Class-AA finalists Charles Town and Ceredo - Kenova advanced to the championships on victories Thursday over Mullens and St. Marys.

Charles Town upset Mullens 56-54 and Ceredo - Kenova dumped St. Marys 59-47 Thursday to advance to the Class-AA finals.

Nicklaus On Top, Arnie Out In Citrus Tourney

By RON SPEER

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus is out in front. Arnold Palmer simply is out. Period.

"I can't recall when I shot that bad," Palmer said after taking a disastrous 76 Friday and failing to qualify for the final 36 holes of the Florida Citrus Open Golf Tournament. He had a front nine 41 and missed the cut by two strokes.

Nicklaus, meanwhile, claimed a two-stroke lead going into today's third round, He fired a four-under-par 68 Friday for 135. Bob Charles, a New Zealand lefty, was second with a 69 for 137.

Miller Barber, who shot a second-round 71; Don Massengale with a 70, and Dan Sikes with a 67 were deadlocked at 138, one stroke in front of Australians Bruce Crampton and Bruce Devlin.

Defending champion Julius Boros was back in the pack at 143, despite a 70 in the second round. South African Gary Player was in better shape after shooting a 68 for a 140.

Nicklaus, however, appeared set to pick up his first winner's check ever for a tour victory in Florida.

"I've finished second in all the Florida tournaments, but I've never won one," Nicklaus said. "I've got an opportunity to take care of that this week."

But he was worried about his driving.

"I'm not driving well at all," he said. "I'm either going to fix this driver during the night or I'll have a different one Saturday."

Nicklaus, playing near-perfect iron shots, said that despite his wildness off the tee he had "the ball around the hole all day. I can't remember when I had more chances for putts."

Luther Adkins Bags 10 Straight

Luther Adkins hit 10 straight to win the 25-yard high gun competition during the Wednesday night shoot of the Columbiana County Fish and Game Protective Association.

Alfred and Harold Cochran scored two wins in the regular protector shoot. With one win were Bob and Larry Cochran, Bob and George Cochran, Larry and Jim Cochran and Ray Thompson and Alfred Cochran.

Chalking up one victory each in the three-man protector shoot were Earl Burlingame, George Hercules and Dave Parr and Alfred and Harold Cochran and Ray Thompson.

Red bird winners were Clayton, Cliff, Everett, Ron and Dick Cochran and Ken Alfred.

Jerry Cochran captured the Annie Oakley shoot over 23 other aspirants.

Del Insko led harness drivers at Yonkers Raceway during 1967 with 127 winners. He had 772 starts in 152 nights.

Rupp Looks For Tough Game From Big Bucks

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—The NCAA Mid-East Regional program plainly reads that Ohio State's basketball team is big, but Kentucky Coach Adolph Rupp didn't realize just how big until Friday night.

Ohio State and Kentucky advanced to the championship game tonight, Ohio by beating East Tennessee 79-72 and Kentucky by dismembering Marquette 107-89. The winner tonight will move on to the NCAA finals in Los Angeles.

Ohio State's big men—center Dave Sorenson, and forwards Bill Hosket and Steve Howell—are listed as 6-foot-7, 6-7, and 6-5, respectively. But Rupp seemed genuinely surprised.

"I didn't think they were that big," he said. "I'm looking for a real battle."

Though Kentucky will be at a disadvantage in height, the Wildcats' one big man, 6-8½ sophomore center Dan Issel, could make the difference as he did Friday night.

Issel poured in 36 points against Marquette and pulled down 13 rebounds. He hit on 14 of 18 field goal attempts and was eight for 10 from the free throw line.

Sorenson, also a sophomore, will be pitted against Issel tonight. In Friday night's win, Sorenson hit for 14 points and took off six rebounds.

The Buckeyes' leading rebounder though was Hosket with 20. Howell was their high point man with 22. Hosket scored 18.

The Buckeyes poured in 34 of 63 shots for 54 per cent. East Tennessee, led by Mike Kretzer with 23 points, could hit only 28 of 78 for 35 per cent.

Jones Causes Monroe To Have Sub-Par Night

By KEN RAPPOPORT

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Earl the Pearl was dull, but the Philadelphia 76ers' flamboyant backcourt ace, played it close to the vest with sensational Baltimore rookie Earl Monroe and blunted his scoring threat as Philadelphia defeated the Bullets 122-115 in a National Basketball Association game Friday night.

"Jones was terrific," 76er Coach Alex Hannum said. "He was obviously responsible for Monroe's subpar game."

Monroe, No. 3 scorer in the NBA and a prime candidate for rookie of the year honors, hit on only three shots from the field, scoring seven points.

The victory continued the 76ers' mastery over Baltimore. It was Philadelphia's seventh straight win over the Bullets and virtually crushed their hopes of making the playoffs. Hal Greer poured in 29 points to spearhead the Philadelphia offense.

In other NBA action, Los Angeles whipped New York 123-112, Detroit nipped San Francisco 122-118 and Seattle trounced Chicago 113-101.

In the American Basketball Association, New Orleans beat Houston 108-99, Minnesota defeated Denver 106-95, Kentucky tripped Indiana 108-96 and Anaheim edged Oakland 116-113.

Elgin Baylor scored 37 points and grabbed 13 rebounds to lead the Los Angeles Lakers past New York. Baylor, who stands a mere 6-foot 5, needs seven more rebounds to become the sixth player in NBA history to reach the 10,000 mark.

Jimmy Walker's jump shot in the final half-minute choked off a San Francisco rally and insured Detroit's triumph, keeping the Pistons in fourth place in the Eastern Division. It was Detroit's seventh straight win, equaling the club record.

George Wilson came off the bench to score 11 points in the fourth period, gviing Seattle its victory over Chicago.

Sophomore Zenon Andrusyshyn of UCLA led major college punters last season with a 44.2 yard average on 34 punts.

Scott Swats Third Homer To Give Red Sox 3-1 Nod

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

You'd think pitchers would let a man George Scott's size have his way. But they keep challenging the big guy and so he keeps hitting baseballs out of sight.

Scott, Boston's huge first baseman, hammered his third home run of the spring Friday, lifting the Red Sox to a 3-1 exhibition victory over the Houston Astros.

It was Scott's ninth hit in 17 at bats and it traveled pretty far for a man who has dedicated himself to stroking the ball up the middle.

In other action Friday, Oakland whacked Washington 8-4, Detroit shaded Philadelphia 2-1, Pittsburgh tagged the New York Mets 8-1, and Cincinnati topped Atlanta 7-5.

Also, St. Louis nipped Minnesota 5-4, California defeated San Francisco 3-1, Cleveland dropped the Chicago Cubs 4-3, the New York Yankees beat the Chicago White Sox 4-2 and Baltimore topped Los Angeles 4-2.

"All I want to do is hit the ball through the middle," said Scott, "especially with two strikes on me."

So naturally, when Houston's Pat House put Scott in a two-strike hole with two men on in the ninth inning, the rookie pitcher grooved one.

"I still haven't changed my mind," Scott said. "This was an exception. He came in with a juicy fastball, and it was in on me."

Soon it was out of the park and a 1-0 Houston edge became a 3-1 Boston victory. The homer was Scott's sixth extra base hit and gave him nine runs batted in in six spring games.

Tenth-inning home runs by Jim Pagliaroni and Sal Bando helped Oakland overcome Washington. Reggie Jackson and Dick Green also homered for the Athletics.

Bill Freehan's fourth-inning homer snapped a scoreless streak of 30 2-3 innings pieced together by Philadelphia's pitching staff, and the Tigers went on to beat the Phillies when Dick McAuliffe scored all the way from first base on Lennie Green's two-out seventh-inning single.

Willie Stargell and Bob Robertson snapped spring slumps with home runs as the Pirates ran over the Mets. Stargell was 0-for-12 before connecting in the sixth inning and Robertson was hitless in five swings before homering in the ninth. Both shots came with one man on base.

Two errors by Felix Millan and another by Bob Tillman helped Cincinnati to four runs in the third inning as the Reds rolled over Atlanta. Tommy Helms and Fred Whitfield drove in two runs apiece for the Reds.

Three straight two-out singles in the eighth inning by Curt Flood, Bobby Tolan and Ed Spiezio snapped a 4-4 tie and gave St. Louis its victory over Minnesota. Flood also cracked a two-run homer.

Juan Marichal worked five innings and was tagged for two runs and the loss as California defeated San Francisco. Don Mincher drove in one run and scored another for the Angels.

Vic Davalillo doubled, moved to third on a sacrifice and scored on an infield bouncer as Cleveland pushed across a 14th-inning run to beat the Cubs.

Boog Powell drove in a pair of runs with two doubles and Dave Johnson knocked in two with a pair of singles as Baltimore beat Los Angeles. Curt Blefary also had two hits for the Orioles.

The New York Yankees stole five bases—three of them by Horace Clarke—overcoming 12 Chicago hits and five errors to beat the White Sox.

Central State Tops Titans, Faces Fairmont For Title

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Central State of Ohio moved closer to its second NAIA national basketball championship in four years by crushing Westminster, Pa., 72-51 Friday night while Fairmont, W. Va., State edged Oshkosh, Wis., State 76-74 in the semifinals.

Talented Central clashes with the battling Fairmont Falcons at 8:45 p.m. in the championship game tonight.

It will be the second meeting of the season for Central and Fairmont. The Marauders from Wilberforce, Ohio, won the first game 63-50.

In that game, however, Fairmont didn't have John Jamerson, a 6-foot-4 junior from Toledo, Ohio, whose soft one-handed jumpers unerringly find the mark. A transfer student, Jamerson was not eligible the first time around.

Westminster, normally a hot shooting club, hit 19 of 60 for 32 per cent against the sticky Central zone. And a second shot for the Pennsylvania cagers was almost unheard of.

The Marauders, NAIA champions in 1965, tied up the game at 2-2, then steadily moved to their easiest victory of the tourney.

Tops for Central was 6-8 Chris Buchanan with 21 points.

Fight Results

LOS ANGELES — Lavelle Franklin, 135, San Francisco, knocked out Jimmy Fields, 134, Los Angeles, at 1:30 of the second round, retaining his California state lightweight championship.

Houston Rolls But TCU, Santa Clara Produce Upsets

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Ohio State Wins, Faces Kentucky

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

A couple of upstarts, Texas Christian and Santa Clara, startled college basketball circles Friday night.

The Horned Frogs of TCU upset Kansas State 77-72 and the Broncos bowled over the New Mexico Lobos, 86-73 in second-round play in the NCAA tournament.

Their surprising triumphs overshadowed Houston's 91-75 rout of Louisville, UCLA's 58-49 conquest of New Mexico State and North Carolina's 91-72 defeat of previously unbeaten St. Bonaventure.

Davidson edged Columbia 61-59 in overtime, Ohio State beat East Tennessee 79-72 and Kentucky routed Marquette 107-89 as the NCAA field was cut to eight survivors.

The results set up these pairings for tonight's quarter-finals at four regional sites:

At Raleigh, N.C.—Davidson, 24-4, vs. North Carolina, 26-3.

At Lexington, Ky.—Ohio State, 19-7, vs. Kentucky, 22-4.

At Wichita, Kan.—Houston, 30-0, vs. Texas Christian, 15-10.

At Albuquerque, N.M.—UCLA, 26-1, vs. Santa Clara, 22-3.

In other tourney play Friday, Kansas downed Temple 82-76 and Villanova whacked Wyoming 77-66 in first-round games of the National Invitation Tournament in New York.

Kentucky Wesleyan defeated Indiana State 63-52 in the championship final of the NCAA College Division tourney at Evansville, Ind. Central State of Ohio whipped Westminster, Pa. 72-51 and Fairmont, W. Va., edged Oshkosh, Wis. State 76-74 in the semifinals of the NAIA at Kansas City.

"We'll need five Lew Alcindors to beat Houston," said Johnny Swaim, Texas Christian coach, after TCU's upset over Kansas State. The Horned Frogs wiped out a 13-point deficit and went ahead for good on Mickey McCarty's layup with 90 seconds left.

Swaim referred to UCLA's towering 7-foot-1 Alcindor who paced the Bruins over New Mexico State with 28 points. He obviously was thinking of a way to stop Elvin Hayes, the Big E of Houston's unbeaten and top-ranked Cougars.

The 6-9 Hayes, voted Player of The Year in The Associated Press poll, turned in one of his greatest games as the Cougars thumped Louisville for their 31st in a row, 30-0 this season.

Hayes pumped in 35 points and had the better of his duel with fellow All-American Westley Unseld of Louisville. The Big E got his points on 16 field goals and three fouls. Unseld finished with 23 points. Hayes grabbed 24 rebounds to Unseld's 22.

A fantastic 25-3 spurt in the first half that turned a 12-8 deficit into a 33-15 Houston advantage put an end to Louisville's 12-game winning streak. Don Chaney's many steals "tore us apart," as Louisville coach John Dromo put it.

Santa Clara, with a more respectable record than TCU but unranked nationally like the Horned Frogs, opened a 20-point lead over New Mexico. The Lobos, though playing on their home court, never caught up. Bud Ogden, with 22 points, led Santa Clara, which hit on 11 of its first 14 shots.

Larry Miller's 27 points paced North Carolina over St. Bonaventure. The Bonnies had won 25 in a row, 23 this season. Davidson beat Columbia on Wayne Huckel's two foul shots that put the Wildcats ahead for good with two minutes left in overtime.

Columbia had a chance to win in the last two seconds of regulation time with the score tied 55-55, but Bruce Metz missed a free throw.

Dan Issel's 36 points sparked Kentucky over Marquette. Steve Howell got 22 and led Ohio State over East Tennessee.

Same Teams Met Last Year

Charleston Favored Over Beckley For 'AAA' Crown

By ED RICE

CHARLESTON (AP) — Fans at tonight's Beckley-Charleston state high school championship basketball game might get the feeling they've been there before.

Both teams met for the title at Morgantown in last year's tournament.

Beckley's Flying Eagles came out on top in that one, upsetting the Mountain Lions 75-69. And, this year as last, the Eagles are considered underdogs.

The Beckley-Charleston Triple-A clash will cap today's playoff action. Ceredo - Kenova was scheduled to play unbeaten Charles Town in the Double-A finals at 1 p.m. and Barrackville will face Marlinton for the Class-A championship at 3 p.m.

Wayne Duncan, coach of Martinsburg which lost 70-87 to the Flying Eagles in the semifinals Friday night, flatly predicts the Mountain Lions will redeem themselves and avenge last year's disappointment.

After watching Charleston rout Wheeling and Becklye whip his team, Duncan concluded, "Chareston has too much of everything for them. Beckley's got a good team. They beat us. But Charleston will take 'em."

Larry Harris led the Mountain Lions against Wheeling. The 6-foot-5 center matched teammate Curtis Price's game-high 28 points and snared 33 rebounds. Harris' rebound total broke the tournament record of 28 set by Price in the semifinals against Wellsburg last year.

D. J. Jebbia experienced early difficulties but found the range to top Wheeling with 26 points.

Beckley hot shot Steve Lickliter pumped in the highest point total in the tournament so far in the Eagles' victory over Martinsburg. Lickliter got going in the third quarter after scoring only eight the first half and finished with 35. His third period output was 15.

With team captain John Wootton and center Henry Dickerson controlling the boards, the Flying Eagles demolished Martinsburg in the second half. "We just ran out of steam and they beat us," observed coach Duncan. "We're used to a smaller gym," he added.

Gary Stillwell pumped in 23 points for Martinsburg.

Smooth - playing Marlinton trounced Fort Ashby 86-52 and balanced Barrackville zapped Harts 78-59 to set the stage for the Single-A championship game this afternoon.

Jo Jo Borden's quick-release jumper resulted in 25 points for Barrackville. Ron Martin popped for 18.

Harts' hustling Jerry Thompson led his team with 19 points.

Marlinton's raw - boned five displayed agility, strength and stamina in disposing of Fort Ashby. Ivan Withers tallied 26 points to pace the Copperheads, while the other four starters hit in double figures also.

Ralph Weaver came on in a substitute role to lead Fort Ashby with 12 points.

Class-AA finalists Charles Town and Ceredo - Kenova advanced to the championships on victories Thursday over Mullens and St. Marys.

Charles Town upset Mullens 56-54 and Ceredo - Kenova dumped St. Marys 59-47 Thursday to advance to the Class-AA finals.

Nicklaus On Top, Arnie Out In Citrus Tourney

By RON SPEER

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus is out in front. Arnold Palmer simply is out. Period.

"I can't recall when I shot that bad," Palmer said after taking a disastrous 76 Friday and failing to qualify for the final 36 holes of the Florida Citrus Open Golf Tournament. He had a front nine 41 and missed the cut by two strokes.

Nicklaus, meanwhile, claimed a two-stroke lead going into today's third round. He fired a four-under-par 68 Friday for 135. Bob Charles, a New Zealand lefty, was second with a 69 for 137.

Miller Barber, who shot a second-round 71; Don Massengale with a 70, and Dan Sikes with a 67 were deadlocked at 138, one stroke in front of Australians Bruce Crampton and Bruce Devlin.

Defending champion Julius Boros was back in the pack at 143, despite a 70 in the second round. South African Gary Player was in better shape after shooting a 68 for a 140.

Nicklaus, however, appeared set to pick up his first winner's check ever for a tour victory in Florida.

"I've finished second in all the Florida tournaments, but I've never won one," Nicklaus said. "I've got an opportunity to take care of that this week."

But he was worried about his driving.

"I'm not driving well at all," he said. "I'm either going to fix this driver during the night or I'll have a different one Saturday."

Nicklaus, playing near-perfect iron shots, said that despite his wildness off the tee he had "the ball around the hole all day. I can't remember when I had more chances for putts."

Luther Adkins Bags 10 Straight

Luther Adkins hit 10 straight to win the 25-yard high gun competition during the Wednesday night shoot of the Columbiana County Fish and Game Protective Association.

Alfred and Harold Cochran scored two wins in the regular protector shoot. With one win were Bob and Larry Cochran, Bob and George Cochran, Larry and Jim Cochran and Ray Thompson and Alfred Cochran.

Chalking up one victory each in the three-man protector shoot were Earl Burlingame, George Hercules and Dave Parr and Alfred and Harold Cochran and Ray Thompson.

Red bird winners were Clayton, Cliff, Everett, Ron and Dick Cochran and Ken Alfred.

Jerry Cochran captured the Annie Oakley shoot over 23 other aspirants.

Del Insko led harness drivers at Yonkers Raceway during 1967 with 127 winners. He had 772 starts in 152 nights.

East, Newark Get Top Billing In Regionals

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The long and rugged tournament trail leading to the state high school basketball championships has become a crowded footpath, as 16 teams vie tonight for eight coveted spots in the finals.

Regional finals are on tap at eight locations, with Class AA favorite Columbus East 21-0 getting top billing, pitted against Newark, 22-1 at the Fairgrounds Coliseum here.

In Friday night's Class A regional semifinals, undefeated Western of Pike County (25-0) got a scare from West Muskingum (18-4) before the Indians went on the warpath late in the game to clinch an 81-76 victory at Athens.

Western, down 18-17 at the end of the first period, moved out to a 41-33 lead at halftime and hung on after intermission for the triumph.

Western's Wray Jordon paced all scorers with 24 points.

The Indians will meet Portsmouth Clay (24-2), another Friday night winner at Athens, for the regional title tonight.

Clay's Panthers shot a nifty 59 per cent from the field as they forged past Granville 82-71. Paul Kaut paved the way with 22 points.

In other AA competition, Toledo Central (23-1) rolled past Lorain Admiral King 58-49 and meets Lima Senior (20-3) at Bowling Green tonight.

Ted Murnen scored half of his 22 points in the third quarter in leading Central to victory. Lima moved into the finals with an 89-76 triumph over Cleveland John Adams.

Adams, despite a 28-point output from Doug Rian, watched Lima scramble to a 43-30 halftime advantage. Paul Howard got 25 points for Lima.

Hamilton Garfield (21-3) will meet Cincinnati Elder (23-1) tonight to decide the Class AA Cincinnati regional.

Elder held Dayton Roth to only four points in the final period Friday night to score a 68-63 comeback victory in the semifinals.

Garfield had an easier time of it, jumping out to a 23-8 lead at the end of the first period with Northwestern never coming closer than 10 points. Willie Townsend of Garfield led all shooters with 26 points, as his team won 78-65.

The other regional AA final finds Euclid (21-2) facing Canton McKinley (19-5) at Kent.

In AA play, Mansfield St. Peter (23-3) meets Kalida (17-6) at Kent, the only afternoon game on tap; Garaway (20-3) meets Springfield Local (22-2) at Canton and Cincinnati Lincoln (13-10) battles rugged Dixie (22-2) at Troy.

Eddie Tired Of 'Hitless Wonders'

Stanky Will Play 'Batmen', But Big Plus Is Pitching

By JACK HAND

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — If Eddie Stanky's plans work out, they won't be calling his Chicago White Sox the hitless wonders this season.

"I'm going to play my best eight hitters, regardless of defense," said Stanky. "I'm tired of all those squeakers. I'm for bats."

Stanky's party platform may be tough to carry out. The White Sox have added the .300-plus bat of Tommy Davis and hope to get extra mileage out of veterans like Ken Boyer and Rocky Colavito. But the big plus still is the pitching staff.

Eddie expects improvement on last season's .225 team batting average, ninth in the league. Chicago was first in pitching, second in double plays but ninth in home runs with only 89.

If the Sox are to win the pennant it will be up to the formidable pitching of Gary Peters, Joe Horlen and Tommy John, plus a magnificant bullpen.

Horlen is coming off a 19-7 year, and a 2.06 earned run average that led the league. Peters was 16-11 but John slipped to 10-13. Jack Fisher, a veteran with a 9-18 record with the New York Mets, figures to be the fourth starter, taking over the spot vacated when Bruce Howard was traded to Baltimore.

In addition to scheduling nine regular season games in Milwaukee for this summer, the White Sox front office was busy swapping players during the off season.

Don Buford, Roger Nelson and Howard went to Baltimore, Tommie Agee, J.C. Martin and Al Weis to the Mets and Ron Hansen, Dennis Higgins and Steve Jones to Washington.

Luis Aparaicio is back for another turn at Comiskey Park after five years in Baltimore and he brings with him Russ Snyder. Tommy Davis and a couple of kids, catcher Dick Booer and pitcher Billy Wynne are the new arrivals from the Mets. Second baseman Tim Cullen and pitchers Buster Narum and Bob Priddy have moved over from Washington.

Stanky's pitching staff also has Fred Klages (6-9 at Indianapolis) or Cisco Carlos (11-8 at Indianapolis), both of whom were impressive in trials at Chicago.

Hoyt Wilhelm still is the master of the bullpen at 44 and is coming off his best year, 8-3 with a 1.31 earned run average. Bob Locker, 7-5, Don McMahon, 6-2 with Boston and Chicago and Wilbur Wood, 4-2, a left-handed knuckler to go with Wilhelm's right-handed dipsy doodles, form the best relief corps in the league. Priddy, 3-7 at Washington, might crack the list.

Outside of Aparicio at shortstop, Stanky's infield is unsettled.

"We have Tommy McCraw at first base," said Stanky. "But I'm also working Boyer, Pete Ward and Davis there. I know Cullen can play second but I am looking at a kid, Dick Littleton (.262 at Evansville). At third we have Boyer and Ward. We also will see Ward in the outfield.

Davis undoubtedly will hold down one regular outfield job and Ken Berry and Russ Snyder will fight it out for center. In additon to Colavito, Stanky will try Ward in the outfield and Charley Bradford who hit .271 at Indianapolis.

Duane Josephson, handicapped by injuries during a .238 rookie season, probably will wind up as No. 1 catcher.

Stanky is going for the man but he knows he will sink or swim with his pitching. It is good enough to make the White Sox a strong pennant factor in a well-balanced league.

Indians Win Another By 1-Run Margin

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—It took 14 innings and 52 players, but the "one run" Indians took a 4-3 Cactus League victory over Chicago Friday, thanks to a Cubs' miscue.

Cleveland's spring training record now is 4-3 and each win has been by one run.

The Tribe had a 3-1 lead against the Cubs in the eighth inning, but Chicago came back to tie it against Eddie Fisher in the ninth.

With the game getting close to four hours, Vic Davalillo opened the bottom of the 14th with a double and moved up on a sacrifice. Tommy Harper was intentionally passed.

Joe Cardenal then grounded to third baseman Ron Santo, but Davalillo stayed on third instead of breaking for the plate to stop the double play.

Santo fired to second, forcing Harper. Rookie infielder Jim Armstrong made the mistake of not relaying the throw to first. Davalillo broke for home and Armstrong tried to get him at the plate, but Davalillo slid in safely.

Indians rookie Ron Constantino got the victory and Manager Alvin Dark said the young righthander looked good and "I want to see him again."

Tony Horton drove in Harper in the first and Chico Salmon's single scored Leon Wagner in the eighth. Dave Nelson then singled home Salmon to make it 3-1.

Jumper Beamon, Ryun Feature Indoor Meet

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT (AP) — The indoor track season ends today — too soon for Bob Beamon, world's best long jumper on the boards, and not soon enough for Jim Ryun, the best miler and halfmiler on any kind of track.

"Just 11 more laps today and this indoor season ends for me, and I can't wait until it's over," said a slightly lame Ryun, Kansas' super runner who defends his mile title today in the closing session of the NCAA indoor meet at Cobo Arena.

Friday night, Ryun uncorked a typical explosive finish in his best two-mile ever to dethrone two-time champion Gerry Lindgren. But Beamon, the Texas-El Paso sophomore, did even better with a sensational 27-2¾ long jump and became the first double winner in NCAA indoor history by adding the triple jump title.

Beamon, whose double came on a tiring back-to-back effort, and Villanova's quarter-miler Larry James, also a sophomore, accounted for two all-time best indoor performances in the seven-event program.

James, whizzing to a victory in the 440 in 47 seconds, and Dave Patrick, retaining his 880 crown, paced Villanova's bid to dethrone Southern California as team champion.

Villanova carried a 16-point total into today's closing 10-event program, closely followed by Texas El-Paso with 15.

Washington State was third with 10 and talent-loaded Southern California lagged fourth with 7.

USC sends defending champions Earl McCullouch and Bob Seagren after the 60-yard high hurdles and pole vault titles, backed by another 17-foot vaulter in Paul Wilson and famed footballer O.J. Simpson in the 60-yard dash.

Beamon, who broke his own indoor long jump mark of 27-1, was surprised by his stunning 27-2¾ leap, which was followed by an electrifying 27-7¼ jump on which he barely fouled on the takeoff board.

Ryun talked like a mighty tired young man after running Lindgren and Australia's Kerry Pearce into the boards with a modest 8:38.9 clocking.

"I'm having trouble with bad tendons and arches, which hurt my feet, and I took a cortisone shot in my left ankle two weeks ago," said Ryun.

New Orleans Moves Close To West Title

By The Associated Press

Dallas made up ground by standing still, but it may be too little too late.

The Chaparrals were idle Friday and started the day in third place in the American Basketball Association's Western Division. But when Denver was beaten by Minnesota 106-95, the Rockets slipped into third place, boosting Dallas into second.

The problem is that New Orleans, first in the division, also won Friday, beating Houston 108-99 and now the Bucs' magic number to clinch the title is only three.

In other ABA games Friday, Kentucky beat Indiana 108-96. Anaheim edged Oakland 116-113.

Les Hunter scored 32 points, leading Minnesota past Denver, and Mel Daniels and Gary Keller both added 21. Larry Jones had 28 for the Rockets.

Jimmy Jones' 32 points sparked New Orleans to its important triumph. Doug Moe had 25 for the Bucs while Art Becker led Houston with 24.

Kentucky outscored Indiana 18-5 in the final portion of the last quarter to outdistance the Pacers. Darel Carrier of the Colonels led all scorers with 32 points.

Anaheim handed Oakland its 12th straight defeat despite 27 points by the losers' Jim Hadnot.

Greene And Killy Eyeing Titles In Rock Cup Skiing

By FRANK PITMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

ASPEN, Colo. (AP) — Slalom racing opened the way for downhill winner Nancy Greene of Canada to extend her dominance today and offered a comeback chance for France's Jean-Claude Killy in the Roch Cup ski competition.

Miss Greene, Olympic giant slalom champion, drew the No. 1 starting position in the first of two runs down Ajax Mountain. She will start No. 15 in the second heat. She won Friday's downhill by a wide margin over Austria's Olga Pall, the Olympic downhill champion.

Killy, triple gold medal winner in last month's Olympics, drew the same starting assignments in the men's race.

The French star, third in Friday's downhill won by Austria's Gerhard Nenning, said he felt his No. 12 starting position hurt his chances on the course, softened by overnight snowfall. Heini Messner of Austria was second.

Ciocco's 1,923 Takes All-Events Top Spot In ABC

CINCINNATI (AP) — After 12 frustrating performances in the American Bowling Congress tourney, Tony Ciocco turned out by far his best effort Friday, taking the all-events lead with 1,923.

Although he is a 200-plus average bowler, the chunky Kalamazoo, Mich., man had never cracked 1,800 in a dozen ABC's.

Ciocco started off strong with a 648 in the team event Thursday and 648 in doubles Friday. He slipped to 627 in singles Friday but still passed Ray Redmer of Lincoln Park, Mich., who had led all-events for three days with his 1,911.

One of the nation's top teams Detroit Stroh's, opens action in the classic five-man division tonight.

OSU Will Raise Ticket Prices

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State University announced plans Thursday to raise some football and basketball ticket prices next fall in order to meet higher costs and to continue support of varsity sports programs without state aid.

An increase of $5 per quarter in student fees also was announced.

Ohio Stadium tickets for alumni and the public at individual games will be up $1 at $6 for reserved seats and $7 for boxes.

Unchanged will be student and faculty-staff football cards, which increased $2 last fall, and bleacher seats in the stadium.

The price schedule will include, however, new basketball season books for students ($8) and faculty - staff ($10) and a new procedure for obtaining individual basketball tickets at $1 per game for campus personnel.

The increases were the first in five years for stadium and reserved seats and bring OSU's reserved football seat ticket prices up to the $6 level charged by the majority of other Big Ten universities.

Dukes Picked West Virginia Is Underdog

NEW YORK (AP)—Duquesne hasn't played West Virginia in basketball for 25 years but they'll meet Tuesday if both win their opening games tonight in the National Invitation Tournament.

The Dukes play Fordham and WVU takes on Dayton in a doubleheader that wraps up the first round of the 16-team tourney. Duquesne is favored but West Virginia isn't.

Coach Red Manning takes the Dukes, 18-6, to their 12th NIT, a number of appearances exceeded only by St. John's and Bradley with 13 and 13, respectively.

Duquesne, 18-6, has beaten Fordham in seven of eight previous games but they haven't met since 1961. The Rams, coached by Johnny Bach—who'll take over as Penn State coach next year—have an 18-7 record and four-game winning streak.

Included in Fordham's victims was Boston College, which ran up a record score against the Dukes in a 104-88 victory Feb. 28. Duquesne lost two straight before winning its final game 109-103 at St. Francis.

Manning will go with Duquesne's regular lineup of Ron Guziak, who set a school mark of 50 points against St. Francis, Gary Major, Billy Zopf, Phil Washington and Moe Barr.

Bill Langheld, a 6-3 forward, leads the Rams with a 17-point average while Bob Kellert has a 13.1 mark and Frank McLaughlin 13.0.

Walker, Blass Combine For 8-1 Pirate Victory

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—It was just a friendly exhibition game with the New York Mets. But at the end, it was the most encouraging game of the young spring for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Luke Walker, a lefthander determined to stick, and Steve Blass, a righthander fighting off a bad habit, put the Mets down impressively Friday as the Pirates won their third exhibition in seven games 8-1.

Walker pitched the first four innings and Blass the final three. Bob Moose worked two in-between and gave up the New York run, though he didn't allow a hit.

Blass is Larry Shepard's pet project. The new manager has been working with him to correct Blass' habit of falling off balance to the left of the mound after throwing.

In his appearances this spring, Blass appears to have developed a compact motion and this could go a long way toward making him a winning pitcher. Last year he was 6-8.

"I didn't fall off the mound when I first pitched in the minors," Blass said. "Somehow I got into the habit about three years ago and then I became all mixed up."

5,426 Fans Turn Out For Ascot's Opening

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A crowd of 5,426 turned out for the opening day at Ascot Park Friday and bet a total of $345,744.

Butnotleast won the second race and the daily double combination of numbers 6 and 3 paid $217.40.

Berenson's Goal Wins For Blues

By The Associated Press

When Red Berenson left New York and joined St. Louis after a National Hockey League trade last November, he had managed two goals in two seasons with the Rangers.

With the expansionist Blues he's had 20 and has played a major role in St. Louis' bid for a West Division playoff spot.

His goal Friday night was the only one the Blues managed but it got them a 1-1 standoff with Oakland and a two-point edge on fourth-place Minnesota in the West race. The Blues lead fifth-place Pittsburgh by seven points.

Ron Harris notched Oakland's goal in the second period after Berenson hit in the first 20 minutes.

Semiz Gets No. 1 Ranking In PBA Finals Today

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Teata Semiz of River Edge, N.J., defeated Nelson Burton Jr. of St. Louis, 248-217, in the position-round game Friday night to earn the No. 1 ranking for today's finals of the Professional Bowlers Association's $45,000 Greater Buffalo Open.

Young Bobby McMillin of College Point, N.Y., gained the fifth spot for the nationally televised finals.

Manager Is Selected For No. 16 'Tigers'

HIGHLANDTOWN — The No. 16 Tigers team will be managed by Bill Francis, it was announced at a meeting of the Highlandtown Junior League Thursday night in the fire hall.

During business conducted by Ronnie Taggart, president, a bake sale was planned for April 13 at Curry's service station beginning at 9:30 a.m. Twenty parents were present. The next meeting will be April 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the hall.

Athens High School Grid Stadium Sold

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — The Athens School Board has sold its high school football stadium and field, covering about five acres in the downtown area, to the city of Athens for $330,000.

Athens Mayor Raymond Shepard said part of the land will be used for parking and recreational facilities.

The downtown site was sold because of the construction of a new athletic field at the new high school, now being built.

Eddie Tired Of 'Hitless Wonders'

Stanky Will Play 'Batmen', But Big Plus Is Pitching

By JACK HAND

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — If Eddie Stanky's plans work out, they won't be calling his Chicago White Sox the hitless wonders this season.

"I'm going to play my best eight hitters, regardless of defense," said Stanky. "I'm tired of all those squeakers. I'm for bats."

Stanky's party platform may be tough to carry out. The White Sox have added the .300-plus bat of Tommy Davis and hope to get extra mileage out of veterans like Ken Boyer and Rocky Colavito. But the big plus still is the pitching staff.

Eddie expects improvement on last season's .225 team batting average, ninth in the league. Chicago was first in pitching, second in double plays but ninth in home runs with only 89.

If the Sox are to win the pennant it will be up to the formidable pitching of Gary Peters, Joe Horlen and Tommy John, plus a magnificant bullpen.

Horlen is coming off a 19-7 year, and a 2.06 earned run average that led the league. Peters was 16-11 but John slipped to 10-13. Jack Fisher, a veteran with a 9-18 record with the New York Mets, figures to be the fourth starter, taking over the spot vacated when Bruce Howard was traded to Baltimore.

In addition to scheduling nine regular season games in Milwaukee for this summer, the White Sox front office was busy swapping players during the off season.

Don Buford, Roger Nelson and Howard went to Baltimore, Tommie Agee, J.C. Martin and Al Weis to the Mets and Ron Hansen, Dennis Higgins and Steve Jones to Washington.

Luis Aparaicio is back for another turn at Comiskey Park after five years in Baltimore and he brings with him Russ Snyder. Tommy Davis and a couple of kids, catcher Dick Booer and pitcher Billy Wynne are the new arrivals from the Mets. Second baseman Tim Cullen and pitchers Buster Narum and Bob Priddy have moved over from Washington.

Stanky's pitching staff also has Fred Klages (6-9 at Indianapolis) or Cisco Carlos (11-8 at Indianapolis), both of whom were impressive in trials at Chicago.

Hoyt Wilhelm still is the master of the bullpen at 44 and is coming off his best year, 8-3 with a 1.31 earned run average. Bob Locker, 7-5, Don McMahon, 6-2 with Boston and Chicago and Wilbur Wood, 4-2, a left-handed knuckler to go with Wilhelm's right-handed dipsy doodles, form the best relief corps in the league. Priddy, 3-7 at Washington, might crack the list.

Outside of Aparicio at shortstop, Stanky's infield is unsettled.

"We have Tommy McCraw at first base," said Stanky. "But I'm also working Boyer, Pete Ward and Davis there. I know Cullen can play second but I am looking at a kid, Dick Littleton (.262 at Evansville). At third we have Boyer and Ward. We also will see Ward in the outfield.

Davis undoubtedly will hold down one regular outfield job and Ken Berry and Russ Snyder will fight it out for center. In additon to Colavito, Stanky will try Ward in the outfield and Charley Bradford who hit .271 at Indianapolis.

Duane Josephson, handicapped by injuries during a .238 rookie season, probably will wind up as No. 1 catcher.

Stanky is going for the man but he knows he will sink or swim with his pitching. It is good enough to make the White Sox a strong pennant factor in a well-balanced league.

Jumper Beamon, Ryun Feature Indoor Meet

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT (AP) — The indoor track season ends today — too soon for Bob Beamon, world's best long jumper on the boards, and not soon enough for Jim Ryun, the best miler and half-miler on any kind of track.

"Just 11 more laps today and this indoor season ends for me, and I can't wait until it's over," said a slightly lame Ryun, Kansas' super runner who defends his mile title today in the closing session of the NCAA indoor meet at Cobo Arena.

Friday night, Ryun uncorked a typical explosive finish in his best two-mile ever to dethrone two-time champion Gerry Lindgren. But Beamon, the Texas-El Paso sophomore, did even better with a sensational 27-2¾ long jump and became the first double winner in NCAA indoor history by adding the triple jump title.

Beamon, whose double came on a tiring back-to-back effort, and Villanova's quarter-miler Larry James, also a sophomore, accounted for two all-time best indoor performances in the seven-event program.

James, whizzing to a victory in the 440 in 47 seconds, and Dave Patrick, retaining his 880 crown, paced Villanova's bid to dethrone Southern California as team champion.

Villanova carried a 16-point total into today's closing 10-event program, closely followed by Texas El-Paso with 15.

Washington State was third with 10 and talent-loaded Southern California lagged fourth with 7.

USC sends defending champions Earl McCullouch and Bob Seagren after the 60-yard high hurdles and pole vault titles, backed by another 17-foot vaulter in Paul Wilson and famed footballer O.J. Simpson in the 60-yard dash.

Beamon, who broke his own indoor long jump mark of 27-1, was surprised by his stunning 27-2¾ leap, which was followed by an electrifying 27-7¼ jump on which he barely fouled on the takeoff board.

Ryun talked like a mighty tired young man after running Lindgren and Australia's Kerry Pearce into the boards with a modest 8:38.9 clocking.

"I'm having trouble with bad tendons and arches, which hurt my feet, and I took a cortisone shot in my left ankle two weeks ago," said Ryun.

Dukes Picked West Virginia Is Underdog

NEW YORK (AP)—Duquesne hasn't played West Virginia in basketball for 25 years but they'll meet Tuesday if both win their opening games tonight in the National Invitation Tournament.

The Dukes play Fordham and WVU takes on Dayton in a doubleheader that wraps up the first round of the 16-team tourney. Duquesne is favored but West Virginia isn't.

Coach Red Manning takes the Dukes, 18-6, to their 12th NIT, a number of appearances exceeded only by St. John's and Bradley with 13 and 13, respectively.

Duquesne, 18-6, has beaten Fordham in seven of eight previous games but they haven't met since 1961. The Rams, coached by Johnny Bach—who'll take over as Penn State coach next year—have an 18-7 record and four-game winning streak.

Included in Fordham's victims was Boston College, which ran up a record score against the Dukes in a 104-88 victory Feb. 28. Duquesne lost two straight before winning its final game 109-103 at St. Francis.

Manning will go with Duquesne's regular lineup of Ron Guziak, who set a school mark of 50 points against St. Francis, Gary Major, Billy Zopf, Phil Washington and Moe Barr.

Bill Langheld, a 6-3 forward, leads the Rams with a 17-point average while Bob Kellert has a 13.1 mark and Frank McLaughlin 13.0.

Ron Williams leads West Virginia in its first NIT appearance in more than 20 years. The Mountaineers face a decided height advantage against Dayton, runner-up to UCLA for last year's NCAA championship.

Walker, Blass Combine For 8-1 Pirate Victory

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —It was just a friendly exhibition game with the New York Mets. But at the end, it was the most encouraging game of the young spring for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Luke Walker, a lefthander determined to stick, and Steve Blass, a righthander fighting off a bad habit, put the Mets down impressively Friday as the Pirates won their third exhibition in seven games 8-1.

Walker pitched the first four innings and Blass the final three. Bob Moose worked two in-between and gave up the New York run, though he didn't allow a hit.

Blass is Larry Shepard's pet project. The new manager has been working with him to correct Blass' habit of falling off balance to the left of the mound after throwing.

In his appearances this spring, Blass appears to have developed a compact motion and this could go a long way toward making him a winning pitcher. Last year he was 6-8.

"I didn't fall off the mound when I first pitched in the minors," Blass said. "Somehow I got into the habit about three years ago and then I became all mixed up."

New Orleans Moves Close To West Title

By The Associated Press

Dallas made up ground by standing still, but it may be too little too late.

The Chaparrals were idle Friday and started the day in third place in the American Basketball Association's Western Division. But when Denver was beaten by Minnesota 106-95, the Rockets slipped into third place, boosting Dallas into second.

The problem is that New Orleans, first in the division, also won Friday, beating Houston 108-99 and now the Bucs' magic number to clinch the title is only three.

In other ABA games Friday, Kentucky beat Indiana 108-96. Anaheim edged Oakland 116-113.

Les Hunter scored 32 points, leading Minnesota past Denver, and Mel Daniels and Gary Keller both added 21. Larry Jones had 28 for the Rockets.

Jimmy Jones' 32 points sparked New Orleans to its important triumph. Doug Moe had 25 for the Bucs while Art Becker led Houston with 24.

Kentucky outscored Indiana 18-5 in the final portion of the last quarter to outdistance the Pacers. Darel Carrier of the Colonels led all scorers with 32 points.

Anaheim handed Oakland its 12th straight defeat despite 27 points by the losers' Jim Hadnot.

Berenson's Goal Wins For Blues

By The Associated Press

When Red Berenson left New York and joined St. Louis after a National Hockey League trade last November, he had managed two goals in two seasons with the Rangers.

With the expansionist Blues he's had 20 and has played a major role in St. Louis' bid for a West Division playoff spot.

His goal Friday night was the only one the Blues managed but it got them a 1-1 standoff with Oakland and a two-point edge on fourth-place Minnesota in the West race. The Blues lead fifth-place Pittsburgh by seven points.

Ron Harris notched Oakland's goal in the second period after Berenson hit in the first 20 minutes.

Semiz Gets No. 1 Ranking In PBA Finals Today

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Teata Semiz of River Edge, N.J., defeated Nelson Burton Jr. of St. Louis, 246-217, in the position-round game Friday night to earn the No. 1 ranking for today's finals of the Professional Bowlers Association's $45,000 Greater Buffalo Open.

Semiz, who has never won a PBA title, won the decisive game after a nip-and-tuck battle with Burton, the defending champion, in action earlier Friday night.

Meanwhile, Bob Strampe of Detroit finished third at the end of match play, although losing to fourth-place Therm Davis of Chicago, 211-203 in the final game.

Young Bobby McMillin of College Point, N.Y., gained the fifth spot for the nationally televised finals.

Indians Win Another By 1-Run Margin

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—It took 14 innings and 52 players, but the "one run" Indians took a 4-3 Cactus League victory over Chicago Friday, thanks to a Cubs' miscue.

Cleveland's spring training record now is 4-3 and each win has been by one run.

The Tribe had a 3-1 lead against the Cubs in the eighth inning, but Chicago came back to tie it against Eddie Fisher in the ninth.

With the game getting close to four hours, Vic Davalillo opened the bottom of the 14th with a double and moved up on a sacrifice. Tommy Harper was intentionally passed.

Joe Cardenal then grounded to third baseman Ron Santo, but Davalillo stayed on third instead of breaking for the plate to stop the double play.

Santo fired to second, forcing Harper. Rookie infielder Jim Armstrong made the mistake of not relaying the throw to first. Davalillo broke for home and Armstrong tried to get him at the plate, but Davalillo slid in safely.

Indians rookie Ron Constantino got the victory and Manager Alvin Dark said the young righthander looked good and "I want to see him again."

Tony Horton drove in Harper in the first and Chico Salmon's single scored Leon Wagner in the eighth. Dave Nelson then singled home Salmon to make it 3-1.

Greene And Killy Eyeing Titles In Rock Cup Skiing

By FRANK PITMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

ASPEN, Colo. (AP) — Slalom racing opened the way for downhill winner Nancy Greene of Canada to extend her dominance today and offered a comeback chance for France's Jean-Claude Killy in the Roch Cup ski competition.

Miss Greene, Olympic giant slalom champion, drew the No. 1 starting position in the first of two runs down Ajax Mountain. She will start No. 15 in the second heat. She won Friday's downhill by a wide margin over Austria's Olga Pall, the Olympic downhill champion.

Killy, triple gold medal winner in last month's Olympics, drew the same starting assignments in the men's race.

The French star, third in Friday's downhill won by Austria's Gerhard Nenning, said he felt his No. 12 starting position hurt his chances on the course, softened by overnight snowfall. Heini Messner of Austria was second.

Ciocco's 1,923 Takes All-Events Top Spot In ABC

CINCINNATI (AP) — After 12 frustrating performances in the American Bowling Congress tourney, Tony Ciocco turned out by far his best effort Friday, taking the all-events lead with 1,923.

Although he is a 200-plus average bowler, the chunky Kalamazoo, Mich., man had never cracked 1,800 in a dozen ABC's.

Ciocco started off strong with a 648 in the team event Thursday and 648 in doubles Friday. He slipped to 627 in singles Friday but still passed Ray Redmer of Lincoln Park, Mich., who had led all-events for three days with his 1,911.

One of the nation's top teams Detroit Stroh's, opens action in the classic five-man division tonight.

OSU Will Raise Ticket Prices

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State University announced plans Thursday to raise some football and basketball ticket prices next fall in order to meet higher costs and to continue support of varsity sports programs without state aid.

An increase of $5 per quarter in student fees also was announced.

Ohio Stadium tickets for alumni and the public at individual games will be up $1 at $6 for reserved seats and $7 for boxes.

Unchanged will be student and faculty-staff football cards, which increased $2 last fall, and bleacher seats in the stadium.

The price schedule will include, however, new basketball season books for students ($8) and faculty - staff ($10) and a new procedure for obtaining individual basketball tickets at $1 per game for campus personnel.

The increases were the first in five years for stadium and reserved seats and bring OSU's reserved football seat ticket prices up to the $6 level charged by the majority of other Big Ten universities.

Double Exposure Set For St. Patrick's Day

By RAY KOHN
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—St. Patrick's day, because of the calendar, is getting double exposure this year from Dublin to Disneyland with Saturday-Sunday doings making it twice as much fun to be Irish.

Although St. Patrick's Day is not until Sunday, millions of Irish-Americans — together with Irish admirers—start their merrymaking today.

New York's weatherman promised sunny skies for wearers of the green as they march up Fifth Avenue more than 100,000 strong accompanied by 140 marching bands and skirling bagpipes.

Church dignitaries, including Archbishop-designate Terence J. Cooke, whose parents emigrated from County Galway, will view the colorful procession from the steps of St. Patrick's Cathedral.

In Baltimore, they're holding their big parade on the calendar day, Sunday, with the Ancient Order of Hibernians ready to step off in the afternoon with more than 50 bagpipe bands and other units.

At Columbus, Ohio, the annual big parade also takes place Sunday, including a good part of the city's fire department in the line of march.

In Boston, thousands of marchers, including city and state officials, and brass bands, military units will parade Sunday in South Boston, historically an Irish settlement.

In Chicago, the Civic Center Plaza fountain already is squirting green water, and Mayor Richard J. Daley is the proud recipient of 20 green bagels.

The Jersey City, N.J., parade Sunday will feature the lord mayor of New Ross, Ireland, Andrew Minihan.

Shamrock, Tex., always goes all-out on the big day, celebrating today as the population of 3,500 swells to some 35,000 persons for the festivities.

In Ireland, the big weekend starts on Sunday, with everybody taking Monday off.

Big parades and heavy sports schedules get the lion's share of attention, with a goodly attendance expected at the Irish Republic's more than 11,700 pubs.

California turns to the wearin'o' the green on Sunday, with the Irish Flag flying over Los Angeles' City Hall and Mickey-O'-Mouse leading a parade of clog dancers, leprechauns and others at Disneyland.

One suburban Los Angeles resident, Clyde Rainwatch, said he'll dye his white dog Casey emerald green in honor of the occasion.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

In loving Memory of Kenny Burns, Jr. who died March 16, 1967.

One year has passed since that sad day The one we loved was called away. The call was sudden, the shock severe, We little thought that death was near. Only those who have lost can tell, The pain of passing without farewell. While he sleeps, a peaceful sleep His memory we shall always keep. Friends may think we have forgotten when at times they see us smile. Little do they know the heart aches That the smiles hide all the while. God gave us strength to face it and courage to bear the blow, But what it meant to lose him, no one will ever know.

Sadly missed by Mother, Dad, Sister Saundra and Nephew Johnnie

In loving memory of our husband, father, and grandfather, William D. Tice, who passed away 1 year ago St. Patrick's Day, March 17, 1967. Deep in our hearts lies a picture, More precious than silver or gold. It's a picture of our dear husband, father and grandfather, Whose memory will never grow old. — Sadly missed by Wife, Children and Grandchildren.

Double Exposure Set For St. Patrick's Day

By RAY KOHN
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—St. Patrick's day, because of the calendar, is getting double exposure this year from Dublin to Disneyland with Saturday-Sunday doings making it twice as much fun to be Irish.

Although St. Patrick's Day is not until Sunday, millions of Irish-Americans — together with Irish admirers—start their merrymaking today.

New York's weatherman promised sunny skies for wearers of the green as they march up Fifth Avenue more than 100,000 strong accompanied by 140 marching bands and skirling bagpipes.

Church dignitaries, including Archbishop-designate Terence J. Cooke, whose parents emigrated from County Galway, will view the colorful procession from the steps of St. Patrick's Cathedral.

In Baltimore, they're holding their big parade on the calendar day, Sunday, with the Ancient Order of Hibernians ready to step off in the afternoon with more than 50 bagpipe bands and other units.

At Columbus, Ohio, the annual big parade also takes place Sunday, including a good part of the city's fire department in the line of march.

In Boston, thousands of marchers, including city and state officials, and brass bands, military units will parade Sunday in South Boston, historically an Irish settlement.

In Chicago, the Civic Center Plaza fountain already is squirting green water, and Mayor Richard J. Daley is the proud recipient of 20 green bagels.

The Jersey City, N.J., parade Sunday will feature the lord mayor of New Ross, Ireland, Andrew Minihan.

Shamrock, Tex., always goes all-out on the big day, celebrating today as the population of 3,500 swells to some 35,000 persons for the festivities.

In Ireland, the big weekend starts on Sunday, with everybody taking Monday off.

Big parades and heavy sports schedules get the lion's share of attention, with a goodly attendance expected at the Irish Republic's more than 11,700 pubs.

California turns to the wearin'o' the green on Sunday, with the Irish Flag flying over Los Angeles' City Hall and Mickey-O'-Mouse leading a parade of clog dancers, leprechauns and others at Disneyland.

One suburban Los Angeles resident, Clyde Rainwatch, said he'll dye his white dog Casey emerald green in honor of the occasion.

South Side Area News

GEORGETOWN — "Lent" was the theme when the Guild of Georgetown St. Luke's Episcopal Church met Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Robert Trimble.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

In loving Memory of Kenny Burns, Jr. who died March 16, 1967.

One year has passed since that sad day The one we loved was called away. The call was sudden, the shock severe, We little thought that death was near. Only those who have lost can tell, The pain of passing without farewell. While he sleeps, a peaceful sleep His memory we shall always keep. Friends may think we have forgotten when at times they see us smile. Little do they know the heart aches That the smiles hide all the while. God gave us strength to face it and courage to bear the blow, But what it meant to lose him, no one will ever know.

Sadly missed by Mother, Dad, Sister Saundra and Nephew Johnnie

In loving memory of our husband, father, and grandfather, William D. Tice, who passed away 1 year ago St. Patrick's Day, March 17, 1967. Deep in our hearts lies a picture, More precious than silver or gold. It's a picture of our dear husband, father and grandfather, Whose memory will never grow old. — Sadly missed by Wife, Children and Grandchildren.

WE SUGGEST!

BRICK SPLIT-LEVEL — Three large bedrooms, lighted sliding door closets, plastered, hardwood floors throughout, insulated, oil furnace, (very economical to heat), 24 foot living room, modern dining room, built in birch kitchen with oven and range, integral garage, laundry, and a provision for another semi-bath. This home is situated with an excellent view, and is among newer brick homes in a nice development. For just $17,900

POPE AVENUE — Real nice location close to the new schools, story and a half home, two bedrooms, enclosed front porch, newly finished basement with gas furnace, automatic water heater and outside entrance to the basement, single garage, fine view. $7,600

IDAHO AVE. — Four bedroom home, one bedroom on the first floor, also powder room on first floor, three good size bedrooms and bath on the second floor, full divided basement, gas furnace, attached garage, extra large level lot, well-located. Just $9,900

DAIRY-GROCERY — DOWNTOWN location, operating successfully for many years, very profitable for a couple, or can be easily handled by one person with one extra employee. Good reason for selling, and responsible person may see actual records. $4,700 includes stock and very good equipment.

Junior Editors Quiz on FRUITS

I'M A FAMOUS COLOR
I'M DIFF-ERENT!
– SO AM I!
coulton waugh

QUESTION: Are fruits named after colors or colors after fruits?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: The traditional colors, such as red, blue, etc. (exceptions are orange and violet) are not connected with the colors of fruits and flowers. If you just tell your friend, "Jane has a new green dress," she won't get much of a mental picture. But if you say, "Jane's dress is lime green," the picture is more plain. The color of a lime—a little greener than lemon—is quite definite. Special colors, including lime and grape, are definitely named after fruits. Orange is a regular color name and yet was undoubtedly connected with the fruit. Both names come from an old French word, auranja, which originated from aur or gold. So orange also came from the color of gold. Get some water colors or crayons and color the dresses in our picture orange, grape and lime as if you were a fashion artist (grape is a deep bluish purple.

Cindy Bieker of Earling, Iowa, wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's World Yearbook if your question, mailed to Junior Editors, in care of The Review, is selected for a prize.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Saturday, March 16, the 76th day of 1968. There are 290 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1935, Adolf Hitler broke the Versailles Treaty and re-established universal military training in Germany.

On this date:

In 1521, the Portuguese navigator, Ferdinand Magellan, reached the Philippines.

In 1751, the fourth U.S. president, James Madison, was born in Port Conway, Va.

In 1802, an act of Congress authorized the establishment of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y.

In 1942, it was disclosed that American troops had arrived in Australia.

In 1943, American bombers attacked Japanese installations in the Aleutians.

In 1945, Japanese resistance on Iwo Jima came to an end after one of the bloodiest battles of the Pacific war.

Ten years ago—In elected in Russia, 1,378 unopposed Communist party candidates were elected to the Supreme Soviet.

Five years ago — India protested to the United Nations against a provisional border agreement between Pakistan and Communist China.

One year ago — Communist gunners shelled a U.S. merchant ship near Saigon.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Saturday, March 16, the 76th day of 1968. There are 290 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1935, Adolf Hitler broke the Versailles Treaty and re-established universal military training in Germany.

On this date:

In 1521, the Portuguese navigator, Ferdinand Magellan, reached the Philippines.

In 1751, the fourth U.S. president, James Madison, was born in Port Conway, Va.

In 1802, an act of Congress authorized the establishment of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y.

In 1942, it was disclosed that American troops had arrived in Australia.

In 1943, American bombers attacked Japanese installations in the Aleutians.

In 1945, Japanese resistance on Iwo Jima came to an end after one of the bloodiest battles of the Pacific war.

Ten years ago—In elected in Russia, 1,378 unopposed Communist party candidates were elected to the Supreme Soviet.

Five years ago — India protested to the United Nations against a provisional border agreement between Pakistan and Communist China.

One year ago — Communist gunners shelled a U.S. merchant ship near Saigon.

Junior Editors Quiz on FRUITS

I'M A FAMOUS COLOR
I'M DIFF-ERENT!
- SO AM I!
COULTON WAUGH

QUESTION: Are fruits named after colors or colors after fruits?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: The traditional colors, such as red, blue, etc. (exceptions are orange and violet) are not connected with the colors of fruits and flowers. If you just tell your friend, "Jane has a new green dress," she won't get much of a mental picture. But if you say, "Jane's dress is lime green," the picture is more plain. The color of a lime—a little greener than lemon—is quite definite. Special colors, including lime and grape, are definitely named after fruits. Orange is a regular color name and yet was undoubtedly connected with the fruit. Both names come from an old French word, auranja, which originated from aur or gold. So orange also came from the color of gold. Get some water colors or crayons and color the dresses in our picture orange, grape and lime as if you were a fashion artist (grape is a deep bluish purple.

Charity Affair In New York

Princess, Lord Snowden Honored Guests At Ball

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Princess Margaret and her husband, Lord Snowdon, dined, danced and made merry Friday night along with some 400 New York socialites and theatrical personalities who gatheted to honor the royal couple and raise some money for charity.

The men almost outshined the women in the fashion department among the guests who danced to the music of Peter Duchin's orchestra, supped on salmon and steak and were entertained by a group of performers including Jack Cassidy and Shirley Jones, Dionne Warwick, Lisa Kirk and Tony Randall.

Actor Richard Harris, one of those performing, was in a red velvet jacket. Several men replaced dress shirts and black bow ties with turtlenecks and necklaces adorned with jeweled medallions. And actor George Grizzard stepped out on the dance floor in a blue uniform with red epaulettes which even he was hard put to describe.

"I guess you could say it's a uniform," he said. "Doug Fairbanks was staring at it. I think he thought he wore it in 'gunga din'."

Socialite Susan Stein, Grizzard's date, matched her escort's fine feathers by sporting a red, white and blue striped silk crepe formal and huge red, white and blue earrings by jewelry designer Kenneth Lane. "They're kind of like the shields of the African Masai warriors," said Miss Stein of the earrings.

Most of the women wore floor-length gowns. Only one miniskirt was spotted—the white organdy froth of pop art collector Ethel Skull.

Princess Margaret, in a long, white lace gown with jeweled collar, and Snowdon, in a midnight blue tuxedo and white turtleneck, arrived shortly after 9 p.m., posed briefly for photographers, then went in to greet the other guests and enjoy themselves until the wee hours of the morning.

The party, billed as "A Gala Evening of Musical Theater," was held in the Rainbow Room, atop the RCA Building overlooking midtown Manhattan.

The poet Milton, centuries before the royalty system became general in the 19th century, was paid only five pounds by his publisher for writing "Paradise Lost."

Plans Advanced For Dinner By Counseling Unit

Plans were advanced for the annual dinner and a hospitality committee was named during the meeting of Child Counseling Center directors Thursday night at the Mary Patterson Memorial. Thayer Allison, president, presided.

The dinner will be held April 16 at 6:30 p. m. at the St. Aloysius School dining room, with Mrs. Marie Hays chairman. The speaker will be State Sen. Oliver Ocasek of Northfield.

The dinner hospitality committee consists of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Rogers, Dr. and Mrs. Alex Fisher, Dr. and Mrs. Janis Lauva, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cashdollar, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Allison, Judge and Mrs. Louis Tobin and Mr. and Mrs. Emmerling.

A nominating committee to elect a new board of directors was appointed. It includes Mrs. Paul Davis, chairman; Rogers and Richard Emmerling.

The next regular meeting will be May 9 at Mary Patterson Memorial.

Car Demolishes Station's Pump In Lisbon Crash

LISBON — An unidentified driver failed to make the curve on N. Market St. (Route 45) at Jerome St. (Route 164) early today and demolished a pump at the Mattix service station.

Bill Mattix, owner, discovered the damage at 6. Officer John Vokovich said he noticed nothing unusual when he drove by about 5.

The vehicle apparently was northbound on Market and ran straight into the station lot. Tire marks showed the driver sped down Jerome St. after the crash.

Mattix said the pumps cost about $450. A new one is being installed today. The crash broke the gasoline line, but there was no loss of fuel, Mattix said.

Cancer Society Aide Speaks At Meeting

Jayne Calhoun of Lisbon, executive director of Columbiana County Cancer Society, spoke during the Highlandtown and No. 16 PTA meeting Monday night at the former school.

She screened a film and discussed the "Hazards of Smoking."

Mrs. Edith Harper's fifth-grade pupils displayed classroom work and presented vocal selections. The program was arranged by Mrs. Judy Mikanik. Glenn Duck, president, conducted business.

The Rev. Jack Hampton of the Central Methodist Church led devotions.

A white elephant sale was held. Fifth - grade mothers served refreshments.

The Lower Falls of Yellowstone River, in Yellowstone National Park, is twice as high as Niagara Falls.

Rug Weaver To Offer His Products At Show

George Moncrief of 110 Virginia Ave., Chester, is only one of many area residents preparing for the arts and crafts show sponsored by the Federated Women's Clubs of Chester.

The show will be open to the public Monday and Tuesday from 1 to 9 p.m. in the First Christian Church at Chester.

Moncrief, a weaver by hobby, credits his rehabilitation following an auto accident years ago to his rug weaving. Then residing in Canton and employed as a foreman by the U.S. Steel Co., he was hospitalized for weeks with a brain injury. To regain full use of his limbs, his doctor suggested he learn weaving, which requires the use of most the body's muscles to operate a large loom.

The "prescription" has brought him a lifetime of pleasure, he says. His rugs will be on display and available for sale at the show, along with works of area artists and crafters.

The three sponsoring clubs will receive none of the revenue from the articles, emphasizing the objective of the show is to encourage handcraft items in this district.

Ceramics, pen drawings, ornaments and toys, penmanship, rug braiding and other articles will be displayed.

Demonstrations Called Off

Milwaukee Marches End, Housing Goal Unachieved

By DION HENDERSON
Associated Press Writer

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — The long trail that Milwaukee open housing demonstrators marched from summer until nearly spring has ended with its goal unachieved.

The Milwaukee Youth Council of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People called off the marches, abruptly and without explanation, Friday—one day after the 200th consecutive nightly demonstration.

Milwaukee still has no strong open housing ordinance, only a measure that reflects the Wisconsin state law and leaves some two-thirds of the inner city's dwelling units exempt.

More than a hundred days ago, the Rev. James E. Groppi white Roman Catholic priest and adviser to the youth council, said the Milwaukee marches could be, perhaps, one of the last tests of peaceful demonstration for racial goals.

"If they fail," he said, "the young militants would then be able to say, 'you marched for that many days, and that many of your people went to jail and nothing happened'.

"Violence then would be inevitable."

Father Groppi was out of the city Friday and could not be reached for comment. Violence long since had dwindled from the route of the marches, which began last Aug. 28, less than a month after Milwaukee's riot, in which four persons died.

It was different in the beginning. An initial foray from the inner core, where 95 per cent of Milwaukee's 85,000 Negroes live, into the virtually all-white South Side, required almost all the city's available police to cover the retreat of the 250 marchers. Streets were lined with 13,000 jeering, bottle-throwing whites who braved repeated tear gas barrages to press their attacks.

The Common Council, which four times has rejected a strong open housing law offered by Mrs. Dale Phillips, its only woman and only Negro member, put an open housing referendum on the April 2 ballot as demanded in petitions by 27,000 opponents.

But in February U.S. District Judge Robert E. Tehan forbade voting on the issue, terming the proposal in violation of the 14th Amendment's equal treatment clause.

In the last weeks, the marches dwindled to token parades only occasionally marked by the presence of leaders like Father Groppi or Mrs. Phillips.

In the March mayoral primary, Mayor Henry Maier, who opposed a strong open housing law unless it covers the entire county, was renominated by a margin of 9 to 1 over the nearest of five opponents.

Court cases are in various stages against demonstrators who were arrested for disorderly conduct or obstructing police. Father Groppi is appealing a sentence that would jail him if he is arrested again within the next two years.

Two J. A. Firms Win Honors In Central Area Competition

Zapco, a local Junior Achievement company, placed second in the January central region "Company of the Month" contest.

The region includes more than 1,500 J.A. groups.

Japco, with 210 points, finished behind a Dover - New Philadelphia firm with 230.

Japco manufactured and sold plastic wall plaques and is counseled by the J. C. Penney Co., the First National Bank and Peoples Drugstore.

Pija, counseled by Patterson Industries, placed third in the regional contest with 200 points. It manufactures and sells map pen desk sets.

Pija, which meets at Patterson Industries, was not affected by the March 3 fire which wiped out the headquarters of other J.A. companies in the Siff building, and it will be "business as usual," Jerry Winstead, J.A. program manager, said.

Japco, Webco, Chit - Chat and Jacs all were burned out, but will meet at the Woomer building on St. Clair to reorganize, with the objective of resuming production shortly.

All companies hope to fill orders which were accepted earlier and end the year by paying a dividend to stockholders. The companies will begin to liquidate the first week in June.

Winstead said those with questions about J.A. may call 385-6800 after 7 p. m. on Wednesday or Thursday night.

The Australian government administers the eastern half of New Guinea.

Other winners were Mrs. Mable Stieler and Mrs. Coble, 500; Mrs. Ciaone and Mrs. Betty Hurst, pinochle; Mrs. Lester Barr and Mrs. Anna Roman, bunco; Mrs. John Thomas and Mrs. Black, bridge. Mrs. Mary Belaney, Mrs. Stanley Szurley, Mrs. Hilda Jones and Mrs. Barr served on the committee.

Tribute Planned For Odd Fellows At Newell Dinner

Clark Odd Fellows Lodge 447 at Newell is completing plans for a banquet Saturday, March 30, at which veteran members of four district IOOF organizations will be presented plaques honoring them for "outstanding service."

The Newell Rebekah Lodge will serve the dinner at 7 in the lodge hall. The guest speakers will be William Neil, past grand master of the Pennsylvania IOOF, and Harry Hudie of Aliquippa.

Clark Lodge will pay tribute to: William Harper of Pride of Chester Lodge 245; Howard Howell of Colliers Lodge 104; Clint Fiddler of Cove Valley Lodge 380 in Weirton, and William Johnson of the host lodge. Each will be presented a plaque in tribute to "outstanding service in Odd Fellowship."

Clark Lodge issued invitations to all members of IOOF and Rebekah Lodges in the East Liverpool area. Reservations must be made by Tuesday with Harry Edmond of 511 Kitchel Ave., Newell.

$43,857 Listed In Food Stamps

LISBON — Columbiana County residents in the federal food stamp program received $43,857 in stamps last month, compared with $41,342 in January.

Donald Hepp, county welfare director, said 732 families (2,243 persons) spent $27,656 for stamps and received bonus or free stamps worth $16,201.

In January, 698 families (2,103 persons) spent $26,278 and received $15,064 in bonus stamps.

Those interested in enrolling in the program which the Department of Agriculture sponsors for low - income families may get details from Wilbur Warren, county food stamp program administrator, in the Welfare Department building on E. Washington St. here.

Four More Ohioans Killed In Viet Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four more Ohioans have been killed in recent action in Vietnam, the Defense Department reported Friday.

They were Army 2nd Lt. James F. O'Laughlin, Pomeroy; Army Cpl. Richard A. Marsh, Blanchester; Marine Cpl. Delbert L. Leasure, Columbus; Marine Pfc. Reggie L. Vance, Miamisburg.

Woman Driver Cited After East End Crash

An East Liverpool woman was cited for lack of a driver's license after a two - car collision Friday in the right-angle curve at the junction of Elizabeth St. and Harvey Ave. in East End, police reported.

Linda Smith, 20, of 829 Lincoln Ave. faces the charge in connection with the collision that damaged her westbound 1955 model car and an eastbound 1962 model auto operated by Cecil Bonsall, 36, of Post Office Box 17, Negley. The front of each car was damaged.

The woman said she failed to negotiate the bend properly and hit Bonsall's auto. The Negley man said he saw the woman's car approaching on his side of the street and halted his auto just before the collision. The woman was to go to City Hospital for examination for possible injuries, officers said.

Charity Affair In New York

Princess, Lord Snowden Honored Guests At Ball

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Princess Margaret and her husband, Lord Snowdon, dined, danced and made merry Friday night along with some 400 New York socialites and theatrical personalities who gatheted to honor the royal couple and raise some money for charity.

The men almost outshined the women in the fashion department among the guests who danced to the music of Peter Duchin's orchestra, supped on salmon and steak and were entertained by a group of performers including Jack Cassidy and Shirley Jones, Dionne Warwick, Lisa Kirk and Tony Randall.

Actor Richard Harris, one of those performing, was in a red velvet jacket. Several men replaced dress shirts and black bow ties with turtlenecks and necklaces adorned with jeweled medallions. And actor George Grizzard stepped out on the dance floor in a blue uniform with red epaulettes which even he was hard put to describe.

"I guess you could say it's a uniform," he said. "Doug Fairbanks was staring at it. I think he thought he wore it in 'gunga din'."

Socialite Susan Stein, Grizzard's date, matched her escort's fine feathers by sporting a red, white and blue striped silk crepe formal and huge red, white and blue earrings by jewelry designer Kenneth Lane. "They're kind of like the shields of the African Masai warriors," said Miss Stein of the earrings.

Most of the women wore floor-length gowns. Only one miniskirt was spotted—the white organdy froth of pop art collector Ethel Skull.

Princess Margaret, in a long, white lace gown with jeweled collar, and Snowdon, in a midnight blue tuxedo and white turtleneck, arrived shortly after 9 p.m., posed briefly for photographers, then went in to greet the other guests and enjoy themselves until the wee hours of the morning.

The party, billed as "A Gala Evening of Musical Theater," was held in the Rainbow Room, atop the RCA Building overlooking midtown Manhattan.

The poet Milton, centuries before the royalty system became general in the 19th century, was paid only five pounds by his publisher for writing "Paradise Lost."

Plans Advanced For Dinner By Counseling Unit

Plans were advanced for the annual dinner and a hospitality committee was named during the meeting of Child Counseling Center directors Thursday night at the Mary Patterson Memorial. Thayer Allison, president, presided.

The dinner will be held April 16 at 6:30 p. m. at the St. Aloysius School dining room, with Mrs. Marie Hays chairman. The speaker will be State Sen. Oliver Ocasek of Northfield.

The dinner hospitality committee consists of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Rogers, Dr. and Mrs. Alex Fisher, Dr. and Mrs. Janis Lauva, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cashdollar, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Allison, Judge and Mrs. Louis Tobin and Mr. and Mrs. Emmerling.

A nominating committee to elect a new board of directors was appointed. It includes Mrs. Paul Davis, chairman; Rogers and Richard Emmerling.

The next regular meeting will be May 9 at Mary Patterson Memorial.

Car Demolishes Station's Pump In Lisbon Crash

LISBON — An unidentified driver failed to make the curve on N. Market St. (Route 45) at Jerome St. (Route 164) early today and demolished a pump at the Mattix service station.

Bill Mattix, owner, discovered the damage at 6. Officer John Vokovich said he noticed nothing unusual when he drove by about 5.

The vehicle apparently was northbound on Market and ran straight into the station lot. Tire marks showed the driver sped down Jerome St. after the crash.

Mattix said the pumps cost about $450. A new one is being installed today. The crash broke the gasoline line, but there was no loss of fuel, Mattix said.

Cancer Society Aide Speaks At Meeting

Jayne Calhoun of Lisbon, executive director of Columbiana County Cancer Society, spoke during the Highlandtown and No. 16 PTA meeting Monday night at the former school.

She screened a film and discussed the "Hazards of Smoking."

Mrs. Edith Harper's fifth-grade pupils displayed classroom work and presented vocal selections. The program was arranged by Mrs. Judy Mikanik. Glenn Duck, president, conducted business.

The Rev. Jack Hampton of the Central Methodist Church led devotions.

A white elephant sale was held. Fifth - grade mothers served refreshments.

The Lower Falls of Yellowstone River, in Yellowstone National Park, is twice as high as Niagara Falls.

Rug Weaver To Offer His Products At Show

George Moncrief of 110 Virginia Ave., Chester, is only one of many area residents preparing for the arts and crafts show sponsored by the Federated Women's Clubs of Chester.

The show will be open to the public Monday and Tuesday from 1 to 9 p.m. in the First Christian Church at Chester.

Moncrief, a weaver by hobby, credits his rehabilitation following an auto accident years ago to his rug weaving. Then residing in Canton and employed as a foreman by the U.S. Steel Co., he was hospitalized for weeks with a brain injury. To regain full use of his limbs, his doctor suggested he learn weaving, which requires the use of most the body's muscles to operate a large loom.

The "prescription" has brought him a lifetime of pleasure, he says. His rugs will be on display and available for sale at the show, along with works of area artists and crafters.

The three sponsoring clubs will receive none of the revenue from the articles, emphasizing the objective of the show is to encourage handcraft items in this district.

Ceramics, pen drawings, ornaments and toys, penmanship, rug braiding and other articles will be displayed.

Demonstrations Called Off

Milwaukee Marches End, Housing Goal Unachieved

By DION HENDERSON
Associated Press Writer

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — The long trail that Milwaukee open housing demonstrators marched from summer until nearly spring has ended with its goal unachieved.

The Milwaukee Youth Council of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People called off the marches, abruptly and without explanation, Friday—one day after the 200th consecutive nightly demonstration.

Milwaukee still has no strong open housing ordinance, only a measure that reflects the Wisconsin state law and leaves some two-thirds of the inner city's dwelling units exempt.

More than a hundred days ago, the Rev. James E. Groppi white Roman Catholic priest and adviser to the youth council, said the Milwaukee marches could be, perhaps, one of the last tests of peaceful demonstration for racial goals.

"If they fail," he said, "the young militants would then be able to say, 'you marched for that many days, and that many of your people went to jail and nothing happened'.

"Violence then would be inevitable."

Father Groppi was out of the city Friday and could not be reached for comment. Violence long since had dwindled from the route of the marches, which began last Aug. 28, less than a month after Milwaukee's riot, in which four persons died.

It was different in the beginning. An initial foray from the inner core, where 95 per cent of Milwaukee's 85,000 Negroes live, into the virtually all-white South Side, required almost all the city's available police to cover the retreat of the 250 marchers. Streets were lined with 13,000 jeering, bottle-throwing whites who braved repeated tear gas barrages to press their attacks.

The Common Council, which four times has rejected a strong open housing law offered by Mrs. Dale Phillips, its only woman and only Negro member, put an open housing referendum on the April 2 ballot as demanded in petitions by 27,000 opponents.

But in February U.S. District Judge Robert E. Tehan forbade voting on the issue, terming the proposal in violation of the 14th Amendment's equal treatment clause.

In the last weeks, the marches dwindled to token parades only occasionally marked by the presence of leaders like Father Groppi or Mrs. Phillips.

In the March mayoral primary, Mayor Henry Maier, who opposed a strong open housing law unless it covers the entire county, was renominated by a margin of 9 to 1 over the nearest of five opponents.

Court cases are in various stages against demonstrators who were arrested for disorderly conduct or obstructing police. Father Groppi is appealing a sentence that would jail him if he is arrested again within the next two years.

Two J. A. Firms Win Honors In Central Area Competition

Zapco, a local Junior Achievement company, placed second in the January central region "Company of the Month" contest.

The region includes more than 1,500 J.A. groups.

Japco, with 210 points, finished behind a Dover - New Philadelphia firm with 230.

Japco manufactured and sold plastic wall plaques and is counseled by the J. C. Penney Co., the First National Bank and Peoples Drugstore.

Pija, counseled by Patterson Industries, placed third in the regional contest with 200 points. It manufactures and sells map pen desk sets.

Pija, which meets at Patterson Industries, was not affected by the March 3 fire which wiped out the headquarters of other J.A. companies in the Siff building, and it will be "business as usual," Jerry Winstead, J.A. program manager, said.

Japco, Webco, Chit - Chat and Jacs all were burned out, but will meet at the Woomer building on St. Clair to reorganize, with the objective of resuming production shortly.

All companies hope to fill orders which were accepted earlier and end the year by paying a dividend to stockholders. The companies will begin to liquidate the first week in June.

Winstead said those with questions about J.A. may call 385-6800 after 7 p. m. on Wednesday or Thursday night.

The Australian government administers the eastern half of New Guinea.

Tribute Planned For Odd Fellows At Newell Dinner

Clark Odd Fellows Lodge 447 at Newell is completing plans for a banquet Saturday, March 30, at which veteran members of four district IOOF organizations will be presented plaques honoring them for "outstanding service."

The Newell Rebekah Lodge will serve the dinner at 7 in the lodge hall. The guest speakers will be William Neil, past grand master of the Pennsylvania IOOF, and Harry Hudie of Aliquippa.

Clark Lodge will pay tribute to: William Harper of Pride of Chester Lodge 245; Howard Howell of Colliers Lodge 104; Clint Fiddler of Cove Valley Lodge 380 in Weirton, and William Johnson of the host lodge. Each will be presented a plaque in tribute to "outstanding service in Odd Fellowship."

Clark Lodge issued invitations to all members of IOOF and Rebekah Lodges in the East Liverpool area. Reservations must be made by Tuesday with Harry Edmond of 511 Kitchel Ave., Newell.

$43,857 Listed In Food Stamps

LISBON — Columbiana County residents in the federal food stamp program received $43,857 in stamps last month, compared with $41,342 in January.

Donald Hepp, county welfare director, said 732 families (2,243 persons) spent $27,656 for stamps and received bonus or free stamps worth $16,201.

In January, 698 families (2,103 persons) spent $26,278 and received $15,064 in bonus stamps.

Those interested in enrolling in the program which the Department of Agriculture sponsors for low - income families may get details from Wilbur Warren, county food stamp program administrator, in the Welfare Department building on E. Washington St. here.

Woman Driver Cited After East End Crash

An East Liverpool woman was cited for lack of a driver's license after a two - car collision Friday in the right-angle curve at the junction of Elizabeth St. and Harvey Ave. in East End, police reported.

Linda Smith, 20, of 829 Lincoln Ave. faces the charge in connection with the collision that damaged her westbound 1955 model car and an eastbound 1962 model auto operated by Cecil Bonsall, 36, of Post Office Box 17, Negley. The front of each car was damaged.

The woman said she failed to negotiate the bend properly and hit Bonsall's auto. The Negley man said he saw the woman's car approaching on his side of the street and halted his auto just before the collision. The woman was to go to City Hospital for examination for possible injuries, officers said.
